M. W. SHUMAKE,
GIN MAKER, Marion, Ala.

HAS just received a large supply of gin mangle from the State of Georgia, which must prove satisfactory to all. He has no improvement to which he would particularly invite the attention of planters, PATENT BOXES, that remove the danger of combustion from friction, which is so liable to happen to the ones now in general use.

His long experience in the business, and the superior quality to which he now has, will enable him to make or repair gins in the very best manner. He would, therefore, say to planters that they would do well to give him a call before purchasing elsewhere. Orders from a distance will be attended to with promptness and despatch.

N. B.—I learn the impression has got out that my establishment was consumed the late fire—I am happy to inform the public that such is not the case.

GREAT REDUCTION IN SADDLERY AND HARNESS,

AT STOKES' OLD STAND,

Opposite the Market-House, Marion, Ala.

He has on hand a large and durable assortment of Spanish, English and Side-Saddles, Carriage and Buggy Harness, Bridles, Martingales, Whips, Spurs, Carpet and Saddle Bags, Collars, &c. made of the best Northern material and by superior workmen, which he offers for less than they can be had elsewhere. (Mobile market and the Public Square not excepted).

The public are indebted to this establishment for the great reduction in the above articles, it therefore claims the patronage, or at least a call before purchasing elsewhere. He will use his best endeavors to please all. Old Saddles and Harness taken in part pay. He is now prepared to make work to order, and repairing done with neatness and despatch. Call and examine.
May 9, 1846

CARRIAGE MAKING.

THE subscriber will continue the above business at his old stand, near the public square, where he may at all times be found ready and willing to accommodate his customers at prices to suit the times. He is prepared to make any new work, such as CARRIAGES, BACCHANS, BOATS and WAGGONS. He is also prepared to do any repairing in the above line, call work done in the best style, as he is prepared with the best timber the country can produce, and the best trimmings that can be bought in New York.

CABINET WAREHOUSE.

THE undersigned being thankful for the liberal patronage extended to the late firm of John M. Stone & Co., would give notice that he has bought out the interest of William Hornbuckle, Esq. in the CABINET BUSINESS, and is now carrying on at the old stand, where he can always be found, ready to meet his friends and customers, on liberal terms, with all articles usually kept in Cabinet Warehouses, and as they are of known manufacture, he can warrant every article that leaves his shop.

PLANTERS HOTEL.

THE subscriber having taken the Hotel known as the Lyell Hotel, in Marion, lately occupied by William Hornbuckle, Esq., begs leave to inform his friends and the public generally that he is now ready to receive

BOARDERS AND TRAVELLERS.

The house is now undergoing thorough repairs. He has provided himself with one of the best cooks in the State, with plenty of other good trustworthy servants, and flatters himself by close attention to the interests of his customers, (which he promises to all who will give him a call), that he will receive a due proportion of public patronage. He has a large and commodious stable, which shall be well provided with the best provender, and he has employed an experienced driver who will be in constant attendance.

W. M. PLEASANT,
Factor and Commission Merchant, Mobile.

RESPECTFULLY offers his services to the public, and more particularly to his friends and the citizens of Perry County. He promises to attend personally to the filling of orders, to adhere to directions; faithfully discharging all other duties devolving on him; and will remit funds to his patrons with promptness—for which he will charge the usual commission.

He is especially permitted to refer to the following gentlemen:
Rev. James H. De Voe.
Messrs. Wyatt & Houston.
General E. D. King.
Honorable A. B. Moore.
Honorable J. F. Cooke.

PROSPECTUS OF THE LITERARY ATHENEUM,
A NEW and splendid Monthly Magazine, to be edited by Rev. Henry D. Moore of Philadelphia, and Rev. Andrew A. Lipcomb, Professor of English Literature and Belles Lettres, in the city of Baltimore. On the first of January, 1847, the subscribers intended issuing the first number of a splendid monthly magazine, to be called the "Literary Atheneum," to be devoted to the interests and cultivation of a mind-refining, soul-inspiring, spirit-stirring literature; such a literature, in a word, as the progressive taste of society seems to demand.

Between the magazines of the day, which are devoted exclusively to the circulation of Christian Literature, and those devoted to the light, and, in too many instances, tasteless and corrupting literature—there is a wide and deep chasm, to fill which successfully and profitably, very few attempts have been made. To supply this void, to some extent at least, is the intention of the subscribers, in issuing the "Literary Atheneum."

