

27

W. CHAMBLISS, Editor and Froprietor.]

"CHARITY REJOICETH NOT IN INIQUERY, BUT REJOICETH IN THE TRUTH. "-I Corinchians, Sill, 6.

JOHN G. MARSHAD, Jubliebers

[NUMBER. 9.

VOLUME I.]

MARION, (PERRY COUNTY, ALABAMA,) APRIL 20, 1849.

Ministers Department.

SUPPORT OF THE MINISTRY.

[Continued.]

testimony of the apostle himself. Hence. to the Corinthians he said: "Wherein were ve inferior to the other churches. except it be in this, that I invself was not burdensome to you? Forgive me this wrong."

I this, however, we have the more infullible

The history of Paul is a special exem-From this expression it is multifest, that lification of our argument : and we are the only point of contrast between the he more careful to instance this, that we Corinthian church and every other is, that may disabuse your thoughts of the olden this alone had not, at any time, borne the dogma, that " this eminent apostle laborburden of his expenses. Was this coa ed for his own support, at Thessalonica. trast just? If it was not, it proved noth at Corinth, and at Ephesus." Where is ing to the purpose of the apostle. If the proof of this? When was it necessawas, then we are no longer left to our ry? When was it true? conjectures on this subject-while, at St. Paul visited Thessalonica in the Corinth he was adequively sustained by spring of the year A. D. 51. At this point the united churches of Macedonia, in ev he remained the brief space of six months ery other place, the churches, had in turn, only. Nevertheless, during this short peborne the burden of his support.

riod, the church at Philippi sent him con-We are a moust however, to leave no tributions by private hands, "once and erroneous impression on our minds in reagain" to the defrayment of his expen- lation to the Corinchian church. Al ses: || and if to this we add, that here he though she never supported the apostle abode in the house of Jason, a natural Piul, she d.d. nevertheless, uniformly act kinsman, a converted Jew, a christian upon this universal principle, in the case brother :§ we shall see upon what slenof her other ministry. This is up parent der ground the presumption rests, that at from the language of the apostle now be this point he labored for his own maintefore us: "I myself was not burdensome to nance. you:" and from his appeal to them on a

In the autumn of the same year the former occasion: "If others be partakets apostle went to Corinth. He abode at of this power over you;" and in the com this place a year and a half: and here we mendation of the beloved Gaius-a memknow that he did engage in the business ber of this church-to whom we made a of his cratt. But the question arises, did former allusion. The truth is, this church he do so for the purpose of his own supearly became distinguished as one of the port ? That he was not sustained by the most benevoleat and liberal mind d of all Corinthian church, we are satisfied ; nor the apostolic churches. You remember, are we, however, less assured that he was. particularly, that in the days of Claudius. at this period, supported by the churches the prompt and ready manner with which of Macedonia. "Have I," said he. " comshe came forward to the relief of the poor mitted an offence, in abasing myself that brethren of Judea, rendered her the boast ve might be exalted, because I have of the apostle; and her zeal provoked preached to you the gospel of God freely? very many to love and to good works. I robbed other churches, taking wages of Here especially, the sentiment prevailed them to do you service. And when I was in an eminent degree, that all contribupresent with you, and wanted, I was chartions to charitable and religious purposes. geable to no man. (i. e., of you.) for that are to be regarded a divine deposit, which which was lacking to me, the brethren will not fail to yield a rich and felicitous which came from Macedonia supplied."* dividend. Hence, when St. Paul refused At Ephesus, the only remaining point to receive a maintenance at their hands. at which it is pretended that St. Paul lait was esteemed a personal wrong on the bored for his support, we are furnished one hand, and a proof of his want of love with a like refutation. as at Corinth and on the other. To both of these charges Thessalonica. For, to say nothing of the he found it necessary to reply. To the presumption arising from the indefatiga- latter he replied, by assurances of a pruble industry with which, at this place, he dential character-that he had been drivpursued the legitimate duties of his proen to this by desires to cut off occasion fession-"so preaching the gospel that from some who were seeking it against all Asia heard the word," and "by the him: and to the former, he replied by space of three years ceasing not to warm simply asking pardon-" Forgive me this every man night and day with tears;"† wrong."* and of that arising from the remarkable To what issue are we now brought, by success which here attended his ministry this array of facts and of proofs ? What de--resulting in one instance in the burning termination shall we form of a dury sp of more than thirty thousand dollars imperatively commanded, and, in all the worth of books of magic ,1 we know, that first ages, so universally practised ?---a at this point he was not without the libeduty, involving alike our own interest. ral patronage of the house of Onesiphoand the interest of the Redeemer's kingrus. His language is : " The Lord give dom in the world-a duty, the neglect of mercy to the house of Onesiphorus ; for which was denounced as a sacrilege, and he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed the observance of which was dignified as of my chain. The Lord grant that he "a sacrifice acceptable, well pleasing to may find mercy of the Lord in that day : God." Shall we longer remit it from the for in how many things he ministered unto churches, nor longer hold any man reme at Ephesus, thou knowest very well' sponsible for its neglect? We of the Where, then, we ask again, is the evinineteenth century-standing in the twidence, that in either of the above named light of the millenial glory ? Yes, we cities, "this eminent apostle labored for may, if we can contemn the divine anhis own support ?"-and beyond this there thority-if we can assume the dreadful is no such imitation-even the most casual-within the lids of the Bible. That he individual services, and of the appointed did here employ an occasional recreative services of his ministry, and of the songs hour in manual exercise, as the ardor of and proises of innum-rable multitudes. his professional engagements and the inperishing for lack of knowledge. Who, creasing infirmities of age, made it requimy brethren, is sufficient for these things!

Respecting God, it is said, "His thoughts tifully exemplified in his life; and there are very deep " "His understanding is, is scarce any situation, however perplexunderstanding. He is "the only wise loss to know how he ought to act, may can search the dep ha of his Greator's wisdom. Could an archaigel explore that wisdom, God would no longer be the ONLY wise. His creatures would be as wise as himself. He then who searches the deep things of God, must himself the God; as the spirit of min is an essential part of mun.

The part which the Holy Spirit acts it the economy of redemption further proves his divianty. If not Gol, he must be an angel. But what are angels! are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of silvation? The Holy Sport's work is reo resented as of a far nigher name. "B lievers are born of the Spirit." Are save "by the renewing of the Huly Goost. "Are sanctified by the Spirit of Golt. "Abound in hope through the power of the Holy Gnost," "Have the love of God shed abroad in their hearts by the H. Ghost." "Are lel by the Spirit, and shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting ", these things cannot be the effects of an angel's ageacy, for elsewhere it is is declared that believers are born of Goil, and that every good gift, and every perfect gift comesh from the Father of matcies. H therefore who is the distributer of the best gifts, must hunself be God. These blessings are too great to be communicated by any being who is not divine. Could the highest archingel be represented as the author of them! Could at without the utmost implety be said that believers are born of Gabriel, are sunctifield by Gabriel, abound in hope and hove by Gabriel, are led by Gabriel, and shall of Gabriel reap life everlasting! Would not such assertions shock every plous feeling! Would it not be felt that such language excited the creature to the Creator's place? Yet, unless the Spirit were one with God, it would be as improper to apply such expressions in reference to him as to an archangel. Finally, his divinity is proved from his being unred with the Father and the Son in the baptismal form, and in the blessing implored for christians. To unite a mere attribu e with God in these soleing torms would be absurd; but improus to unite a creature, and pay him the same religious hom ige as his Creator. Besides the numerous passages that have been brought torward in proof of the deity of the Son and Spiri , the Seriotures abound with o here, when aln t of no reasonable interpretation of that does trine be rejected. Of this description are the following:"And God said, let US make man in OUR image, after OUR lisen ss." After the fail of man the LORD GOD said. "Behold, the man is become us one of us, to know good and evil!" Similar language is used on other occasions. The Lord said. "Let US go down." In the vision of divine glory which Isainh saw. Jehovah is described as saving, "Wiom shall I send, and who will go for US" The language of the Mast High or these occasions is correct and jus ,if the bather, Son and Holy Spirit are one God; but a the doctrine of the Unitarians were true. the language would be unreasonable .--Pike.

treasures of the infinite Mind, knows the there is no Christian grace or virtuinmost secrets of his Creator's breast, an 1 which it was proper for a perfectly innowareheth even the deep things of God! cent being to possess, which is not beauinfinite." "There is no searching of his ing, in which the Christian who is at a feats which they have sustained in him with any talents but their own of God." These passages refute such a sup- not derive sufficient instruction from the other words, the offener that conscience made them responsible for only that one. position as that the most excited creature example of his divine Master -Payson makes good the supremacy which she He to whom is committed one talent, has

MINISPRY OF ANGELS.

We have every reason to believe, that a vast system of universal benevolence is going on throughout the universe of God. and that it is the grand object of his moramong unnumbered worlds. In prosecuting this object, he employs created intelligences as his ministers in accomplishing his designs, and for communicating enjoyment to each other. With respect tha "hey are all ministering spirits sent ior h to maister to them who shall be hears of salvation" Heace, we learn from succed history, that they delivered Peter from the fury of Herod and the Jewisa Ruiers, -Duniel, from the ravenous ious-Lor, trun the destruction of Sodo n. and Jacob from the hands of Esan : that't evistrang henod and refreshed Eli juli in the wilderness, comforted Daniel when covered with she's doth and ashes. directed Joseph and Mury in their journey to Expl, and Cornelius to Peter, to could it be affined that he surveys the [injuries ? See him on the cross. In short.] respite only but a final deliverance from [Christ, because they have httle influence.]

of violence, and less the strength for its has five. accomplishment, to east her down from In conversing some time since with suggestion, those trains of thought and "that he intended to do all that he could." ieeling, which connect her first bidlings If he could turn eight or ten, it would be turbed, and the more likely to be repeated, excuse himself from the labors of the pomore strengthened by its exercise, and ev. acceptably address large assemblies. He mation or establishment of a virtuous character. - Chalmers.

BEWARE OF BUOKS.

In speaking of books, we cannot forbear noticing that very prevalent sort of reading which is little loss productive of evil, hade tess prejudicial to moral and mental. inprovement, than that which curit more formidable appearance. We cannot confine our censure to those more corrupt writings which deprave he heart, debauch the magination, and poison the principle. Of these the the pitute is so obvioustant no cau ion on this head, it is piesu ned can be u-cessary. But i justice forbids us to confound the inspired with the are appointed to be continued through- mischievous, the idle with the victous, and the frivolous with the proflig Mr. still It is no improbable that the spirits of we can only admit of shules deep shades, we allow -of difference. These works, if comparatively harmless, ye. debase the taste, slacken the in ellectual nerve, let down the understanding, set the senger, he field down to worship before leacy bose, and and it gulding among the feet of the massenger who showed low and mean objects. They not only han these things." But the messenger run away with the time which should be given to better things, but endually destroy all taste for better things. They sink the mind to their own candlard, and keep. (or are interested in) the sayings of give it a sluggish reluctance. as had althis book." These words would natur. most said a moral incapacity, for every have providences to observe," is verified thing above their level. The mind, by in the experience of thousands. With ger was a departed sain . since the des. long habit of scooping, loses its erectness, equal truth may it be said, that whoever ignates hi useff a brother, a prophet, and a and yields to its degradation. It becomes looks for answers to prayer, shall have so low and narrow by the littleness of the answers. Answers are, with some the things wher engine it, that it re- Caristians, more frequent than denials; or Denet wir will assent it an quires a pointal effort to hit uself high may, some prayers are answered " while ho to to be employed in such a service by enough, or o open itself wide enough, to we are yet speaking." It might be thus their exailed Lord. But whether or not embrade great and noble objects. The with all Christians. The author believes such a supposition may be admitted, cer- appende is vittated. Excess, instead of that, in cases like the two following. producing a surfeit by weakening the prayer is instantly and literally answered. digestion, only induces a loathing for Objections cannot now be noticed. stronger nour shinent. The freulties A believer in the efficacy of fervent which might have been expanding in prayer had a son who, from unavoidable works of science, or souring in the coa- intercourse with the profane, had learned God and Father of our Lord J. sus Christ." templation of genius, become satisfied to swear. The parent, on learning the with the impertinences of the most ordis said fact, immediately called the labor nary fiction, lose their relish for the sa him to rebuice and remonstrate ; but deverity of truth, the elegace of taste, sting the conversation the boy remained and the soberness of religion. Lutied in impeditiont and angry. On this, the firtants of heaven are incessivily employed the topor of repose, the intellect dozes, they kneeling down in the presence of his "All the wild trash of sleep with at its rest." H. Moore. RICHES OF THE GOSPEL heir intrusion. Conscience, the longer They think that if they only had divinit has made way over the obstacless of guished talents and an interesting made selfishness and passion-the less will it give of addressing their fellow men, then they way to these adverse forces, themselves would perform explains. New the factors weakened by the repeated des that God does not require them to serve the warfare of moral discipline: Or, in he has given them only one talent, he has chains-the greater would be the work, no more right to be slothful, than he that that station of precical guidance and an individual of moderate attainments. command which of right belongs to her. It who felt deeply interested in the apis just b cause, in virtue of the law of proaching Presidential election, he said al government, to distribute happines, with their final execution, are the less something for such a man as he." 'This exposed at every new instance to be dis- man had a mind to work. He did not over again, that every good principle is litical campaign, because he could not erv good affection is more strengthened expected to influence others by personal to the augels, we are informed by Paul. by as indulgence than before. The acis address. He was willing to work with of virtue ripen into habits; and the just the talents he had given him, and in goodly and permuleur result is, the for- the circumstances where he was placed. Let every individual member of the church ade on this principle, and an inflaence will be exerted that will be felt in the world. The zeal and earnestness with which politicians are now at work. should shame the church. Let no brother or sister in the church say, "I have ery little influence, I can do nothing." li you have but/little influence, you are responsible for the use of that little. If in your humble situation you can turn eight or ten, you will save many souls from douth You never know really while you gan do, until relying on divine grace, you make a fair trial. How many men have entered upon the work of the ministry, without the expectation of accomplishing any great things ; yet God has given them to see more of the results. of their labors than they ever dared hope for. There is not a single individual member of the church, however humble, who, If he goes forth weeping bearing precious seed, will not come forth rejeicing, bringing his sheaves with him Plead no longer the excuse for your sloth, "I have but fittle ialluence," but do whatsoever your hands find to do with all your might .----Buston Recorder.

