

Alabama Baptist. H. T. WINKLER, EDITOR. MARION, ALA. Thursday, February 24, 1876.

The Enlightener and Sanctifier.

It is the Spirit of God, who illuminates our souls with truth. He opens the mind as one would open the windows of a darkened chamber...

Dr. Newman's Tour of Inspection.

How the Government wastes money. A good deal of curiosity has been awakened by the mission of Rev. Dr. Newman, the President's pastor...

Centennial Work at Montgomery.

We have enjoyed a very pleasant trip to Montgomery, where we were invited to speak in behalf of the Centennial of Liberty and Education...

Dr. Teague.

Although we are assured that Dr. Teague's withdrawal from the editorial staff of the ALABAMA BAPTIST is merely nominal, we regret even this seeming severance of the relation he has so long sustained...

Rome and Liberty.

PAPAL RELATIONS WITH THE STATE--CONSTITUTION OF CATHOLIC SCHOOLS. It is surprising that there are so many American Protestants who either cannot or will not understand what is the position of the Roman Catholic Church in regard to liberty and education...

Long Life.

This was in great part due to his scrupulous habits of temperance in all things, not only in reference to the indulgence of the mere appetites, but in all his labors as a man and a minister...

Social Qualities.

His social qualities, which were rare and genial, were alike subordinated to the interests of piety. Religion in some of its phases was always made a pleasant topic in every circle...

Style of Preaching.

As a minister he was truly a scribe well instructed unto the kingdom of heaven. His knowledge of the Living Oracles, especially of the New Testament, was intimate, accurate and profound...

Trust in Providence.

God has so blended the good and evil of life that we cannot anticipate the future. Hence it is foolish to embitter present joys by discontented and anxious cravings for larger blessings which may never be granted...

Field Notes.

I have been delighted in reading the ALABAMA BAPTIST during the past year, and would be glad if my situation in this life were so that I could continue to read it; but it will be impossible for me to renew my subscription...

Coosa River Association.

INDIGENT MINISTERS FUND--PAST RECEIPTS--PRESENT OBLIGATIONS. To the membership of the churches composing the Coosa River Association, and especially to those who have not paid up their subscription to the Indigent Ministers' fund...

Merits.

Brethren, it will be admitted by every one that there cannot be a more worthy object presented to our Christian benevolence, than one of God's ministers who has spent the days of his youth and his riper years in the service of his Master...

Deacons' Duty.

Therefore we suggest and recommend that a deacon or some spiritually minded brother take a paper, and present it to every member in every church and get them to subscribe $1.00 payable at the next association...

Deacons' Institute.

The introductory sermon, in the absence of Elder C. W. McClannan, the appointee, was preached by Bro. W. B. Carter from the text: "His name shall endure forever..."

Queries.

The following queries were presented and discussed at some length. "What will induce a better attendance on church meetings?" Answer: "More spirituality among the members..."

Comunications.

Bro. Editor: Permit me to acknowledge in your columns, the receipt of eleven dollars for the Home Mission Board, from Rev. C. J. Miller, to aid in paying its debts.

Home and School.

Messrs J. P. Morton & Co., of Louisville, are successful in keeping up the high standard of their magazine. It seems to improve with each issue. All teachers need it, and those who are not teachers can find in it much valuable instruction.

New School.

The Baptist Centennial Institute is a name of a school opened January 10th in Warren, Ala., under the patronage of the Baptist General Association of Southern States.

Y. M. C. A.

In England and Wales there are about 200 Y. M. C. A.'s, 104 in Germany, 63 in Scotland, 30 in France, 30 in Switzerland, 5 in Australia, 3 in New Zealand, and about 1,000 in the United States and British Provinces of North America.

THE ALABAMA BAPTIST.

Bro. J. M. Simpson, on motion, was elected Moderator, and C. W. Callahan, Secretary. On motion, it was decided to elect the officers of this body in the future by ballot.

First Quarter Lesson IX. February 27th, 1876.

THE ARK BROUGHT TO ZION. 2 Sam. vi. 1-15.

Leading Text.—THE LORD HATH CHOSEN ZION. HE HATH DESIRED IT FOR HIS HABITATION.—Ps. 132:13.

ANALYSIS: THE ARK SENT FOR STATIONED.

The war is over. Peace allies itself with piety. David will not be king without the ark, the symbol of God's presence and blessing.

1. Ordinance: must be obeyed as commanded—we follow a fracture—thoughtlessness no excuse, nor honest zeal, nor position.

2. God's presence: in the family, in society, in the nation, among friends and foes, in blessing or in wrath. Family religion a great fountain of wealth.

3. Godliness: not grievous but profitable, brings forth fruit, ever receiving the discipline and blessing of God.

The Ark of God. There was no object connected with the sanctuary service which was more sacred to the Jews than the ark.

I. The Ark Sent for.—(Vs. 1-5).—It was in the wrong place; it had fallen into unallowed hands through the sin of Eli's sons.

II. The Ark Shaken.—(Vs. 6-11).—While the tide of national joy was at its flood, while the air was quivering with praise sent up to God through vocal and instrumental music.

III. The Ark Stationed.—(Vs. 12-15).—The God of heaven pays liberally for his lodging. Great gain, temporal and spiritual, enriches Obededom.

Children's Department. DEAR YOUNG FOLKS: There was a Christian celebration at the Boston Highlands a few Sundays ago.

Communications. Ok-la-ho-mo-graphs. INDIAN DECREASE—BAPTIST LETHARGY—FEDERATIONIST ACTIVITY—THE OUTLOOK.

General Religious Notes. Coon, Mink, Fox, Otter, and Muskrat Skins WANTED!

also report contributions amounting to $67,410 to these wild tribes. But Baptists have nothing to report. Our work however among the civilized tribes is very prosperous and encouraging.

Ocean-Cables. Many of our readers, whose pursuits in life do not bring before them familiarly the great and multiplying achievements in the different departments of civil engineering that we are taking place in all parts of the world.

Cause and Effect. In the last number of the paper, I read again that the Grace Street Baptist church has been greatly blessed.

Use the Knife. Cause and effect are here shown as they are, closely allied together. If our churches are to grow, the pruning knife must occasionally be used.

An Agent's Dream. After a tremendous appeal to a certain wealthy deacon for the endowment of our educational institutions, a certain agent went home, discouraged, sick and ready to faint.

great deal better and to the world's advantage in earning his dollar a day making shoes. It is contrary to the theory of true religion [which] is that the way to do the evil world good, to make a better world, is to live in it. If the life withdrawn from the world into the monastery is good life, it is not wanted there, but it is surely wanted in the midst of human sin and sorrow.