The general cast and character of the contents of the proposed magazine will be fixed according to the standard of the most sterling intellect, and the most liberal appreciation of the wants of the common mind. Its pages will ever present a feast and a glow, to feed and illumine the loftiest and purest taste and spirit of the admirers and lovers of refining and exalting literary walks and research.

To secure this grand design, effectually and honorably, no pains or expense will be spared. The contents will be purely original; consisting of Lectures, Addresses, Essays, &c. on the most popular and exciting literary and scientific subjects, from the most able writers that can be secured—interspersed and relieved by beautiful poetic compositions.

Science, Art, and Government, in their almost infinite variety of development and interest, will be liberally and honorably discussed in its pages. Arrangements are in progress for an extensive and important European correspondence, which will be a feature of great interest in its varied contents.

In addition to such articles, there will be presented occasional tales of unexceptionable character and style, differing essentially from the romances which fill the pages of the many magazines of the day. Writers in this connection, can be secured, whose productions are the embodiment of life, true to itself—and which will kindle and glow with the loftiest and purest sentiment, and thrill with the beauties of morality and religion in their loveliest forms.

Each number of the Atheneum will contain four embellishments of the first artistic merit. One of them will be a portrait of some distinguished personage in this country or in Europe, accompanied with an interesting biographical sketch. Another will be a view of the buildings and grounds of some one of the popular Universities, in this or the old world, accompanied with a historical, biographical and statistical sketch in the body of the work.

The portraits will be fine mezzotint, and the college views, beautiful line engravings. Then will follow richly-colored specimens of flowers and fruit; in connection with which, there will also be presented interesting notices—floral and botanical—of climate, habits, culture, &c. All of which cannot but secure interest and favor.

Each number will comprise 60 pages of letter-press, double column, beautifully stereotyped, and printed on fine white paper; the whole corresponding, in all respects, with the character of the other departments of the work.

Such is to be the character of the work at its commencement. If it is successful, as it ought to be, and as is hoped and believed it will be—improvements will be made as far as possible in the different departments, as they are suggested in the progress of the work.

The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the public, that they have concluded arrangements with the Rev. Henry D. Moore, of Philadelphia, and Rev. Andrew A. Lipcomb, Professor of English Literature and Belles Lettres, of Baltimore, who will co-operate as Editors of the new Magazine. Under the management of these gentlemen, the subscribers flatter themselves abundant success will be secured in behalf of the enterprise.

TO PUBLISHERS.—The subscribers would also give notice to Publishers, at home and abroad, that there will be, in connection with the work, an extensive review department. This will be made a feature of excellent interest. The department will be conducted fairly and honorably, and all works sent to the office of the subscribers, will receive such notices as their character may demand.

The first number will be issued on the first of January, 1847. Its contents and names of contributors will be published shortly.

TERMS.—Three dollars per annum, in advance. Editors of papers, copying this Prospectus, and sending a paper with it, to the office of the "Atheneum," shall receive the numbers of the work, and the thanks of the publishers.

All letters, containing orders for the work, post-paid; and enclosing the subscription price, will receive prompt attention. To be addressed to F. C. WILSON & CO. Philadelphia, Pa.

ALABAMA FEMALE ATHENEUM.

THE subscribers, as a committee of advancement, in relation to the ATHENEUM, in Tuscaloosa, deem it a duty they owe to the Principal, and to the community, to express their satisfaction in the results of the first session. A portion of us, from observing the improvement of our daughters, and the residue from other means of information, are well convinced of the capacity, fidelity, and taste of the Instructor, and are gratified with what they have seen of their methods both of instruction and discipline.

They can, with all candor, recommend the Institution to their friends and the public, as worthy of general confidence and patronage.

B. MANLY, BENJ. WHITEFIELD, J. J. ORMOND, BENJ. F. PORTER, H. W. COLLIER, J. A. GUILD.

In addition to the names above mentioned, the Principal would refer to the following gentlemen, Ministers of this place: Rev. R. B. WHITE, Presbyterian Church; Rev. J. C. KEENER, Methodist Church; Rev. T. F. CURTIS, Baptist Church.

THE PSALMIST.
A NEW Collection of Hymns for the use of the Baptist Churches.
BY BARON STOW AND E. F. SMITH.
Assisted by
WILLIAM R. WILLIAMS, New York;
GEORGE B. IDE, Philadelphia, Pa.;
RUFUS W. GRIMM, Philadelphia, Pa.;
STEPHEN P. HILL, Baltimore, Md.;
JAMES B. TAYLOR, Richmond, Va.;
JOHN L. DODD, Penfield, Ga.;
W. T. BRADLEY, Charleston, S. C.;
E. B. C. HOWE, Nashville, Tenn.;
S. W. LIND, St. Louis, Mo.

