The meeting which recently closed at Lipscomb in which Pastor W. M. Olive was assisted by Rev. W. W. Howard resulted in eight accessions, four by baptism and four by letter, and the church was greatly revived.

Rev. W. M. Olive left last Tuesday, accompanied by his sons, Freddie and Lee, to visit his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Olive, at Grand View, Tex.

On the first Sunday in April Pastor Burns began a series of meetings at Brighton. On Monday following he was joined by Rev. J. W. O'Hara, of Montgomery, who continued with him till the following Friday week, doing all the preaching to the satisfaction and edification of all the people who attended in throngs and entered into the services with much enthusiasm. Among the visible results are—the church strengthened, the pastor much encouraged, twenty-five additions to the church, fifteen by baptism, with others to follow. Others still will unite with churches elsewhere. Taking it altogether it was one of the most helpful revivals ever held in Brighton. Pastor and people thank God and take courage. Brighton being the scene of Bro. O'Hara's first labors, it was pleasant both to preacher and people to have him return and labor with us for twelve days. His coming was a great benediction.

We are arranging in the Baptist Jamestown Exhibit Building to exhibit Baptist church architecture from photographs of existing buildings. May we not ask you to help us in this matter by sending the names of the pastors in your state who have the nicest buildings? We will greatly appreciate your assistance.—W. R. Haight, Secretary Special Committee, 2115 Glasgow Street, Portsmouth, Va. (Brethren, forward photographs and save Bro. Haight the trouble of writing further.)

We have about completed our new building which, perhaps, will not be dedicated now 'till fall. My people presented me recently with a new double buggy and harness from Yantley and Pushmataha churches. They will also send me to the convention at Richmond and Jamestown. I hope to have now a breathing spell and do some work for our people, which is among the very best.—M. Briscoe, Butler.

"DEMENTIA AMERICANA"

CIGARETTES AND COCKTAILS

She came into the restaurant, a slim, graceful, little figure, gowned in pink and white, with a big black picture hat topping her very pretty head. I sat at a table near and could not avoid seeing and hearing all that went on.

She was one of a party of four, and when cocktails appeared she looked questioningly at the other three for a minute, then picked up a glass and swallowed its contents.

The other woman and the two men seemed to take her action quite for granted. She did not seem to like the cocktail very much, judging from her grimace, but she drank it all.

In a few minutes her voice grew louder and her cheeks flushed a deep red. She lolled in her chair and leaned half across the table. People all around stared at her—some looked shocked, some disgusted, some amused.

Her actions were rough and bold, and it was hard to believe that she was the girl who had looked so dainty and pretty an hour before.

The girl was no more to blame—not as much, perhaps—than the two men and the older girl who had encouraged her to drink the cocktail.

Any man who will offer a young girl an intoxicating drink is beneath contempt. He knows perfectly well how it will affect her, and he would probably knock a man down who offered his sister the same kind of a drink.

Sometimes a girl will take a drink because she does not like to refuse. She thinks it smart and worldly, and is quite proud if it does not go to her head.

She also thinks that cigarette smoking adds to her charm. Perhaps if she heard the opinions of men on the subject she would not be quite so keen on cocktails and cigarettes. "There is nothing so disenchanting," said a man to me, "as the odor of whisky and tobacco about a pretty, sweet girl."

Cigarette smoking is unhealthy as well as unwomanly.

Do you think, dear girls, that a man who is worth marrying, would choose a wife who drinks and smokes? I am quite sure he would not.

If you have grown into the habit of taking things to drink or smoking, break the habit right now. Don't say "I will only take a drink on such-and-such an occasion." A habit of that kind has to be broken absolutely or you will never get control of it.

You can't afford to sacrifice your looks and your health just for the sake of a little false stimulant.

If a man takes you out for dinner and urges you to drink with him you can make up your mind that he is the kind of man who will do you no good. Accept no more invitations from him.

Neither can you afford to be seen with girls who indulge in intoxicants.