Religious Miscellany.

CHRIST OUR EXAMPLE.

It was highly important and desirable governed by a principle of selfilmess in that our great then Priest should not only the general tenor of their conduct, must obtain for us the neaveniv miseritation. be considered as unquilified for taking a responsibility of "robbing God" of our but also go before us, in the path which part in h benevalent employments of the leads to n ; that he should not buy des- celestial world .- Dick. cribe Christianity in his discourses, but exemptify it is his life and conversation. THE POWER OF GOOD HABITS. This our blessed Savior has done, in him we see pure and undersed religion embodied. In him christianity Lyes and breaches. And now annuole, now interesting does she appear. How convincent. how amina ing is ou? Savier's (x mple. How loudiy, now persuasively, does his pases and longs to which hav lead, are conduct preach ! Would you learn subat the holding of conscience, will, by fremission to parental authority ! See him, queni repetition, ai length describe the notwithstanding ais exalted character. same track almost spontan oursly -even cuertally subjecting hunsels to car will as in physical education, thears, inboringsof his parents, and moorning with them. is searched at the first come to be done as a mechanic, for aimost timely yours .-a last waltou the feeling of an effort. Would you learn concent ashe with And so, in moral elucition, every new poor and low condition / See him destiince of a place waere to lay his head way to future achievements of the same Would you learn active bearlicence !-See and going about doing good. Would each moral victory is to set us on higher you learn to be fervent and constant in and timmer vantage-ground for the con-The Holy Ghast is eternal. "Christ, devotional exercises ! See him rising to quests of principle in all time coming. He who through the eternal Spirit offered prayer before the dawn of day. Would who resolu ely bids away the suggestions you learn in what manuer to creat your of avarice, when they come into coaffict The Holy Ghost is omniscient. "The orethrea ! See h.m washing his usciples with the incumbent generosity; or the Spirit searcheth all things even the deep feet! Would you lear a final piety? See hum suggestions of volup uousness, when they things of God. For what man knowerh lorgetting ais suderings, while in the agcome into conflict with the incumbent the things of a man, save the spirit of a quies of death, to provide a rather sou for self-denial; of the suggestions of anger. man that is in him! Even so the things ins desolate mother. Would you learn when they come into could ct with the inof God knoweth no one but the Spirit of in what manner to pray for relief unce. Acts xix: 19, 20. 12 Tim. i: 16-18. "Acts xix: 5; 1 Ger. ?). See Section 1 iz: 13. any created being? Of what oreature. Would you learn how to bear meuton and of any created being? Of what oreature. Would you learn how to bear meuton and of any created being? Of what oreature.

receive the knowl sign of salvation ; that they communicated "good idiags of great joy," to Zychasias the father of John the Buptis, to the Virgia Mary, and to the supplierds in the plains of B thlehem, and considere neurs of ned scanshied a ciples, by proclaiming the resurrection of their Lord and Misser; - and we have reason to conclude, that, such ministrations. out all the periods of time.

just men made perfect, are likewise occastotally employed in similar services.-When the vision of the new Jerusalein was exhibited to John by a celestial mesforbade him, saving .- "See thou do it not; tot I am thy follow servines, and of the brothien the Maphets, and at them that ally lead us to conclude, that this messenfellow servant. Perintpant was the spirit or Moses, of David, of Isiah, of Jeremiah. tain it is, that the saints will bereatter be employed in active beneficent services, in concert with other holy beings, so long as their existence endures. For they are constituted "Kings and Priests to the and are "workers together with G.d." in carrying forward the plans of his govern-1822-131.

Since then, it appears, that the inhabiin act of beneficence, the habit of benef- and enjoys in its waking dream, repace which is acquired in this world. along with its accompanying virtues, may be considered as a preparation and a qualification for that more extensive sphere of moral action into which the satists shall be introduced, when they wing their way from this earthly ball to the regions above. And, co sequently, those who never engage in "works of faith and fabors of love," and who are

Habit when enlisted on the side of rightequaters, not only streng heas and makes

When I go to the house of God. I do not " overtaken in a fault." Hence, one evawant amusement. I want the doctrine ning; in much sorrow of heart, the parent which is according to godliness. I sat alone in his parlor; and with the deep want to hear of the remely against the heavings of a soul struggling with "groanharassing of my guil , and the disorder of ings that cannot be unered," he offered my alf genous. I want to be led from mental prayer that God would defend the weariness and disappointment to that lad and keep him penitent. At the mogoodness which allein the hungry soul- meat, and in the midst, the door suddenly I want to have light upon the mystery of opened, and that dear boy-the subject of Providence; to be taught how the judge the prayer-rushing towards his father. ments of the Lord are right; how I shall seated on a sofa, and barving his head in be prepared for day and for trial : how I "the father's bosom, with a bitter cry, miy pass the time of my sojourning here said. "Oh, father, father, I have sworn in lear. and close it in peace. Tell me of again and I am very sorry for it." sure our resistance to vice, bu facilitates that Lord Jesus, "who his own self bare B.R.H the mist address performances of virtue. our sins in his own body on the tree."-The man who e thoughts, with the pur- Tell me of his "intercession for the trans-DEATH OF POPE LEO X. gressors," as their "Advocate with the Father." Tell me of his Holy Spirit, Leo X. had been greatly pleased by the whom they that believe on him receive. intelligence of the edict of Worms, and of to be their preserver. sanctifier, comfor-Luther's captivity; and in sign of his triter. Teil me of his chastenings : their unph had caused the Reformer to be pubnecessity, their use. Tell me of his preslicly burnt in elligy, together with his eace and synapathy, and love. Tell me writings. It was the second or third of the victurs, as growing out of his cross, time that the Papacy had indulged itself achievement of principle smooths the and nuringed by his grace. Tell me of the in this harmmless satisfaction. At the glory reflected on his name by the obedisame time. Leo, to show his gratitude to kind; and the precious trait or purchase of each of faith. Teil me of vanquished the Emperor, united his army with the death, of the purified grave, of a blessed Imperial forces. The French were comresurrection, of the life everlasting, and pelled to evacuate Parma, Placentia, and my bosom warms. This is gospel, these Milan; and Cardinal Giulio de Medici. are glad tidings to me as a sufferer, be cousin to the Pope made a public entry cause glad to me as a sinner into the latter city. The Pope appeared Dr. John M. Mason on the point of attaining the summit of human greatness.

WERE THEY ANSWERS TO PRAYER!

"He that observes providences shall son, Parties ly besought God to bring the child to a proper temper. Scarcely were a few interrupted petitions offered, when the son bursting into loud sobs, and with a tander voice, exclaimed. "Fasher, fasther, I will never swhar again."

Not long after, there was reason to fear this boy had been, or might be again proceeds of such labor in charitable contributions and to the defrayment of his expenses, at such time and place as the greatest necessity demanded, we entertain no sort of question. But, that, during the thirty years of his ministry, he was ever, by the neglect of the churches, placed in such circumstances of want as person. to render the prosecution of worldly engagements indispensable as a livelihood, there is every reason to deny. Nor is it a mean consideration in favor of this, that among the first fruits of the apostle's ministry, in every place, are to be numbered many Jewish proselytes, who were everywhere accustomed to sustain their christian teachers, as they had been wont to do their Jewish leaders." In proof of site; and that he did appropriate the

Phil. ia: 16. | Acts zvii: 7, 7; Bom. zvi: 21. *2 Cor. zi: 7-9. | Acts ziz: 10; ib. zz: 31.

*Cor. xi: 12; ib. xii: 13. + 2 Cor. xii: 13. Doctrinal.

DIVINITY OF THE HOLF SPIRIT.

It remains to show that he is a divine

He is called Gol by Peter. "Why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost? Thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God." As lying to the Holy Ghost was lying unto God, the natural intereuce is, that the Holy Ghost is God.

himself" None is eternal but God.

THAVE VERY LIFTLE INFLUENCE.

Some Christians excuse themselves X. to spend the autumn in the country

The winter of the year 1521 was just commencing. It was customary with Lee ut surplice, and also, what, remarks aster of the ceremonies, was a yet er impropriety, wearing boots! At to, he would amuse himself with ing, at Corneto, he hunted; the lake sena afforded him the pleasure ning. Leaving these, he would ome time at his favorite residence, ana, in a round of festivities. s, improvisatori, and other Roman Mu-, whose talents might add to the as of this delightful villa, there gathround the Sovereign Pontiff. He residing there, when news ht him of the taking of Milan. Was t of joy ensued in the town. The ers aud officers could not contain exultation; the Swiss discharged earbines, and Leo incautiously.passnight in walking backward and rd in his chamber, and looking at joicings of the people. He returned ne, exhausted in body, and in the intion of success. Scarcely had he ered the Vatican, when he was sudtaken ill. "Pray for me," said he attendants. He had not even time eive the last sacraments, and died, prime of life, at the age of forty--in a moment of victory, amid the s of public joy, eign Pontiff gave utterance to cur-They could not pardon his having rithout the sacraments-leaving behim the debts incurred by his vast diture. "Thou didst win the pontifiike a for-heldst it like a lion-and ft it like a dog," said the Romans. h was the mourning with which honoured the Pope who excommud the Reformation; and one whose yet serves to designate a remarkariod of history .- D'Aubigne.

. Dr. Jupson has removed from the which he has occupied for nearly 35 to Ava, the capital of Burmah Propseat of a heathen and persecuting nment, where he proposes to finish Irman Dictionary.

bama Baptist Advocate. FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 1849. SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION.

THE SOUTHERN BAPTIST.

to have fallen into a straight betwixt two. Some weeks since he quoted an extract from our columns in relation to the proposed Southern Baptist Theological Institution, without acknowledgement-by mistake we doubt not; and in such a manner, it seems, as to lead the Christian Index to the conclusion that it was intended as a quotation from the report drawn up by the brethren of Penfield on that subject. The Index protests against this, and reminds the Southern Baptist that the sentences put in quotation marks are not accurately quoted from their report. The Southern Baptist replies that it has never seen their report; but had quoted our observations on it, omitting what it "deemed unimportant."

Now, so far as the matter of acknowledgement is concerned we are wholly indifferent. Although, it is generally the case, that where an Editorial is quoted from one paper into another, there is a due recognition of its authority, still should copy from us-we had almost said with or without acknowlegement,-only provided they will quote what we say, as we say it, with. crowd that followed the hearse of the out alteration or omission. If they choose furthermore to write articles upon reports which they have not seen, we shall not utter a word of complaint to that, so long as they do not hold us, and not themselves answerable for the effects of their own mistakes and blunders. But, if our in dividual remarks upon a report are quoted in such a form as to convey the impression that it is the report itself, verbatim, we shall certainly claim the privilege of insisting that the mistake is theirs, and not ours. That all we said in relation to the report before us was true, so far as it went, or professed to go, cannot we think, be fairly denied by any one who will be at the pains to compare the documents. Indeed, the Southern Baptist seems to feel, that this had been tacitly admitted by the Index. He says, "Our brother of Penfield must have seen the summary, publish ed in the Ala. Bap, Advocate. If so, why did it not say something of it when it appeared there, and not wait until it appeared in our issue?" Because simply, what we published was all true as we published it; but not correct as a quotation from the report. Indeed, it so happens ry thing in the way of vegetation. Farmers and New Grenada. Even if nothing more is at-"all is right."

ANOTHER GOOD MINISTER GONE.

We regret to announce the sad intelligence of the death of Rev. Benjamin H. Wilson, of Coesa county. It will occasion pain to the hearts of his many warm, surviving friends. We knew brother Wilson well,and we loved him. He was emphatically "a good man and full of the Holy Ghost"-humble, faithful, zealous and devoted to the cause of his Divine Master; and through his ministry, "much people were added to the Lord." At the period of his death, and indeed from its organization, he held among his brethren the honorable distinction of Moderator of the Central Association. But he has "ceased from his labors, and his works will follow him." A tribute to his memory will be found in another place of to day's paper. To his bereaved famiwe are not unwilling that other papers ly we extend the condolence of a brother; and pray the Lord that he will raise up many more such men as was brother Wilson, to fill the pul pits of Alabama.

ORDINATION.