This work contains nearly Twelve Hundred Hymns, original and selected, by a hundred and sixty-one writers, besides pieces credited to fifty collections of hymns, or other works, the authorship of which is unknown. Forty-five are anonymous, being traced neither to author nor collection.

All of Watts's Hymns, possessing lyrical spirit, and suited to the worship of a Christian assembly, are inserted, and a large number of hymns heretofore unknown in this country, have been introduced. The distinction of psalms and hymns, usually made in other collections, has been avoided in this, and all have been arranged together, under their appropriate heads, and numbered in regular, unbroken succession. There are four valuable indexes: a "General Index" of subjects; a "Particular Index," an "Index of First Lines," and an extended "Scriptural Index."

EXTRACTS FROM A FEW OF THE MANY PRAISES AND REVIEWS.

From an extended notice in the Christian Review.

We hazard little in saying, that it is the best collection of Hymns ever published in the English language. They have been drawn from the best sources, and probably from a greater number of authors, than those in any other hymn book extant.

From the New York Baptist Register.

The Psalmist is one of the most delightful and complete books of the kind we have ever had the privilege of examining. It is the very book wanted. The poetry is choice and beautiful, the sentiments are scriptural, expressed with peculiar felicity and force, and adapted to every variety of condition; there is something for every body and every occasion.

From the Religious Herald, Richmond, Va.

It has evidently been compiled with much care, and comprises a sufficient variety of hymns for all the purposes of worship. The work deserves high praise for its purity of style and expression. It has great and deserved merit; and, as a whole, is not only well adapted to the object aimed at, but superior to its predecessors.

From the Alabama Baptist.

We think it decidedly superior to any collection of Psalms and Hymns ever before issued from the American press. In the number, variety, and adaptation of subjects, this volume exceeds all others. Here are admirable hymns on all the great doctrines of the Bible. There are also great numbers of hymns of peculiar excellence, adapted to revivals, camp meetings, conferences, and family worship. We earnestly commend the Psalmist to the attention of pastors and churches.

EXTRACTS OF LETTERS.

From the Rev. Geo. B. Ide, Philadelphia.

Such another collection of hymns for public worship, I do not believe the world can furnish, and I am certain the English language cannot. It is a work, in every respect, of such surpassing excellence, as to leave nothing in its department to be desired.

From Rev. Spencer H. Cone, D. D., New York.

I have no hesitation in saying it is better adapted to the wants of our churches, and affords greater facilities to those who lead in worship, in the selection of appropriate psalms and hymns, than any other compilation with which I am acquainted. Its poetic and evangelical features are worthy of all praise.

From the Rev. Wm. T. Branly, Augusta, Georgia.

A desideratum is now supplied, the lack of which has been seriously felt, by pastors, for many years. Brother Ide did not speak extravagantly, when he pronounced the Psalmist "perfect in its kind, leaving nothing more to be desired for this department of worship." I think your book only requires to be known, to secure for it an extensive circulation.

From Rev. Geo. F. Adams, Baltimore, Md.

It is time we had one hymn book for general use. Let "The Psalmist" be that book. Let our preachers be as active as those of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and it will be done.

From Rev. C. D. Mallory, Ga.

The object of this communication is, to inquire if you have made any arrangements to supply our section of the country with your new hymn book, "The Psalmist." I am very anxious to have it generally circulated in Georgia, believing that it has claims paramount to all other Hymn Books in use.

From Rev. A. D. Sears, Louisville, Ky.

I have given it an attentive examination, and I unhesitatingly pronounce it unequalled. Whether it be considered as a book of sacred poetry, or as adapted to refine the taste, and promote the interest of our denominational worship, it stands unrivalled, and must supersede the use of every other hymn book ever published by the denomination.

I am anxious to see every friend of the denomination, east, west, north, and south, must see the propriety of sustaining one hymn book common to the Baptist Church. "The Psalmist" is that book.

The united testimony of pastors of Baptist churches in Boston and vicinity, in New York, and in Philadelphia, of the most decided and flattering character, has been given in favor of the book. Also by the Professors in Hamilton Literary and Theological Institution. The same, also, has been done by a great number of clergymen, churches, associations, and conventions in every State of the Union.