Remember that the most lovable things about you are your sweetness, innocence and purity.—Daily Ledger.

I am always glad when the Alabama Baptist comes and I can see the many good things that you brethren across the river are doing.—Sam H. Campbell, Pine Bluff, Ark.

The St. Francis Street Baptist church of this city has succeeded in purchasing a lot on which to build the new meeting house which we decided in January to build. The committee appointed to purchase a site has been several months in investigating various localities and lots, and finally decided on the lot situated on the northeast corner of Government and Jefferson streets. It has a frontage on Government street of 102 feet, running back to Conti street with a depth of 238 feet, and the price agreed upon is $31,000. We will have all the room we shall need for auditorium, Sunday school room and parsonage. Eleven thousand dollars will be paid on the lot this week when the deed is furnished and the balance will be carried by the owner for twelve months. We have forty thousand dollars in good subscriptions and we estimate that our present church property and parsonage will bring about forty thousand dollars. Last night at our prayer meeting service the action of the committee was endorsed, a building committee appointed and the trustees authorized to negotiate for the sale of our present property. The lot we have purchased is one of the most beautiful in Mobile and is splendidly located, and I earnestly hope that we shall be able to erect a house that will be an honor to our Lord and to ourselves, a credit to the denomination, and an ornament to the city. It will be some time, however, before we shall begin to build.—W. J. E. Cox, Mobile, Ala., May 2, '07.

Our church has been blessed within the past two weeks, as we have been conducting protracted meetings. We were assisted by Bro. P. M. Jones, of Thomasville, who was pastor of our church three or four years ago, the first week, and Bro. J. E. Camp, of Northport, assisted us the last week. Our meeting closed on the 25th ult. We had sixteen additions to the church, thirteen by baptism, two by letter and one came under the watch care of the church until she secured her letter. All the members of the church were strengthened, and we hope to accomplish a great deal more for God. Pray that God may abundantly bless us.—W. H. Burrage.

BRO. CRUMPTON'S TRIP NOTES

That was a marvelous ride I took over the Tombigbee Valley railroad from Calvert on the M. and B. to Millery. Improvement is the watchword and it will strike this road before fall, I hope, when we want it to handle one hundred passengers for the great institute and association the Antioch is going to have at Healing Springs. It was a great pleasure for me to be in the airy, commodious house of worship the saints have erected at

Healing Springs

They have been worshipping for years in the chapel of the school building. They have a flourishing Sunday school, an interesting B. Y. P. U. Brother Culp, of Bucaatunna, Miss., is the pastor. The school has done well this year. Brother J. F. Brock was elected principal for another year. He hopes to enroll over a hundred pupils next year.

Brother Tucker, an old veteran of two wars, the Confederate and the Savior's, lives here and is active in the Master's service.

Not far away lives Brother Mackey, who is among the most useful of our younger ministry.

Brother Sandlin, of Mobile, was with us at the meeting of the board of trustees and preached a good sermon one night. Brother W. A. Parker and son, Douglass, were present also.

Chapel Hill

Is ten miles away. Brother Tucker is pastor. A great congregation was already on the ground when we arrived. Brother H. M. Mason, one of the most useful preachers in these parts, met us there and helped in the discussions. The program here was carried out at all the places we visited. A sermon by the writer at 11 o'clock, and another to the children at 1:30; then a discussion of the pastor and his support; that was followed by a sort of omnibus question—the meeting house, the deacons, the church and temperance, the church and missions, the church and the children. The people were unanimous in praise of

The Baptist Rally.

Some said: "We never knew before what sort of a thing it was, but we know now and hope to have another some time." Only a few years ago this was a pine forest, now and then a family. Now most of the timber has been taken off and the lands occupied by thrifty farmers. A brother said: "The good of churches is illustrated here. This was a wild, reckless community, but the establishment of the church has revolutionized things. A better behaved and more orderly community than this would be hard to find."