At the request of the Bethesda Baptist church. the following brethren met on the 6th inst., for purpose of setting apart brother Jonathan W. Williams, to the work of the Gospel Ministry, and after consultation, proceeded to the pleasing duties before them, in the order of their names: Elder Reuben Thornton preached the ordination sermon: Elder James Cadenhead interrogated the church; Elders' Samuel Henderson and James H. DeVotie examined the candidate; Elder James Harris offered the ordaining prayer; Elder Francis Callaway delivered the charge to the candidate; and Elder W. B. Jones presented the bible to the candidate, and charged the church.

Signed by order of the Presbytery. JOHN H. HUMPHRIES.

Sec'y of Pres.

Index please copy

ence-and the more so, as we had the pleasure only waiting till they can number one hundred to laptize our young brother ten years agowhile he was a student of the Georgia University. If some of our churches want an excellant pastor, humble, pious and intelligent, they would do well to address Bro. W. at Cusseta, Chambers co., and try and draw him from the schoolroom. His heart pants to be free.

gardeners will again begin even and anew. tempted, colporteurs should be sent to traverse Our Brother of the Southern Baptist appears Well, we'll make a virtue of necessity, and say the country. Immense good might be done in this way."

28

TOO LATE ! TOC LATE !!

"If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness. O ve Jews, reason would that I should bear with you, but if it be a question of words and names of your law, look ve to it: for I will be no judge of such matters."

The Roman Catholic Bishops of Tuscany recently sent a petition to the Chamber of Deputies at Florence, domanding a law to restrict the liberty of the press, and to prevent their farther attacks upon the dogmas of the Catholic Church. The measure was happily overruled-the petition denied. It was too late. The bible-the Book of books"-had found its way into priest ridden Italy, and like the giorious rising of the morning, it will disclose the deformities of the 'Beast," and work at last the wonderful revolu tion so long desired in all the Italian States. A let ter from Marseilles, dated Febuary 19, to the New York Evangelist, says, that a large edition of Deodati's translation of the Bible is in press in the city of Rome, and an edition of 3000 copies of Martini's version, in Florence. A new translation of the New Testament will soon go to press in Rome. The British and Foreign Bible Society hold themselves in readiness to meet the utmost demand upon them for Bibles and Testaments in Italy. The London Tract Society have undertaken to publish, for distribution. in Italy, the Life of John Newton, Bunyan's Pilgrims Progress, and other religious works.

But the good work does not stop here. As we observed in our last paper, a Bible Society, auxiliary to the British and Foreign, has been formed in one of the chief cities of Italy-English. American, French, Swiss and Italians, taking part in the organization.

Nor yet is this all. Another letter from Italy itself, published in England savs:-"A great change is taking place in the church of this country. Papacy has received a shock from which it is not expected to recover. It is said there are sixty thousand people in Italy, ready to Right glad are we to receive the above intelli- renounce the errors of Popery, and that they are EDITORIAL CHANGE.

It was announced a few weeks since that th Rev. J. B. Stiteler had accepted a call to th pastorate of the Baptist Church at Jackson Mis sissippi. The last No. of the Mississippi Baptist-April 6th-states that he has also assumed for the time being, the editorial management of that paper; and while we would suggest, whether our brother will not find both of these officer rather more arduous than comfortable, we do nevertheless, extend to him all fraternal regards. and hope he may find abundant rewards for his labor in the pleasure arising from doing much good in the cause of his Divine Master.

Communications.

WHAT IS IT TO BE A CHRISTIAN ?- No. IV.

We view now the Christian prospectively-in eference to what he will be hereafter, in Eternity. There is a sense in which " we know not what we shall be"-" Beloved" says the apostle now are we the Sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be-but we know that when Ho shall appear, we shall be like Him, for we shall see him as He is." There is something indistinct, but more that is clear "We shall be like Him." That is clear. and that is enough. Here the Christian character in no one is perfectly developed. But there, "every one shall be as his Master," exhibiting a perfect likeness to Christ. Here, as we saw in the last number, the Christian is a man with two natures struggling one against the other and making him a paradox -a man of contradictions. On the one hand sinful-on the other strengthened with all might to resist sin. On the one hand weak-on the other held up and not suffered to fall. But there, he will have the strength without any remains of of weakness-the holiness without any disposition to sin. The new nature will be perfectly ascendant and animate the whole being. Christ will reign supreme.

Here then are contradictions in his state. He is justified and yet still a sinner. Then he will be "without sin before the throne of God."-"his robes washed and made white with the blood of the Lamb, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing." Here the Christian suffersthere he shall reign with Christ. No one wil be a perfect Christian till after death. He will not even form a perfect conception of what it is to be a Christian, any more than the child has a perfect conception of what it is to be a man. Here the process is going on-then it will be complete. "Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect" says St. Paul, "but this one thing I do, leaving the things which are behind, I press forward to those which are before." ." Now I begin to be a disciple"-said the sensible Ignatius, on being led forth to martyrdom after having been pastor of the church at Antioch forty years. "Now I begin to be a disciple. Let fire and the cross. let companies of wild beasts, let breaking of bones and tearing of members, let the shattering. to pieces of the whole body and dire tortures of Satan come upon me-only let me go to Christ. I am seeking Him who died for me-I am long ing for Him who rose for my sake." In Heaven the Christian will be perfectly on with Christ, perfectly united to the whole church of Christ-every wish, every thought-every pulse of his heart will beat in perfect harmony with those of the inhabitants of heaven. Not one jarring note will mar the accord of the whole church. Every wish will be gratified the external and internal order of things will be perfectly in union. The desires and the enjoyments one. This it is to be a Christian. The Philosopher said that "no man is to be called happy before he dies ;" and a wiser than all philosophers has said "none is good save one"-so it may be said in one sense that no man is truly and thoroughly a Christian until after death. But yet in another and more important sense, every follower of Christ, from the moment he places himself as a learner at the feet of Jesus, is truly and thoroughly a Christian. From that instant he is the beir of all the fulness of Christ. He may now be weak, but he shall wax stronger and stronger to perfect strength A tiny acorn once contained the embryo of the largest oak, now rooted in the ground; and though a babes foot might once have crushed it, now a ning." Mr. B writes that the Karen hundred men could never stir it. So is the Christian ; here at most but a weak and puny sapling or with but the germ of spiritual life; but fenced in and guarded round by grace, he shall grow and be filled with all the fulness of God. Or as an infant born to vast inheritances may be called a child of wealth, from the moment of his birth, seeing from that moment all his wants are more than supplied, though not in possession of the property, till he come of age, even so the Christian here on earth is rich, for he is heir to tible inheritance and an unfadin crown. Then he may be a babe in Christ, but ful doom, because he would not take and step. He stood at the threshold of salvation he looked in he was almost persuaded and reand yet, he turned his back upon religion and eternal life. He never had been in so hopen a condition before." He rose like a rocket in the sky to a certain height, brilliant and beam ful and then dropped down to black and everlas ting darkness. Paul stands before him bound in chains, but a freer man than he and happier, for this man is bound by luxury, "holden in the cords of his own sins."

Unconverted reader, however near you me be to being persuaded to become a Christian, you are not quite, you may at this moment h nearer to eternal life than you will ever be again Think of this. Decide at once. Become Hi disciple. T. F. C.

LETTERS RECEIVED.

Rev. Lewis Colby is informed that both of his tters are in hand. They will be duly attended o-the latter early, and the former with the first opportunity.

Rev. Richard Graham has placed us under special obligation for a fine hat of cash subscri bers. Thanks to our good brother for his zeal. ous support in our cause. May he be abundam. ly successful in all his pious engagements.

Bro. John A. Norwood has our hearty thanks for the lively interest he has taken in our behali We expected something good from his quarter, and have not been disappointed. He will find all entries right, and hope he will gladden our hearts with like favors frequently.

Bro. William Curry will, too, accept our thanks for timely aid. He is an old and tried friend, from whom we should be happy to hear very often. Will he let us share the benefits of his extensive influence. We want many subscribers from his region.

Bro. Levi W. Lawler's letter and money are in hand. Thanks to our excellent brother for his generous aid in the good work before us. The matter of business is all right, or we had written him before.

Bro. M. M. Hall, P. M. at Orion, will accept our gratitude for attentions. Hope bro. Park will let us hear from him personally and frequently. We shall expect large things and

LD THOMAS, Richmond, Virginia, Treasurer of Foreign Mission Board.

ENDENHALL, Charleston, S. C. Treasurer of Southern Baptist Concention. RES. B. TAYLOR, Richmond, Virginia, Corresponding Secretary of the Southern Foreign Mission Board ANBUCKLE, Marion, Perry County, Ala.

Treasurer, Domestic Mission Board. MEL HOLMAN, Marion, Perry County, Ala. sponding Secretary Domestic Mission Board. M. POINDEX TER, Charleston, S. C. Corresponding Secretary Southern

Baptist Publication Society. SWITH, Charleston, S. C. easurer Southern Baptist Publication Society

TERMS.

terms of the Alabama Baptist Advocate nceforth stand as follows: A single sub-$3,00, in advance. Any present subscriwarding an additional new name, and pay-00, in advance, shall have two copies for ar. Any two new subscribers, paying in like manner, shall have two copies for linisters of the Gospel, Agents of benevcieties, and Post Masters, generally, are ed to act as our Agents.

TO PUBLISHERS.

Literary Institutions of Alabama-the imcircle of our Paper-are, perhaps, not either in grade or in numbers, to those other State in the South or South-West; fill afford us pleasure to bring to their no-NEW WORKS, of merit with which we favored-Literary or Theological. We this place two highly flourishing Female rics, and a College for young gentiemen, Theological Department attached to it: high may render it the interest of publishblige us with their best works.

CEIPTS FOR HOWARD COLLEGE.

of A. B. Davis, by the hands of Prof. urtis for beneficiaries in Howard Col. follows :---Mrs. Mary Ann Bethea $10 00 Rev. A. T. M. Handy, 5 00 that the Index did also quote what we had writ. ten, and what is more remarkable, quoted the identical passage which the Southern Baptist omitted as unimportant; and yet it did not raise the same complaint against us, as against the Southern Baptist. However, the Index supposes that we had taken a "hasty, and therefore neeessarily imperfect view" of the report, it does not fault us with setting forth something else than the report as the report itself.

L. C. TUTT, Trea's A. B. S. C. 8, 1849.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

While on the subject, we beg to insist, that hasty as may have been our review of the report, we did not misrepresent the points involved. Of this the Editor's, our excellant brother Sander's, own remarks on the subject afford a most conclusive proof and illustration. For example we stated, "Whether it would be the duty of Georgia Baptists to make any new contributions. to endow professorships, and provide buildings for a Central Institution located in some other State is not said." Was this incorrect? Where, in the report, is it said that they would immediately go forward into such an endowment, if the proposed Institution should be located in Alabama, or in any other State? True, in the event tion it is located in any other State, the report says, "Ought the Baptists of Georgia to refuse co-operation with their brethren of other States? We do not think this would be necessary or politic:" That is, it would not necessary or politic to refuse co-operation; but does this pledge the Georgia Baptists to such co-operation? Certainly not. And hence our brother proceeds to say, "They"-the Committee "had no authority particular course of action." Much less then, strely had we the authority to do so. The long extract from the letter of a distant Trustee introduced in reply to our observations upon the report, is wholly irrelevant to that subject, as it formed no part of the report, and as it, was only the feeling of a single individual .--Nevertheless, we cannot forbear to remark how precisely his views accord with the non-committal tenor of the report itself. For, although he is not indisposed to co-operate in some form or other, in savs:

the establishment of a Central Theological Institution, he nevertheless thinks that no other "location so favorable to this end can be found at the South as Penfield ;" and, "if the Southern $15 00 brethren could in some good degree concentrate on Penfield, and make it the leading institution of the South, as one of the Trustees, (so soon as assurance to this effect could be had) he should be in favor of commencing immediately upon ships" &c .- leaving us to make our own inference as to what other of the endless forms of co-ope-,$90 00 ration he should adopt in the event that Penfield should not be the favored location. It is, there 5 00 fore, apparent that our views upon the whole 25 00 subject are fully sustained by all the proofs in the case-from first to last. 8120 00 In conclusion, we regret the necessity devolved upon us, to make the above reply to strictures upon an editorial in our columns : and we will dismiss it as early as practicable, by repeating what we said before, and which our brother of $10 00 the Southern Baptist omitted, that the report was written in a truly wise, moderate and Christian 25 00 temper."

PROGRESS OF THE AMERICAN TRACT SO-CIETY.

Society was perfected in May 1825. The first annual roport for the year, ending with May 1846, exhibited comparatively small receipts and expenditures-only $10 150, including sales and donations. About 8,000,000 pages of tracts were printed, and but halt of them circulated that year. The Society was then as a grain of mustard seed, which has taken root and thrown out its brauches, until it has become a tree of luxurious growth. Inclusive of donations and sales. the receipts last year were $237.000; over 56, 000,000 pages of tracts, and nearly 700,000 volumes of evangelical truth, were put in circula-

NEW GRENADA A MISSIONARY FIELD.