Among the associations and conventions, the following have each expressed sentiments similar to those given in the Letters and Reviews, inserted above, viz: Kennebec, Me., Baptist Association; Portland, Me., Baptist Association; Philadelphia Baptist Association; Monroe, N. Y., Baptist Association; Huron, Ohio, Baptist Association; Bethel, Tenn., Baptist Association; Alabama State Convention; Illinois State Convention; North District Association, Ill.; Niagara Baptist Association, N. Y.; Rock River, Ohio, Association; Miami, Ohio, Baptist Association.

As an evidence of the popularity of the work, it is proper to state, that nearly thirty thousand copies have already been called for.

It is the price of the 12mo. pulp size, in splendid binding, from $1 25 to $3 00. 12mo. pulp size, handsomely bound in sheep, 75 cts.; 12mo. pocket size, handsomely bound in sheep, 62 1/2 cts. The different sizes are also bound in various extra styles, price corresponding.

A liberal discount to churches introducing it, where a number of copies are purchased. Copies furnished for examination, on application to the publishers.

JUDSON FEMALE INSTITUTE.
MARION, PERRY COUNTY, ALABAMA.
[Number of Pupils, last year, 140.]
FACULTY OF INSTRUCTION.
For the year commencing September 30, 1846.
Prin. M. P. JEWETT, A. M. PRINCIPAL,
and Instructor in Ancient Languages, and in Moral and Mental Science.
Mr. D. WILLIAMS, Professor of Music.
Miss LUCY M. ATKINSON, Regular Course, French, Welsh, and Music.
Miss M. M. EVERTS, Regular Course, Drawing, and Painting in Water Colors.
Miss LUCY E. SMITH, Regular Course, Monochromatic Painting.
Miss E. ROY, Vocal and Instrumental Music.
Miss EMILY F. STERNFELLOW, Vocal and Instrumental Music.
Miss F. S. KINGSBURY, Embroidery.
Miss ELIZABETH C. HARTWELL, Preparatory and Primary Departments.
Governess—Miss B. S. KINGSBURY.
Steward's Department—Mr. & Mrs. HORNBUCKLE.

This Institution, established in 1839, has now been longer in operation under the direction of the same Principal, than any other Female Seminary in the South.

The reasons of its unexampled prosperity are to be sought in the excellence of the principles on which it is founded; the number, ability, zeal and fidelity of the teachers; the liberality of its location; the commodiousness of the temporary edifice; the value of its library, apparatus, and other facilities for imparting a thorough and accomplished education; the soundness of its principles of government and instruction; and the pure moral and religious influences which have surrounded it.

The Institution—in the various studies pursued, is of the most thorough character. It is intended that the pupil shall fully understand every subject which engages her attention. The pupil learns to think, not merely to repeat, not mere words.

Her Government is in the Principal, aided by the Associate in the Faculty of Instruction. A prompt and cheerful obedience to the laws is always expected; and this is enforced by appeals to the reason and the conscience of the pupil. Should the voice of persuasion remain unheeded, and any young lady continue perverse and obstinate, in spite of kind and faithful admonition, she would be removed from the privileges of the Institution.

THE MANNERS, personal and social habits, and the morals of the young ladies are formed under the eye of the government and teachers, from whom the pupils are never separated. The board never leave the grounds of the Institute without the special permission of the Principal. They never make or receive visits. They rise at 5 o'clock in the morning, throughout the year, and study one hour before breakfast; they also study two hours at night, under the direction of the Government. They go to town not once a month, and then all purchases must be approved by the government. They are allowed to spend no more than 50 cents each month from their pocket money. They wear a neat but economical uniform on Sabbath and holidays, while their ordinary dress must never be more expensive than the uniform. Expensive jewelry, as gold watches, chains, pencils, &c. must not be worn. No accounts to be made in town.

Parents and Guardians.—This Institution, like a College, is permanent in its character. Parents and guardians must place their daughters and wards here, with the confident expectation that they can here successfully prosecute their studies till they have completed their school education.

RELIGIOUS DUTY.—Pupils attend church once at least on the Sabbath, under the direction of their parents or guardians, as to the place of worship. Other religious exercises are attended, at the discretion of the Principal, but all sectarian influences are carefully excluded.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT.—The able Professors and Teachers are engaged in this department. There are nine Pianos in the Institute; one of which is Coleman's Eolian Piano. No additional charge is made for instruction on the Eolian.

Prof. Chase has reduced the whole business of teaching in his department to a rigidly scientific and philosophical system. In this system several prominent features are worthy of notice.

I. ALL the members of the institution have a daily exercise in Vocal Music.