Every thing relating to California and the routes thitherward have begun to engross much of the attention of all classes of our citizens. Different objects animate their wishes-the one the trees, the buildings, and the surrounding part eagerly looking at its immense mines of to pledge their brethren through the State to any golden ore, and the other part sighing over its moral desolations. The christian philanthropist Pædohaptists of every tribe, (including some is naturally inquiring after the more sublime and spiritual interests of the country. These to him is of far greater consequence than all its hidden treasures of wealth; and on this account he will receive the following intelligence in relation to the religious condition of New Grenada, within which both Chagres and Panama are included, with special pleasure. A missionary correspondent writing to the Philadelphia Presbyterian

"My mind has become much interested in the religious condition of the people of this State. You are aware that Roman Catholicism has been the established religion, and has heretofore been received without dissent. A few months kingdoms and free cities of the German Confedago, however, a law was enacted, tolerating all religious denominations, and the whole country is open to the preaching of the gospel, except so far as it may be retarded by the prejudices of the from the 10th of March to 10th April, the endowment of one or two more professor. people. Roman Catholicism is evidently on the wane. This may partly be attributed to the in thousand, to make open profession. We often hear sentiments from our Italian acquaintances that make us start: instead of looking upon us as lost heretics, they can, not only converse in a friendly and rational manner on the subject, but it is become a common thing for them to say. 'You are right and we are wrong!' These poor creatures are not free to change their religion; their church is one of bondage, and they must give up rank and fortune, when they give up their false creed. . . . One certain fact is The new organization of the American Tract that there is an open talk here of breaking up > some of the convents -a speaking sign of the times, and reminds one of the reign of Henry VIII. In short, the downfall of Poperv is a common subject here, and if the Almighty is so working out his own ends, we must not complain of any personal inconvenience that all these changes and revolutions bring upon individuals."

INTERESTING BAPTISMAL SCENE.

We are indebted to the Western Watchman for the following account of an interesting baptismal scene at St. Louis. The Editor pro tem, Rev. J. M. Peck, says:

"Last Sabbath opened a new era in the Baptist history in St. Louis, by the baptism of fourteen natives of Holland, and one German. The ordinance was performed at Chouteau's Mill Pond, in the city; a place where, in by-gone years, we have baptized many of the sons and daughters of Africa. The crowd on the banks, houses, was immense,-Germans, Hollanders, Irish, and Americans,-Catholics, Lutherans, Jews,) and many who, in religious faith, belong to the sect of "Nothingarians."

We enjoyed the aid of Elder Hart, from Cincinnati, who has been in the city for some time past he baptized seven, and the editor eight of the company, all in the space of five minutes. Address's had been previously made in the Holland and German languages. Whilst waiting a few moments for the candidates to prepare, the editor made an address to the people, and especially such Germans as could understand him, on the character of our government, as securing freedom of religion and of civil liberty, as contrasted with the state of affairs in all the thirty-eight eracy. For doing the very thing we had met to perform. Baptist missionaries in "Vanderland," until a year past, had suffered imprisonment and loss of goods, again and again."

CRYSTAL FOUNT.

good. Mr. G. Underwood, P. M., Pleasant Hill, has our best feelings in view of his kind regard to our interest. Hope he will favor us with many like communications.

Bro. Daniel Ivey's letter is before us. All is right. Thanks for his good wishes, and his aid. Hope he will send us many subscribers.

Bro. Thomas J. Key, has again placed us under strong obligations for his continued interest in our behalf. We join him in the wish that we may soon double the present number of our advance paying subscribers; and we doubt not we shall do it, if all our good brethren continue to work as many of them have done of late, Times are brightening upon us. Hope to hear from our good brother soon again.

Bro. Joshua H. Foster has made us debtor by his timely attentions. We were very much encouraged by our good brother. Let the people talk on. We only want our paper hetter known, and our list will swell into larger numbers. Hope we shall receive additional aid from his section. OF We remark again, this week, that the most of our letters are from the laymen of our churches; and it has been the best week for the interests of the paper we have yet experienced. Go on brethren, and we shall soon get our cause above contingencies. Let every man send us one subscriber and all will be well. For your encouragement, be assured that permanency is written upon the walls of our sanctum. The hand of God is in the enterprise, and it must triumph.

MISSIONARY INTELLIGENCE.

A letter from Mr, Binney, in the April number of the Magazine, describes the completion of the sixth term of the Karen Theological Seminary. The students while engaged with diligence in their preparatory work, "have been active in their physical exercise morning and eve-Normal School is doing admirably," and has "more than met his most sanguine expectations."

The journal of Mr. Mason relates to the Maulmain Burman Mission. He says that the first years of his life among the heathen, he labored considerably for the salvation of the Burmans. "Of late years, I have," he remarks, "been more exclusive in my labors among the Karens; and yet in the eighteen years I have been in the country, although I have preached to the Karens throughout five degrees of latitude, I have, I presume, preached the gospel to more Burmans than Karens; and looking at the results | find | have baptized about one Burman to fifty Karens." The reason, Mr. M. proceeds to give, is the difference of the two nations in their preparation to receive the gospel. "The Burmans are our Pharisees and Saducees; the Karens our publicans and sinners. The Boodhists glory in the pure morality of their religious system whether they practice it or not."

incinsive. P. Hill, Agent, (S. C.) Marv Ann Bethea, (Ala.) ev, G. B. Davis, Isham Harrison, (Miss.)

FOREIGN MISSIONS. red Mambers, Siloam, Baprch for African Mission, by H. De Votie, H. Roudean, (N. Orleans,) ev. R. Holman, Mary Ann Bethea, (Ala.) ev. G. B. Davis, Jno. S. Ford,

5 00

5 00

845 00

JOURNAL 4 VOL.

M. L. Tarrant, W. HORNBUCKLE, Tres'r. OLD WINTER.

creased intelligence of the people, and partly to the immoral life of the priests, not less than six of whom are now confined in the prison of this city for infamous crimes: It is a law of New Grenada that every child shall be taught to read and write, and it is surprising to what an extent | tion of the Crystal Fount will be commenced early in May, and will be devoted mainly to the the law is observed. You meet a naked barbarian, put a book into his hand, and find that he cause of temperance, under the motto of "Love, can read it with tolerable facility. The grand Purity and Fidelity." Whether more than one difficulty here is the want of books. They are temperance paper can be well sustained in the few in number, and of high prices. I have been State at present, and whether, therefore, this astonished at the eagerness with which the will not to some extent interfere with the prior the books I had to distribute were received. The claims of its neighbor, the "Orion," is of course Padre at Chagres made no objection, in a con- not for us to decide; but this we can say, Mr. versation I held with him, to the distribution of Warren will be found an intelligent and agreethe Bible and religious tracts, although he was able gentleman, a good publisher, and worthy of distinctly made aware that they were Protestant, the patronage of the lovers of sobriety and good

We were visited on Sabbath day and night not Roman Catholic works. Mr. Nelson, the order. The specimen No. of his paper before last, 15th inst., with a return of old winter. In American Consul at Panama, a gentleman who us, is highly interesting; and we hope he may be has won the highest respect and esteem from abundantly encouraged in the prosecution of his the day there was a slight snow, and at night we had one of the most destructive frosts, the Americans here, remarked in my hearing, enterprise. Persons desirous of subscribing, $1 00 that we remember to have seen so late in the that he knew no more promising and interest- are requested to do so as early as practicable. season. Immense injury has been done to eve- ing mesionary field than is new presented by The terms are $1,00 strictly in advance.

This is the title of a new weekly paper about his wants are all provided for; his title is se to be issued at Tuscaloosa, under the supervision cure from the moment of his spiritual birth, he is J. F. Warren, Esq., a specimen copy of an heir of God, a joint heir with Christ, which is on our table. The regular publica-Consider now for a moment, what it is not to be a Christian. It is to be excluded from this inheritance; to be a child of wrath; to be given up to the dominion and consequences, the dreadful consequences of sin ; to be debarred here and everlastingly from the presence of God; the enjoyment and participation of Christ; the pardon of sin; the society of holy angels and the spirits of just men made perfect. It is to be a child of darkness and perdition, an heir of the wrath of God and of that outer darkness, where shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth; of the worm that dieth not and the fire that is not quenched. Consider the misery of such a condition as that of the man who once suddenly exclaimed before Paul, "Almost thou persuadest me to be Christian." King though he be, how wretched to be thus undecided. To be shown as it were

The letters from France give several encouraging specimens of French liberality and zeal. 1010-101100 9550 871-73

The work of the Holv Spirit appears to be specially manifest among the Cherokees. The extracts which we give below from the Letter of Mr. Jones, will interthe gates of Paradise and then retire to his fear- est our readers : . A MI TAIN MAAT ty-two came forward for prayer: We had quite profitable exercises : much tenderness of feeling was manifested. On Sabbath the congregation was large and serious. The number under serious impressions was increased. After the morning exercises, we repaired to the water, where I had the privilege to baptize, in the name of the adorable Trinity, five Cherokees, two males and three females; some of them are unusually interesting and promising.

In the evening the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered by brn. Upham and Downing. During the administration of the ordinance and the exercises following, which were addressed to the impenitent and the anxious, the serious impressions appeared to be greatly deepened. Mr. Downing gave invitation for prayer and conversation, and quite a company came up ; thirty-five at least. A most interesting, tender, and selemn acason. Conversed shortly with each of them, and spent a good while in prayer, both in English and Cherokee.

On Sabbath morning, June 18th, at ear/ ly prayer, expounded part of the 17th chapter of John with much comfort, and the Holy Spirit seemed to press on the hearts, especially of the pious part of the assembly, gracious displays of the love of profitable. Our native brethren spoke there.

with great affection, and the presence of God was evidently enjoyed by those who believed. At night, especially, all minds appeared to be affected ; even the habitually careless seemed to have their attention arrested; the eye fixed; and often the starting tear evinced alarm. At night, gracious impressions seemed to pervade the whole assembly, (which crowded to overflowing the house, sixty feet by thirty.) while contemplating the power of God unto salvation, as marked along all the stream of time, in every land, in circumstances of persecution, poverty, sickness, happy death beds, and reaching onward to the judgement day. and into the depths of the eternal future."

"May 20, 1848. Saturday night twen- them-let us not lose this advantage, but promptly send in men to occupy this most promising and most important field .-Traveller.

FRENCH MISSIONS.

The Evangelical Society of Paris are making efforts to evangelize the million inhabitants of that irreligious metropoils There are now only forty Roman Catholic Churches in Paris, whereas in 1789 there were one hundred and sxty. The means adopted by the Evangelical Society are ; 1. School.--In these schools more than twelve hundred Roman Catholic children are receiving a religious education, and the Society would establish similar schools in many parts of Paris, if they had the money, 2 Chapels .- Four of these have been opened for Protestant worship, In one of which (the Rev. Mr. Bridel's) there are nine hundred attendants, of whom one half were born under the influ. ence of Romanism, 3. Colporteurs and missionaries, to go from house to house Last winter they visited one thousand families, distributing the Bible, and read. ing it to the ignorant ' About one-third of the population of Paris cannot read .-The Society wish to enlarge their operations, and to make all France the field of their benewolent efforts. The Methodist Episcopalians are turnning their attention Christ in that precious portion of his toward the same field The Baptists al word. The exercises of the day were ready have a missionary work going or

REVIVAL INTELLIGENCE.

The N. Y. Baptist Rocorder, furnishes considerable revival intelligence. the Batavia church, N. Y., about 30 persons have been added by baptism. The revival commenced at a settlement, between two and three miles from the town. but soon extended to it.

Wheatland church, Western New York, is enjoying a revival-19 candidates have or to color. To force through difficulties, been baptized. Cato Four Corners, New York, has had an addition of 47 by bap tism: Norwich 23: Oneida Depot 20: Vienna, 19; Penn Yan, 18: all the above are in New York.

BELOIT, Wis .- We learn from the Boston Recorder that there is a prescious work of grace in this place. "The interest was at first among the students of the Seminary, and in the Sabbath schools .-At one time, one hundred and fifty were inquiring the way of salvation. Twentysix were added to the church on the first Sabhath in March. Four weeks previous, twelve were added ; eight weeks since, six. The Baptist church has also shared largely in this work of grace. believe about forty have united with that church during the winter, and a smaller number with the Methodist church."

GRAND LIGNE MISSION .--- The Christian Chronicle quotes from a paivate letter from Mrs Cote, of the Grand Ligne Mission, to a lady in Philadelphia, which says: "Within a few weeks past, many Romanists are seeking the way to salvation. I accompanied my husband on a missionary tour, the two last weeks of pointed. January. It was really surprising to witness the working of the Spirit in the several families we visited. But, alas, we have to cry, as many others have to do borers are few.' Dr. Cote is prosecuting his work with great success, and the labors of all the missionaries are not without encouraging fruit."

In the churches of Philadelphia and vicinity. Divine influence has been considerably employed, and frequent baptisms are chronicled.

RELIGIOUS ITEMS.

is an unhallowed ingenuity that strains to symptoms, that about 10,000 are uncongive a deceitful coloring to what can not verted men, who neither preach nor be denied, and can not ultimately serve a good cause. Truth will be sooner made on all sides there is openness and honest dealing, without any attempt to conceal-

be erected, to perpetuate the object Freeman's Journal.

29

REV. DR. SAMUEL MILLER .-- We I a from the Evangelist that the Bot as Directors of the Princeton Theolog Seminary, instead of fully accepting Miller's resignation, have resolved to con tinue him in the office he has so long held. and to relieve him by appointing a colleague. Prof. Addison Alexander was appointed to this place, and to the place which he will vacate. that of Hebrew Professor, another person will be ap-

CHURCH AND STATE OF AUSTRIA .- The Catholic priest in Austria demand a separation of Church and State in order that union. Eventually, its effects will be good. The way is preparing, by a varinever to have been joined together, BAPTIST W. NOEL'S CHARACTER OF THE BRITISH CHURCH .--- Of its 16,000 ministers, CONTROVERSY .- The following remarks their thoughts and labors to small parish know the Gospel.

MARRIAGES ON SUNDAY -- It is said that to appear, and will sooner be received, if the Pennsylvania courts have decided that marriage is a civil contract, and that on Sunday.

South Alabama.

about to receive another monastic instan- weighing but twenty-five pounds. By tion for the young. Mr. Daniel Stervart touching a spring, the agent is at work. left a sum of money which now amounts For larger buildings. a larger apparatus to £90,000, and a castellated edifferent to is required. The experiments tried were. successful. The writer says the apparatus may be always at hand ready for use. is easily set in action, is always sure to from the coal cellar of the house of Comwork, occasions no damage to the house or furniture, and no personal injury need be apprehended from its use.

> INCREASE OF CORRESPONDENCE .- The last English steamer from Boston for Liverpool took out 60,000 letters. Before the reduction of postage, the number seldom reached 20.000

SINGULAR .-- The City Council of Lex. ington, Ky., have recently petitioned the Coffee-house keepers of that city, to keep their houses closed on Sabbath day. The Mayor waited upon the gentlemen to convey the request of the Council, when all -The harvest is plenteous, but the la- they may have entire control of the church promised except one. At the next meet revenue and patronage. We hope they ing of the Council, a petition from some may succeed in their effort to sever this of the Coffee-house keepers was received. praying that honorable body, as they are requested by them to sacrifice fifty-two ety of means, for separating what ought business days in the year, that their licenses be correspondingly reduced!

New Doctors.-At a recent meeting of the N. Y. Academy of Medicine, Dr. about 1,568 do nothing; about 6.681 limit Marly stated that "at the present time Doctors were made at the rate of from on religious controversy are from the pen es, which contain from 150 to 300 souls, 1500 to 1600 a year, not for the benefit of of the late Dr. Alex. Carson, "In a con- while others in cities and towns profess the public or the profession itself, but for troversialist nothing can compensate for to take charge of 8,000 or 9,000 souls; the benefit of the very men who made candor ; and facts ought to be admitted, and of the 12,923 working pastors of them doctors. There were forty medical even when they appear unfavorable. It churches, I fear, from varions concurrent colleges throughout the country, which gave diplomas, and at many of them there were but two and three professors-no clinical instruction whatever, and no practice of anatomy."

> RESISTING THE LAW .- The ship Char lotte, bound to California, was visited at they have also decided that no contract Nantucket roads, below Boston, on Monmade on Sunday is valid. The Register day, by a deputy sheriff who attempted to says that the question is now being agita- serve a process for debt on a passenger POPERT IN EDINBURGH.-Edinburg is portable, one ample for a private house probably remained a projection to his domicil, until the Ohio, in one of its high water freaks, had covered it up.

> BONAPARTE AND O'BRIEN .- On the 25th May, 1845, Louis Napoleon Bonaparte made his escape from Ham. On the very same day Smith O'Brien was discharged mons, after 24 day's imprisonment. In December 1848 Louis Napoleon Bonaparte is President of the French Republic: Mr. Smith O'Brien a prisoner, and almost forgotten.

FRENCH REPUBLIC .-- A London paper in describing the state of the country save:

"It is but yesterday when Louis Napoleon was placed by acclamation, in the Presidential chair once occupied by Napoleon the Great, as the seat of ha Emperor. And how stands the matter to day Why, the Presidency totters, the ministry is defeated, day after day, on the most vital questions.

Plots and conspiracies are the order of night. New revolutions are on the mucil Paris is filled with 10,000 soldiers, all in arms. Fresh arrivals of 10,000 men at a time announce the exigency. Ronen, the mest important subdivision of France, is ordered to be reinforced.

The Army of the Alps is concentrating itself upon the interior. - The chemins de fer are kept glowing with the transit of troops. The electric telegraphs are busy in all directions, communicating secret orders between the authorities in the capitol and the provinces."

READING .--- Fenelon once shid, "If the riches of the Indies, or the crowns of all the kingdoms of Europe, were laid at my feet, in exchange for my love of reading.I would spurn them all."

MORTUARY.

It has fallen to my lot to give public information of the death of our highly esteemed brother, Elder B. H. WILSON. He died of Inroseption of the bowels, at his residence in Coo. sa county, on the 5th inst. His sufferings were intense, but of short duration. He was only about 13 hours in this agony of pain. All the time in his senses and conscious of his death ; ton, Capt. Sturgis, accompanied by the but perfectly resigned. It may truly be said of him, he died at his post-having preached the Sabbath before, at Unlen charch a soul stirring sermon. He "fell with the harness on." Bro. W. was a native of Georgia, and died in his 60th year, having been for 29 years an or: out of the limits of the county of Suffork, derly member of the Baptist church, and 24 an acceptable and useful minister. The prominent trait of his ministerial character, was untiring energy. He was evidently one among the most laborious ministers in the whole circle of my acquaintance. And his labor was not in vain in the Lord." For he was a successful preacher. boue at a venture, it was believed by more, that the arrow, was divinely directed. His gift was more eminently useful in the pulpit, than in the exercise of church discipline. This is easily solved. The great head of the church seems to have endowed him, with a bold and impetuous spirit, which went forth like the sweeping tornado upon the forest, bearing down every obstruction. The best disciplinar in of the church are generally found, among spirits, more like the gentle, but regular breeze that comes from the spicy mountains, and which, while it fans and coos the earth fills the atmosphere with its rich fragrance. If brother Wilson was difficient here. to some extent, still the churches prespered un. der his administration, and his efficiency brought about much more of the opposition he met, than his imprudence, let it have been either inluging. ry or real. It is not pretended that he was fault. less. No. He was a man of like passions with us. But he stood high in the estimation of the churches, and was, when he died, the Moledator of the Central Association. And if he had not planted more churches in it, than any other him ister, he had watered more, and bad with its organization. His place will be hard to fill. Just such ministers as brother Wilson was, are likely to be undervated by the denomination es of Ala., with them, and their fruits while? shake like lebanon. Yours in the gospel, J. D. WILLELAMS OF The Christian Index will please carry. Wetumpka, April 10, 1849

KINGDOM OF SIAM.

The kingdom of Siam lies between seven and nineteen degrees -north latitude; separated from China on the north, by the Laos country. It comprises 169,000 square miles, and has a population of between three and lour millions, speaking 12 different languages. They have good minds, and most of the males can read. The religion of the Simanese is Baddhist, which differs from the Bramin in not having the distinctions of caste, nor any bloody rites. They are atheists and fa talists. They have no God. and no future state which they regard as alfording any real rest except annihilation .--- of 26; and Bethany, 24; both in Ktv. They hold to sixteen celestial states or worlds, and nine terrestrial. Buddhism is probably the most extensive and powerful system of paganism that now exists.

The founder of this system was called Buddh. He lived, it is supposed, about the time of the prophet Daniel. The people do not consider him a God. yet they worship his image, and erect numerous temples to him. Bangkok, the capitol of Siam, contains not less than one hundred of these temples, with one hundred priests to each. These temples probably cost, on an average, filty thousand dollars each .- The whole number of Buddhist priests in the kingdom is not less than fifty thousand—all supported by the voluntary contributions of the people. Bangkok has a population of about three hundred thousand, and enjoys an extensive commerce with China, Java. Summatra, Singapore, Bombay, and England. The exports are sugar, rice, pepper, gamboge, sticlac, salt, fish, sapan wood, ivory horns, hides, cotton, &c. Its limate is remarkably salubrious for a city within the tropics.

Protestant missions were commenced in Siam, in 1828, by the Netherlands and baptized thirty converts. Rev. S.R. Shotondon Missionary Societies. After they left-as they did in three years-American missionaries took the field. They have translated all the New Testament and part of the Old, into Simanese. thus been received into the church. They have four printing presses in operation, and have published some sixty or eighty books and tracts, which are seatcred far and wide through the country. and are read with avidity. Vaccinaotion as been introduced-a most important hing for a country which is annually courged with the small pox. The priests are beginning to see that heir scientific books are not correct: and the Western Christian Journal the baphis involves the overthrow of their relition ; for in their books both are blended. general spirit of inquiry is awakened. They will soon in great numbers be giving ap their false religion-and now is the time to give them the true one. A great preparatory work has been done among | Creek thirty-three.

revival at Newtown, Ohio, 16 baptized; 1y for divine institutions,"r Ebenezer church, do., 15; Adamsville. do., 21.

The Baptist Banner reports revivals at Big Spring, Ktv., 26 baptized : at Liberty church, do., betweep 75 and 100 pers sons were hopefully converted, 75 of whom united with the church. Some 6 or 8 of those who united with the church were Pedobaptists. "At the close of the service," adds the writer, Elder M. F. Ham. "I baptized 42 of the converts in eleten minutes : the rest will be buried in baptism at our next monthly conference. when we expect more will join. Let me. among these converts, give you an instance of household baptism. I baptized four sons and two daughters of a family. he father and mother of whom are dead. being all of the family except those who had before united with the church."-Rock Spring church, has had an addition

The N. Y. Baptist Register reports a revival at Whitesboro, N. Y. "Between 25 and 30 are already rejoicing in the Savior, and a number of others are anxious. "In all, 20 have been baptized ;" at Still. water, N. Y. 30 have been baptized.

The Christian Contributor reports a re vival at Warren church, Penn., 31 received for baptism.

The Mastreal Baptist Register reports a revivabat Bill Town, Nova Scotia, 19 members have been added to the Baptist ordaining prayer by Elder Mercer; church.

Rev. Mr. Howe, pastor of the Union church, this city, baptized, last Sabbath. the clerk. Jos. H WOMBWELL Clerk. six persons, five of whom were connected. with the Sabbath school.

A correspondent of the Independent writes, that at Pawlet, Vi., "there is an interesting work of grace in progress, and there is an encouraging state of things in other churches in the vicinity."

The Christian Secretary has information of the bapism of seventeen converts, at Groton Bank, Ct., and twenty-two in New London. Rev. A. Perkins writes, that "from forty to fifty profess to have been converted" in Danbury, since October last.

A letter from Rev. Isaac Wescott, dated Stillwater, March 17th, informs the Baptist Register. that he has recently missions that integrity can not deny, and by rhetotical artifice cut down whatever opposes, is the part of a religious gladiaemploy insufficient evidence, retuse ad-

The Western Christian Journal reports tor, not of a Christian contending earnest.

THAT $1,000 PER DAY .- Intelligence Missionary Union, on Saturday, was un- states as an encouraging fact, that as far favorable. Yesterday morning however, as his observation and that of his associates more gratifying news. When the ac- in that State have been chiefly in those counts are all in, it is believed that the receipts for March will have reached the have been most extensively circulated. entire sum of $30.000 ! Such a result will awaken gratitude, and inspire en marks, that there is no doubt that colporcouragement. Surely, may the friends tage has been the cause of much good in of the Union say, "Goodness and mercy promoting the revivals that have blessed have followed us."-N. Y. Recorder.

ORDINATION .-- Agreeably to a request of the Baptist Church of Christ. at Sardis, Inst says the Newark Daily Advertiser, Jackson county Florida, a Presbytery, the Rev. Barnabas King preached his R. Jones, and Joseph H. Whombwell, met terian church and congregation at Rockon the 12th ult., and proceeded to the or- way, Morris Co., giving an interesting dination of brother T L Hansford to the history of the church, during the 40 years full work of the gospel ministry. Elder of his connection with it. His installas Mercer was chosen moderator, and J. H. Whombell clerk. Brother Hansford hav- ed and followed by a revival, which ising been closely examined concerning his sued in the addition of 80 persons to the experience in grace, call to the ministry, and views of scripture doctrines, was duly set apart to the work. Sermon by Elder Whombwell, from 1st Tim. 1: 1-7; charge and presentation of the Bible by Flder Jones; right-hand of fellowship by PROVIDING FOR POOR RELATIONS .-- O. P. Q. says, in the Daily News, that Dr. Hampdem, Bishop of Hereford, has just ordained his wife's brother, now 60 years of age, and presented him to the living of

Godrington. MEMOIR OF FENELON DISCOVERED .- La

Democratic Pacifique says, that a memoir of Fenelon, in his own handwriting, has been discovered among some old papers in the Douai Museum, by the librarian, M. Duthillœul; it is now in press.

BUNYAN'S WORKS .--- The American Baptist Publication Society is about to issue a complete edition of the works of John Bunyan. It will be a valuable addition t our library of Baptist writers. We owe t to the "Tinker of Bedford" to see that brance.

ted whether marriages made in the State named Richard Walsh. This was resiston Sundays are lawful, and whether in- ed by the other passengers, and the offidictments for bigamy can be sustained cers were forced to leave the ship. Yesterday, the revenue cutter Hamilwhen the first marriage had taken place sheriff and assistants, proceeded to the COLPORTAGE PROMOTING REVIVALS .--- The from the rooms of the American Baptist superintendent of colportage in Georgia roads to complete the arrest. Information, however, had been conveyed to the ship, which immediately put to sea, and a letter from the Home Secretary brought has extended, the late revivals of religion before the cutter overhauled her, had got and as the power of the officers on board portions where the Society's publications did not extend beyond the limits of the county, Capt. Sturgis did not continue the The superintendant at Mobile also rechase.-Commercial Advertiser.

A WATER-DOG .- There is a large Newfoudland dog on board the brig Mayflow- If it might be thought by some, that he drew the er, now lying in the East River, of which the following account is given: While the TWELVE THOUSAND SERMONS. -- On the 1st brig was running down the trade winds. about twenty miles from St. Cruz, someconsisting of Elders Joshua Mercer, John 40th anniversary discourse to the Presby. time during the night, the watch on deck discovered something swimming alongside. Concluding that it was something worthy of attention, a man was sent over the side with a rope, which he made fast to the stranger, which proved to be a fine tion on December 27th.1808, was'preced-Newfoundland dog. Whether the animal had by accident fallen overboard from some vessel, or had swam off from the church, 63 of whom were heads of famishore, remains a mystery. lies, A similar excitement in 1817 and

> A BAD WEED .- B. H. Weed, of Knox. ville Tenn., went to Nashville on business, and was entrusted with $9,000 by the Uncumitances, of 1843. During the whole ion bank of that place, to carry to the 40 years, the venerable pastor has attend- branch of that bank at Knoxville Instead of going home, he went to Charleston, S. C., bought a lot of flour and other goods, and sailed for California in the ship Othello, on the 31st ult. He sent back a check of $600 to his wife, which was recovered by the bank. He was a member of the Episcopal Church, and has sustained a fair character during a resist at large; but fill the pulpits of the Baptist childhe REMARKABLE CASE OF RECOVERY FROM IN-MISSIONARY INTELLIGENCE.-Rev. Moses SANITY .- From the Boston Traveller we L. Coulter and whe sailed from New learn that a man who has for the last for-York last month for Canton, to join the ty years been confined, as a raving manimission of the Presbyterian Board at ac, in the poorhouse at Newton, has been Ningpo. Rev. Jacob Rambo and Rev. C. suddenly restored to his reason. He has C. Hotiman Episcopal missionaries for been regarded as incurable, and for great NAMES. Africa, sailed from Baltimore, February part of the time during his confinement James M. Armstrong, Rev Dr. Ver. Mehr has been sent he has been so violent as to render it nec-Franklin Armstrong, out to California by the Episcopal Misessary to chain him. Now he is clothed Rev. J. T. S. Park. James Talbot, sionary Board of the diocese of New York. and in his right mind-appearing like one Col. Wm. Curry, Abner Williams, Others are expected to tollow. Rev. Joawakend from a long sleep, and remem-Hon. J. F. Cock. siah Tyler and Rev. Hyman A. Wilder, bering distinctly what occurred previous Hardy Foster, Rev. J. C. Foster; with their wives, are about to sail for the to the loss of his reason, but nothing that Joshua H. Foster, Zulu mission in Africa. has transpired during the long years of Zebulon Rudolph, Sen. John A. Norwood,)

RECEIPT LIST.

John McGill,

Receipts for the Alabama Baptist Advocate. Anrie Vol. No. Winston Mathews. $2.30 2

2

5 00

5 00

5 00

3 00

3 00

3.00

3 00

3 00

5 00

5 00

3 00

5 00

8 00

5 00

3 00

3 00

3 00

3 00

1 00

3 00

4 54 3 00

- 4

59

53

53

52

52

52

52

52

52

17 52

28 59

'18 resulted in the furthe: addition of 150 persons ; and in 1821 and '32 there was a still further increase, under similar cired 681 funerals, married 417 couples, and has preached about twelve thousand times! He has received to the church 680 persons, which added to the 35 who belonged to the church when he was installed, makes a total of 714: Of these, 136 have died, and 295 have been dismissed to other churches. Two hundred and forty-eight are still enrolled on the church book-14 dence of four years in Knoxville. of whom have left irregularly, weilwrites inthe same paper from Whitesboro', that he is in the midst of a pleasing revival : and that on the second Sabbath of the present month, be baptized twelve -making in all twenty persons who have his works are held in everlasting remem-

STATE OF NEW YORK .- The Utica Register has letters from pastors of churches at Vienna, Newfane, Pen-Yan, giving information of pleasing revivals in all these places, and of cheering additions to the mer, now Father Bernard, was the indichurches. The Church at Batavia which had been aided by the Convention, has received to its number by baptism, within about a year past, seventy-one.

Onto.-Rev. E. West communicates to looked in the glare of great events, tism of sixteen converts at Loudonville, Ohio. on the last Sabbath in February, making twenty-five in all since December.

Five were recently baptized at Piqua, fourteen at Dayton, six at Port Jefferson; seven at M'Connelsville, Ohio, and at Mill

AN ENGLISH ABBOT .- "An Abbot has ust been consecrated in England-the first since the Reformation. Rev. J. Palvidual. There are 30 or 40 monks under him at St.Bernard." This we find among the foreign items. It is one of the minor signs of the times, and must not be over his confinement. SECULAR INTELLIGENCE.

THE ROMISH CHURCH --- The vestments of the Catholic priests who celebrated mass on Christmas day, at Dungarvan, cost £200, being all cloth of gold. The organ and fine glass chandeliers cost £500 being those hitherto used at Mount Meleray,---Dublin Freeman.

A. W. Berry, Discovery .-- The Cincinnati Atlas an-B. F. Hitt, SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY .- The London nounces that the workmen who are ply-S, R. Smily, Mrs. Susan Farrow, Mrs. F. H. Watkins, correspondent of the Atlas, gives an ac ing the pick axe and spade under the office window, to shape out the foundation Mrs. Emily Les. of a new building, recently came across R. B. Mosely, (count of a paper that was read before the Royal Institution in February. It purports to be a discovery by means of which car Geo. Les, the whole section of a garden fence, stand-Rev. Alex. Travis. bonic acid gas is applied to the extining upright several feet below the surface Hon. J. V. Perryman guishment of fires. The "Fire Annihila-N. McPherson, of the ground. It was embedded in the Littleton Edwards. tor" is the instrument used. It subdues soil, and appeared considerably worsted Carter Cleveland; J. M. Cheney, from the teeth of time and the worms: fire by preventing the supply of pure air the vital element of conflagration, and It had been probably built "long time W. B. Harralson J. J. Stewart, Saml. N. Brow supplying carbonic gas and steam, which ago," by some pioneer, to keep the truant destroys comjustion. The instrument is boys away from his dabbages, and had Gen. Levi W. Lawle hat ! Cast that book away, Because old-fashioned grown ? A thought so impious own!

Niche for the Poets.

THE OLD FASHIONED BIBLE.

BT J. E. SNODGRASS.

now 'tis rough and torn, And worms its form have sought, t tho' it looks forlorn, Trust not the wicked thought w child, what the' antique Its style may now appear, nd mournfully bespeak The lapse of many a year !

hold, the diamond's sheen Is darkened not by ageoss-banks lose not their green-So with its holy page.

rant no pictured book With bindings rich and gay ; fascinating look Would call my thoughts away

com precepts dear to me. 'Mid scenes too often drear, aught from my fathers knee And heard with eager ear.

they but language knew, Those blister'd leaves might tell hearts that saddened grew. As tears upon them fell !

gilded book I'll buy-For gold was never given teach us how to die, Or point the soul to Heaven.

I WANT TO GOHOME.

BY RICHARD COL. JE.

ant to go home !" said a weary child. had lost its way in straying ; v try in vain to calmits fears. from its eyes its blinding tears, ks you in the face, still saying-I want to go home !"

ant to go home !" said a fair young bride. guish of spirit praying, sen hath broken the silver chordpoken a harsh and cruel wordshe now, alas! is saying "I want to go home !"

ant to go home !" said the weary soul. earnest thus 'tis praying ;!

beart of the affectionate child. She threw her arms around his neck, and exclaimed -" Yes, father, I will tell you: Mother buys medicines for poor little Willie. We have no other way to get it. Mother and Mary work all the time they can get to huy bread." A pang shot through the inebriate's heart. "I have robbed them of the comforts of life," he exclaimed; " from this moment the liquor fire passes my lips no more."

Anne stood gazing at him in astonish ment. She could scarcely comprehend her father's words; but she saw that some change had taken place. She threw back her golden ringlets, raised her large blue eyes with an earnest look to his face. "Will you never drink any more rum?" she whispered timidly.

"Never ! dear Anne," her father replied solemnly.

Joy danced in hereyes, "Then we will all be so happy. Oh, father, what a happy home ours will be !"

Years passed away, The words of lit. tle Anne. the drunkard's daughter, had proved true. The home of the reformed man, her father, was indeed, a happy one. Plenty crowned his board, and health and joy beamed from the face of his wife and children, where once squalid misery alone. could be traced. The pledge had raised him from his degradation, and restored him once more to peace and happiness.

LOOK UP.

A little boy went to sea with his father, to learn to be a sailor. One day his father said to him, " come, my boy, you will never be a sailor if you don't learn to climb; let me see if you can get up the mast." The boy, who was a nimble fellow, soon scrainbled up; but when he got to the top and saw at what a height he was, he began to be freightened, and called out, " Oh ! father, I shall fall ; I am sure I shall fall; what am I to do ?" " Look up, look up, my boy," said his father. " if you look down you will be gid 'y, but if you keep looking up to the flag at the top of the mast, you will descend safe-The boy followed his father's advice. ly."

and reached the bottom with ease. My dear children, I want you to learn A CAUTION TO CHILDREN.

Don't place your eyes or any of your limbs in unnatural positions in your plays. A girl twelve years old, in attempting to place her eyes in the condition usually called cross-eved, ruptured one of the muscles and the eye is now drawn round towards the nose. It is probable that it will never again be in its healthful, proper position. This occurred but a few days ago in a neighboring city.

Let brotherly love continue.

THE PRESENT SESSION

OF THE GREENSBORO' FEMALE INSTITUTE COMMENCED

on the first of February 1849.

THIS School is now in successful operation un-der the charge of Rev. C. F. STURGES as Principal-a competent and experienced teacher and a gentleman of great moral worth .- To aid in the management of the school requisite Female teachers have also been employed.

The Trustees are determined to establish and maintain a school of high order, to which parents and guardians may safely entrust their daughters and wards. The discipline, while mild, will be strict, and the utmo-t attention will be given to the manners of the pupils as well as to their moral and intellectual culture.

> COURSE OF INSTRUCTION. PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

SECOND CLASS-Spelling, Reading and Elements of Arithmetic, FIRST CLASS-The same, with Geography, $12 Grammar, and Elements of Natural Philosophy. 14

ADVANCED DEPARTMENT. SECOND CLASS-History of the United States,

Analysis of the English Language, Natural Philosophy, Elements of Moral Science, Elements of Astronomy, - - - -FIRST CLASS-Botany, Uranography, Roman History, Antiquities, Mithology and Algebra, JUNIOR CLASS-Chemistry, Algebra, Universal History, Ancient Geography, Physialogy, Logic, Geometry commenced, Geology, and Mineralogy, SENIOR CLASS-Goometry, Trigonometry, Rhetoric, Intellectual Philosophy, Political Economy, Evidences of Christianity, 20

FUEL, 1 D' Daily exercises in Penmanship, Arithmetic. O thography, Composition and the Holy Scriptures. by all who are capable, which will be continued brough the whole course.

It is believed that the course of instruction contemplated is as complete as that of any institution for the Education Young Ladies in the South .-- below," "The Bower of Prayer," "The Saint's Sweet Home," and Newton's pious and expressive pieces—"The Beggars Prayer," commencing, "En-couraged by thy word, of mercy to the poor"—" The up your heads, Immanuel's friends," "The Harvest Home," commencing, "This is the field, the world day. if you will hear his voice," " Beside the gospel pool," "The Good Old Way," commencing; " Lift Dying Thief," commencing, " Sovereign grace hath power alone"-and, "The Lord will provide," com-mencing, " Though troubles assail and dangers affright." One great motive in the present work was to restore, for the use of the Editor's own congregation and such others as desire them, the above, and a number of similar devotional and familiar "Sacred Songs," omitted in some recent Conference hymn books.

Another principal object with the compiler was to promote that familiarity and ease which he thinks should ever pervade these meetings. If formality and stateliness is out of place any where, it is certainly so in the Conference room and in the Social circle. To aid in accomplishing this desirable result, he has embodied in the present collection a considerable number of volentery stanzas, adapted to the Conference and revival meeting, and intend ed to be sung in the intervals of prayer or exhortation, without the formality of annoucement.

The first 108 hymns are arranged under the heading, " Hymns adapted to Revival Melodies." They are the text-hymns to various familiar tunes, most of which may be found in various well-known collections of revival tunes. The missionary and Baptismal hymns have been added, to avoid the necessity of using the larger hymn books at the Monthly Concert and on Baptismal occasions.

A Conference hymn book, in the Editor's opinion, should be a book for the pocket, and the publisher has endeavored to combine-with what success the reader must judge-a neat exterior, and convenient pocket size, with a fair and readable type, that shall not be distressing to the eye.

Copies for emainination, furnished gratis to postpaid applications. Unbound copies can be sent by

Published by EDWARD H. FLETCHER, 141 Nassau St., N. Y. 6-4t. March 30, 1849, RIPLEY'S NOTES.

L explanatory ; intended principally for Sabbath School Teachers and Bible Classes, and as an aid to family instruction. By HENRY J. RIPLEY. Prof. of Bib. Lit. and Interpretation in Newton Theol. In-1. Sterestyped Edition.

This²work should be in the hands of every stu dent of the Bible ; especially every Sabbath school and Bible class teacher. It is prepared with special reference to this class of persons, and contains a mass of just the kind of information wanted. It also contains a splendid colored Map

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The undersigned, having examined Professor

G. H. Fry. J. L. Bliss. W. G. Stewart. FRY, BLISS & CO. WHOLESALE GROCERS,

Nos. 12 and 14 Commerce-street, Mobile, OFFER to their friends and customers of Perry, county, a large supply of carefully selected Choice Family Groceries.

And to their many friends throughout Alabama and Mississippi, tender thanks for former liberal patronage, and ask a continuance of their favors, as their prices will be shaped to mutual advantage. March, 1847 N. B.-Messrs. Hendrix, Tutt & Toler, Marion,

Alabama, will forward orders for groceries and receipt bills.

AFEW COPIES LEFT "THE GOOD MINISTER OF JESUS CHRIST" and "GOD'S PRESENCE IN HIS

SANCTUARY," BY WILLIAM R. WILLIAMS, D. D. These two are the only sermons by Dr. Williams now in print. Also the "PROSPERITY OF A CHURCH" by DANIEL SHAEP, D. D. PRICE, 12 1-2 cents, each, or 25 cents for the three, which may be remitted by mail at the halfounce rate of postage. I COLRY & Co.

	CONSTRUCTS	1.00	CO.,
A DIN STATE	- 122	Nassau	st., New	York.
MAY, 19, 1848.		(Internet)	bait 1	4-ts

TUNING AND REPAIRING PLANOS. MR. W. LINSEL,

FTAVING permanently located in Marion, respectfully informs the citizens of this and the adjoining counties, that he is prepared to

Tune and Repair Planos,

as a regular business. He hopes by a prompt and fai hful fullfilment of his engagements, to merit the patronage of the public.

He refers, by permission, to Prof. M. P. JEw. ETT, Principal of the Judson Female Institute, and also invites attention to the following recommendation from Prof. D. W. CHASE, Principal of the Musical Department in the same Institution.

OT Having been well acquainted with Mr. Linsel for a considerable length of time, and seen the execution of work which he has been engaged to do, from time to time, in the Judson and elsewhere, I take great pleasure in 'recommending him as very competent in the business of repairing and tuning Pianos, as well as a careful thorough and faithful workman. I have no doubt he will give entire satisfaction to all D. W. CHASE. who may engage him. 35.tl. Marion, Oct. 20, 1848. P. S. Applications by maillor otherwise, will be promptly answered. W. L.

THE COMMISSION.

FASHIONABLE MILLINER

MRS. HOLMES, No. 44 Dauphin-street, Moha Would inform her friends and customers. that she has on hand a large and fashional assortment of

MILLINERY GOODS.

Consisting in part of Silk, Satin and Velvet Bounet. of the Gipsey and Cottage shapes Tuscan, Straw, Neapolitan and Cicely Bouncis, et Gipsey and half Gipsey shapes A large assortment of Freach Capes, Caps, Collars and Chimezets

Thread, Laces, Ribbons, &c. All of which will be sold on the most reasonals terms.

DRESS MAKING.

in all its branches, and of the tastiest styles All persons favoring Mrs. Holmes with their at. ders, may depend on having them executed in the best manner, and on the most reasonable terms March, 1847 State Astrony States 6-ly

NOTICE.

THE co-partnership heretofore existing between the Subscribers, under the firm of LEWIS COLBY COMPANY, is this day dissolved by mutual consent LEWIS COLBY. EDWARD H. FLETCHER

New York, September 5th, 1848.

CIRCULAR.

THE Subscriber respectfully announces to he friends and the public, that he will continue the same line of the BOOKSELLING & PUBLISHING bus inces, at No. 141 Nassau Street, which has been pursued by the late firm.

Having been regularly bred to the busines, added to which is his experience in the late concern from its com. mencement, he teels confident that he can offer to his patrons advantageous terms.

The primary object of this establisment, will be the publication and sale of Religious Books, especially such as are adapted to the Baptist denomination.

A large assortment of Sabbath School books will be kept. and to this department much attention will be paid. If Sabbath Schools, wishing to replenish their libraries, or to purchase new ones, will forward their funds, and list of such books as they already have, their orders will receive prompt attention, and the selection will be carefully made.

Also, will be kept, School and Blank Books, and Stationery of every variety-Sermon Paper, Marriage Certificates, &c., Sic; Foncias Books imported, for a small commission. ID"A liberal discount will be made to Booksellers. Minsters and l'eachers.

EDWARD H. FLETCHER. Ner Vork. September, 25 1848. 4-1

LAKER, WILLIAMS & Co. COMMISSION MERCHANTS. No. 3, Commerce Street, MOBILE, ALA.

ROBERT A. BAERR, Summerfield Dallas Co. PRICE WILLIAMS, Livingston, Sumter Co. LEVI W. LAWLER, Mardisville, Talladega Co.

TO BIBLE STUDENTS! THE FOUR GOSPELS; with Notes, chief

eth a tear-heaveth a sighward glanceth with streaming eye promised rest, still saying-"I want to go home !"

Douths' Deportment. IE WILL FORGIVE YOU, FATHER."

stood leaning upon a broken gate, in of his miserable dwelling. His tathat was in his hands, and the cool e lifted the matted locks which covhis noble brow. His countenance ploated and disfigured, but in his eve was an unwonted look-a mingled ssion of sudness and regret. Perhe was listening to the melancholy of his patient wife, as she soothed ick babe on her bosom; or perchance as gazing on the sweet face of his t daughter, as at the open window. lied her needle to obtain for her er and "the poor children a sustee. Poor Mary! for berself she not; young as she was, her spirit rushed by poverty, unkindness, and ct. As the inebriate thus stood, his wandered over the miserable habitabefore him. . The windows were m, and the doors hingeless, scarce tige of comfort remained; yet memore him back to the days of his , when it was the abode of peace apptaness. In infancy he saw again Id arm chair, where sat his father, the Bible upon his knee, and seemed ar again the sweet tones of his mothshe laid her hand upon the head of larling boy, and prayed that God d bless him and preserve him from Long years had passed away, yet came into the eyes of the drankard. recollection of his mother's love. por mother." he muttered. "it is well hou art sleeping in the grave; it I break thy heart to know that thy a wretched and degraded being-erable outcast from society."

turned slowly away. Deep within joining forest was a dell, where the s of the sun scarce ever penetrated. trees grew on either side, whose hes, meeting above, for ned a canoleaves, where the birds built their and poured forth happy songs. er the drunkard bent his steps. It een his favorite haunt in the days childlood-and the recollections st scenes came crowding over his

from this little story, to look more to Jesus and less to yourselves. If you keep thinking always about yourselves, it will make you unhappy. Shall I tell you the reason of this 1 It is because our hearts are so full of sin, that the more we look at them the more reason we shall have to fear that God will be engry with us, and not take us to heaven: and this will Purent: make us very unhappy. What I want you to do, is to look to Jesus; that is, to think a great deal about all that he has done for you, and how much he loves you; to come to him every day and beg him to forgive and wash away all your sins in his own blood; this is the way to be happy. bope you understand what I mean.-When we look from ourselves up to the Savior, we are like the boy when he kept his eyes fixed on the flag, and so got look up!" Look up, ye young, and while ve gaze. Forget all earthly things ; Look up, and sing the Saviour's praise, And crown him King of Kings. FOOD FOR THE MIND.

down safely. Once more I say, "look up!

The Editor of the Christian Mirror suggests the following important consideraions, in relation to much of the current reading of the day:

"The affectation of wit and fun, which constitute the attraction of many papers for the young, are absolutely disgusting o a well intormed mind. Very much of this wit is made up of bad English. This is read in the papers, and passes into the conversation of the young, by whom it is backneyed to death. The hearer's ear is pained, and his soul sick.' Another portion is made up of the polluting incendoes, which inflict fool stains on the mind, that will cleave to it with a ruinous tenacity. Another, grossly thrusts at whatever is stable in sound moral habits, serious in religion, and conscientious and punctual in its outward observances. And as a whole, the reading of them dissipates the mind, and robs it of its strength. It is not the aliment suited to its nature ; it brings or disease, mental debility, and at length-de struction follows. It is no help, but a se rious impediment, to a preparation for th essential duties of life.'

TRUE WORTH.

.Whenever I find a man opposing th false estimates of the vulgar, and daring covered his face with his hands, to aspire, in sentiment, in language, and the prayer of the prodigal burst in conduct. to what the highest wisd m his lips-"Oh God! receive a return- through all ages sanctioned as most ex cellant to him I attach mysell by a sort of necessary attachment, and if I am so formed by nature or destiny, that, by no exertion or labor of my own, I can attain this summit of worth and honor, yet no power of heaven or earth shall hinder me from looking with affection and reverence upon those who have thoroughly attained this glory or appear engaged in the successful parsuit of it."-Milton.

Certificates of Scholarship will be conferred on those who pursue the regular course, though any young hdy m y take a partial course who may desite to do so.

LT Nors .- The price of Tuition is put down per term of five months, and a pupil entering aft r the opening of a session, will be charged for each week as one twentieth of the term.

The following are extra and at the option of the h	Lusic on the Piano, " " Guitar,	-

F	rench, Spanish, Italian or Latin Language,	i rawing, Painting, M-zzotinto,	-
Ĩ	ransferring of Prints, Wax and Shell Work.
	Lesson,
	mbroidery,
U	se of Libraty,
1.0	GANTON DRAKE,
	CALVIN NORRIS,	1
1.	WILEY J. CROOM,
	S. W. CHADWICK, Trustees.	•
15	DANIEL EDDINS,
1.10	JOHN P. KERR. J. M. WITHERSPOON,
1

For the information of such as may not be acquainted with Mr. Sturgis, the following testimony is subjoined :

ALABAMA FEMALE ATHENÆUM.

The subscribers as a committee of advisement, in relation to the Atheneum, in Tuscaloosa, (under the charge of the Rev. C.F.Sturgis,) deem it a duty they owe to the Principal, and to the community, to express their satisfaction in the results of the first session. A portion of us, from observing the improvement of our daughters and the re-idue from other means of information, are well convinced of the capacity, and tact of the Instructors; and are gratified with what they have seen of their methods both of instruction and discipline. They can with all candor, recommend the Institution to their friends and the public, as worthy of general confidence and patronage.

J. J. ORMAND. B. MANLY, BENJ. WHITFIELD, B. F. PORTER, H. W. C LLIER. JAS. GUILD,

The results of the first session of this school have given general satisfaction to its friends. The recent public examination has afforded to its petrons, additional evidence of the fid-lity of the teachers, and of the diligence of the pupils. Here we may be indulged in congratulating the friends of the Institute, on our good fortune in securing the able, faithful, and efficient services of the present incumbent, and his assi-tants. Our purpose, "to establish a school of a high order, to which parents and guardians may safely intrust their daughters and wards," is already accomplished -and our present position so desirable and cheering, let it be our duty faithfully to maintain.

n e	J. M. WITDERSPOON, J. P. KERR, S. W. CHADWICK, DANIEL EDDINS, CALVIN NORRIS, WILEY J. CBO-M, GASTON DRAKE, March 30, 1849. 6-12m.
e g d m	DOWLING'S CONFERENCE HYMNS. A NEW COLLECTION OF HYMNS, DESIGNED ESPECIALLY FOR USE IN CONFERENCE AND PRAYER MEETIN AND FAMILY WORSHIP.

Ripiev's Notes on the Gospels, can recommend them with confidence to all who need help in the study of the sacred Scriptures. Most cordially, for the sake of truth and righteousness, do we wish for these Notes a wide circulation Baron Stow, Daniel Sharp, R. H. Neale, J. W. Parker, Robert Turnbull, J. S. Bacon, D. D. President Columbian of Canaan.

College, R.v. Stephen Chapin, D. D., lat- President of Columbian College; Rev. R. E. Patuson, D. D., Prof. Newton Teol. Inst., Rev. Luther Crawford, late Sec. Am. Bap. Home Miss. Soc.; Rev. B. T. Welch, D. D., Pastar of Pierpoint St. Church. Brookiyn, N. Y., Rev. J. A. Warne, Editor of the 15 Comprenensive Commentary; Rev. J. S. Baker, | 14 D. D., Penfield, Ga. ; Rev. Thomas Hume, Portsmouth, Va,, Rev. J, B. Taylor, Richmond, Va; Rev. Nathaniel Kendrick, D. D., late President, Hamilton Lit. and Theol. Inst.; Rev. N. W. Wilhams, Rev. Jeremiah Chaplin, D. D., late President of Waterville College, Biblicat Repository : Chris tian Watchman; Christian Review; Zion's Advooate: Boston Recorder; Zion's Herald; Advocate of Peace, Baptist Register; Baptist Record; New Hampshire State Convention, aud others.

The following sentiments, expressed by one of the above writers, is the substance of all the rest -" Prof. Ripiev's Notes preserve a just medium between the diffuse and the concise--and the crowning excellence is, that he helps the reader where he needs help; and where he does not, he lets him go alone ! On plain texts his notes are not obtruded ; but on the ob cure, they are sound and satisfactory. His style is plain and chaste-his spirit eminently Christian; or, in other words, it is modest, humble, and devout. His topics for practical reflection are well chosen and happily expressed ; and his notes on passages which have a reference to the subject of baptism, should commend the work to every one.

"Prof. Ripley has given us a specimen of the right kind of Commentary, the Notes are more strictly explanatory than those of Mr Barnes; they occupy a similar space; the style, though less pointed and vivacious, exhibits more sobriety; the principles of interpretation are more cautiously applied; and the explanations, particularly on the subject of baptism, are more correct."-Prof. Knowls in Christian Review.

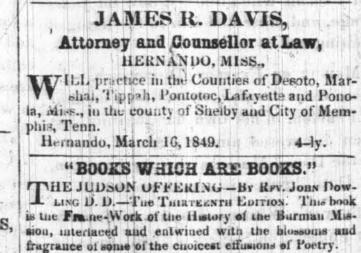

The Acts of the Apostles, with notes. Chiefly Explanatory. Designed for Teachers in Saboath Schools and Bible Classes, and as an Aid to Family Instruction. By H. J. RIPLEY.

IT Many highly Commendatory Notices of this work have been received by the Publishers. Similar to those of the "Gospels." Published by GOULD, KENDALL & LINCOLN. 59 Washington street, Boston.

March 16, 1849. 4-tf.

A NEW PERIODICAL, PUBLISHED BY THE Beard of Foreign Missions.

It proposed to publish, under the direction of a committee of the Board, a monthly period cal, devoted to the diffusion of missionary intelligence and the cuitivation of a messionary spirit. The proposed publication is not disigned to supersede the Journal; that is indispensable, and will be continued. But the Board and its agents are impress d with the necessity of having a cheap paper, to co-operate with the Journal in accomplishing the same great end. The experience of other missionary boards has proved that such a paper is one of the most economical and efficient instruments which can be employed. Our churches need information on the subject of missions. Many brethren, in various quarters, have asked for such a publication . and the Board has resolved to furnish it.

The enterprise is epecially commended to the consideration of the pastors and deacons of our churches. The price of the periodical is such as to bring it within the reach of all; and a wide circulation is confidently anticipated. Let every friend of missions, into whose hands this prospectus may fall, set to work, at once, to procure and transmit a large list of subscribers. TERMS.

The commission will be printed on a medium sheet and issued the 15th of every month. Single copies, 25 cents Five copies mailed to one address, $1 00 Twenty-five copies, to one address, 5 50 Fifty copies to one address. 8 50 One hundred copies, to one address, 15 00 IF Where several copies are taken at a post office, subscripers should make arrangements to have them sent to one individual, so as to secure them at the reduced price. In every instance where single copies are mailed to individuals, twenty-five cents will be charged.

IF The work will be commenced in January next, before time, pastors agents and others, are requested to engage in active effort to secure subscribers. In a few weeks the first number will be published of in anticipation of the regular time, to serve as a specimen procuring subscribers. Payment in advance.

H. K. ELLYSON, PUBLISHER. Address

the undersigned on the first of November last, by the Hon. Judge of the Orphan's Court of Perry County, on the Estate of James Thompson deceased. All persons indebted to said estate are re- Evangelist. quested to come forward and make immediate pay- Facts for Boys : Selected and arranged by Joseph ment, and those having claims against said estate are notified to present them properly authenticated within the time prescribed by law or they will be bared.

HENRY H. MEREDITH, Administrator. January 24th, 1849 .-- 6 w.

HEARN SCHOOL.

HE exercise of this Institution will be resumed . the first Monday in February next under the shai, Tippah, Pontotoc, Lafayette and Pono- superintendance of Mr. A. D, King, who has had la, Miss., in the county of Sheiby and City of Mem- charge of it for the past two years. The Institution is now in a flourishing condition, and, in the opinion of the Trustees, deserves the liberal patronage of an enlightened public. The course of instruction embraces all the branches taught in High Schools generally. It is designed to prepare young men for the Junior class of College, and to give to those not wishing to take a Collegiate course, an education sufficient for common purposes of life. The location is beautiful and healthy, and the community, in refinement and morals, favorably with older settied parts of the State. Board can be had in respectable families near the place on repsonable terms. The scholastic year is divided into two sessions of five mouths each; the first commencing the first Monday in February lect Formulas for the triage Ceremony, etc., and and ending the first of July with a public examina-Rules of Business for Ci. ones, Ecclesiastical, and ota- tion ; the second, commenceing the thord Monday er deliberate assemblies, a th a variety of useful tables. in July and closing Friday before the third Monday in December, also with a public examination. Rates of tuition per Session, payable at the end of each Session.

FINHE SUBSCRIBER, grateful for the patronage so liberally extended to him during the past year, would respectfully inform his friends and the public generally that he will continue the above business, in Marion, Perry county, Alabama. And having recently employed some of the most competent Gin Makers in the State, he feels confident of his ability to give general satisfaction. He has procured the services of the celebrated Gin Maker, Anderson Cane, who is generally and favourably known in Alabama, formerly of the firm of Hannah and Cane. He has on hand and is receiving the choicest lot of materials ever brought in the Stateall this combined with his Patent anti-friction Bores, and his long experience in the business render it most certain that he can produce to the planters who may favour him with their patronage, a Colton Gin superior to any ever made in the State, or brought to it. His Gins are warranted to perform well, when the Running Gear is good and also he warrants them to not knap Cotton. Gins can be had at the shortest notice by addressing the subscriber in Marion, or by giving orders to his travelling Agent, Mr. Patrick Burnet, who is duly authorized to sell for him and collect dues.

The Subscriber would also inform his friends in this vicinity, that he will carry on the Blacksmithing business in Marion, at the brick shop formerly occu pied by Hannah and Neal, and hopes by strict at tention to the business, aided by the skill of the Blacksmith he has employed, to merit a share of patronage. Turning ploughs of the very best quaity together with all other kinds of ploughs, and in short all iron tools necessary for farming can be had at the shortest notice by application at his shop west of the public square.

M. W. SHUMAKE. 50-tf Marion, Febuary 4, 1848.

T IVES OF THE TWELVE APOSTLES. By Rev. R. W. Cushman; with portraits from the old masters.

"Who will aver tire of reading the Biographics of the disciples of our blessed Lo.d ; especially when they are presented in so delightful a form as in the neat volume before us, and in a style of language NOTICE. ETTERS Of Administration were granted to A Pure Religion the Word's Only Hope. By Rev.

R. W. Cushman.

"We commend it to all who love religious freedom, as worth study and admiration."-N. Y.

Beicher, D. D .- A world of philosophy often lies in a simple narrative, and lessons of wisdom may spring from a little fact, which whole tomes cas never impart.

Facts for Girls : by the same Author. The London Apprentice: An authentic Narrative: with a Preface by W. H. Pearce, Missionary from Calcutta .- "I should be glad if my notice of this little work-The Happy Transformation'- should induce numbers of young men to purchase and read it."-Rev. J. A. James. Sketch of my Friend's Family. By Mrs. Marshall.

Intended to suggest some practical hints on rel gion and domestic manners. The Way for a child to be Say d. By Abbott -

This entertaining book, which has aiready hads wide circulation, can hardly fail of being a means of good to every child that reads it.

Charles Linn: or How to Observe the Golden Rule By Miss Emily Chubbuck (now Mrs. Judson) .-"The stories are most admirably adapted to the denly a soft arm was thrown around ick and a sweet voice murmured-vill forgive you, father." Starting feet, the inebriate saw standing beim his youngest daughter a child vears.

hy are you here Anne?" he said-red that the innocent child should witnessed his grief.

ame to gather the lillies which grow the banks," she replied; "see, I got my basket full, and now I am to sell them." nd what do you do with the money?" the father, as he turned his eyes to sket, where among the broad green the sweet lillies of the valley were ng forth. child hesitated-she thought she id too much. Perhaps her father demand the money, and spend it gentleness of tone touched the the result of being a good boy.

EFFECTS OF BEING A GOOD BOY.

Jeseph Ritner, who was for some time a member of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, and atterwards Governor of that State, was once a bound boy to Jacob Myers, an independent farmer, who brought him up. While he was Governor, there was a celebration of the fourth of July, at which Mr. Myers gave the folway in which all his earnings lowing toast : "Josern Ritnes-he was her, kindly, "Well, I do not blame well; he made a good farmer and a good have no right to my children's legislator, and he makes a very good Governor." All this man's greatness was

BY JOHN DOWLING, D. D.

THE design of the present compilation is, in the first place, to add to the life and spirituality of the Conference and the Prayer meeting; and secondly, to be an acceptable pocket companion to the Christian, in the family or in the closet.

From most of the Conference hymn books which the editor has examined, a large number of devotional pieces, cherished in the memory and the hearts of the fathers and mothers in our American Zion, have been excluded; probably because the poetry was not regarded as of a sufficiently high order of excellence. The opinion of the present editor is, that sacred songs, embodying scriptural sentiments and genuine religious experience- Doctrines and Daties of Reveiation, and the Scripture when not objectionable on the score of vulgarity or grammatical inaccuracy-should not be discarded because they fail to stand the test of a rigid poetical SURY. Scripture Texts, arranged for the use of Mincensorship.

To mention a few of the favorite pieces omitted in some recent collections, many Christians will at | This work is a reprint from the Tract Society for once recognize the following, associated as some | England and Ireland. The Text-Book is a complete of them are with their sweetest seasons of holy religious enjoyment :- " Succet land of rest, for thee I lowing toast: "Joseph RITNER-he was sigh," " Whither goest thou, pilgrim stranger,"-always a good boy, and has still grown. "The Lord into his garden comes." "Farewell, dear ou are afraid to tell me. Anne," said better ; every thing he did, he always did friends, I must be gone," "Amen, amen, my soutreplies," " Come, my brethren, let us try," "Vain, delusive world, adieu," " O come, my loving neighbors will y m go to glory with me," "Let thy kingdom, blessed Sariour," "There is a land of pleasure." " O tell me no more of this world's vain store," " To-

Price 80 15. THE PASTORS HAND-BOOK-By Rev. W. W. L EVERTS .- A neat ocket manual for the minsiter of the Gospel, and aimos. adispensable to those who have learned its value. It omprises selections of Scripture, arranged for vario . occasions of official duty ; Se-

Price 80 50.

BIBLE MANUAL, comprising Selections of Scripture, arranged for various occasions of Private and Public Worship, both special and ordinary, together with Scripture Expressions of Prayer, from Matthew Henry. With an Appendix, consisting of a copious classification of scripture Texts, presenting a Systematic View of the higher English branches, Treasary, 12mp. Price $1 50;

THE SCRIPTURE TEXT-BOOK AND TREAisters, Sunday Senool Teachers, and Families. In Two

Parts, with Maps and Engravings. 12mo. arrangement and analysis of the doctrines and duties taught in the Bibie, forming a comprehensive system of Fneology, drawn from the Bible purely and in a sense in which it can be affirmed of no other system. It should be, and will be in time, a companion to every stadent of the Bible. The Freasury relates to History .-Geography, Mananers, Customs, Arts, &c., and in fact is a complete Bible Dictionary. Price $1 00. OF BUBLIT DESCRIPTION. LEWIS COLBY, PUBLISHER. 122 Nassau street, New York. February 16, 1840 3-46

Spelling, Reading and Writing, $ 6 00 English Grammar, Geography, Arethmetic 10 00 Latin and Greek Languages, inbluding all 15 00 Students entering at the opening of the session will be charged for the whole session; those coming in after, for the balance of the session. No deduction made for lost time except from sickness and not then for less than a week.

IF Young men over 16, applying for admission will be required to furnish satisfactory testimonials of good moral character. C. W. SPARKS, Pres. B. T.

JOB WORK

Marsh Avaluate My and Ba X and Colling (All Mills)

AT THIS OFFICE.

As DEL TITA

A. RICHARDSON, Sec. Care Spring Ga., Jan. 7, 1848 .- 46tf

wants of the rising generation, by the wholeso;a morals which they inculcate" .- Christian Secretary.

Allen Lucas, the self-made Man. By the same author .-... Whatever Fanny Forester writes bears. the stamp of genius-nor this only. It also bears the stamp of moral excellence."- Charler Uak. Wonders of the Deep. The design of this volume is to stat , in a style which shall both instruct and amuse, the most remarkable facts connected with the natural history of the products of the sea. The Guilly Tongue -It is somewhat on the plan of Mrs. Opie's Inustrations of Lying. The House of the Thief, or the Engush Command illustrates its point by tracing the flagrant viole tion of the command " Thou shalt not steal," to the first departures from strict honesty in the of dinary, commerce of life.

Visit to Nahant-Designed to interest the minds e the young in the natural history of the shell and out Fish, found on the coast of this celebrate promontory ; and by an easy and felicitous metic od to lead them "through nature up to nature God."

L. COLBY & CO., Publishers, 122 Nassau street, New York September 10, 1847. 29-tf.

J. R. GOREE,

April 1, 1848,

Commission Merchant

MOBILE.