At Isney,

one of the oldest towns in this part of the state, was our next meeting. Brother Mason lives here and is the pastor. The soil is good about here and the people are in good shape. A number of years ago a Mr. Bonner, a son of one of the old families, erected a splendid house of worship for the Baptists. It is probably the best house of worship in Choctaw county. When we were discussing "The Meeting House," much was said about the value of paint and the duty of having a well furnished, comfortable, handsome house of worship in every community. I am sure the hint will be taken and good news will be heard from Isney before many months. Many of the names hereabouts are Indian in their origin. It is interesting to study their meaning, but no one could tell the origin of the name of this village.

At Spring Bank

near Silas, was our next stop. Two railroads are projected for this section and it is all the talk. Choctaw is one of the counties which has never been touched by a railroad. Now the Tombigbee valley is being graded and the survey of the road from Selma to New Orleans has just been made and others are being talked about. The untouched forests of timber are waiting for them and the people are eager. The farming interests are being greatly impeded by the coming of the railroads. The labor is deserting the farms for the public works.

Here, as at all the other places, great dinners were spread at noon for the great congregations that gathered. Everywhere I was impressed with the droves of young people and the bright-faced children. The people are in good circumstances and can easily educate their children, if the children will take it. Not many of them have been away from home to school. I took occasion at every place to try to stir their ambition. Beautiful girls and handsome young men with bright minds are all over the country districts of our state and they need only to be aroused to seize their opportunities, and they will one day shed luster on the communities from which they come.

Brother Tucker, the pastor, lived in this neighborhood for many years. He found his wife here. Of course he is fond of this people and his love is reciprocated.

Hickory Grove

was the last point. Here we spent two days, one of them a Sunday. The ordination of a deacon was added to the program. This gave us all the better opportunity to say things that needed to be said. If I am not mistaken the church made a wise choice and Deacon Singley and his brother, already a deacon, are going to lead this large church into wider fields of usefulness. Brother Mason, the pastor, ought by all means to be preaching here for half his time. I was told what I might expect in the way of crowds when I got to this place. I was not disappointed either of the days. The weather was not good, but the house would not hold the congregations. The folly of building small houses in the country was illustrated at every point on this trip. At one point an addition had been made and they were talking of enlargement at the others. The trouble is the "talking" has to go on for several years before it is done, and after the addition is made the building is unsightly, being all out of proportion. Brother Tucker said, "Brother Crumpton, this church had gone down and seemed to be in a hopeless condition. We arranged to have a fifth Sunday meeting, a sort of Baptist rally, and put the church on its feet again."

Some Notes.

What the country preachers are doing for the kingdom of God will never be known until "the books are opened." They deserve the sympathy and help of our pastors in more favored communities. If every city and town pastor could give three or four weeks this summer to Baptist rallies or protracted meetings in the country they would do a world of good and be all the better preachers for it. It is worth much to a man to have his sympathies enlarged.

The brother from the outside can do much for the people and with the people and for the pastors and with the pastors. I wish the preacher-readers would read that sentence over carefully and study it. I can't amplify, but I will say this much. The pastors are getting meager support. They can not talk about their salaries. The brother from the outside can. If his suggestion is acted on by the church, the preacher is not the only one benefited. The church reaps the greatest reward, if the preacher thereby is enabled to put in more time on his study and in his pastoral work. More and more the churches in town and city are and drawing the lines tighter to keep their pastors from outside work. This ought not so to be. Of course, the pastor should not allow his interest in other fields to cause him to neglect his own; but a great evangelizing force is bottled up when these gifted men are shut up to the narrow limits of the towns in which they labor. The effects upon the pastor are disastrous also. He grows narrow and out of sympathy with the very people from which the future supplies of population in the towns are to come. Day by day the gulf between the country churches and the town churches widens.

Becoming More Exacting

Many other "Notes" suggest themselves, but they would make this too long.

My trip ended twenty-five miles from the railroad. These seven days I have addressed probably one thousand people, the great mass of them children and young people. Many never saw me before. "What will the harvest be?" "Some sweet day" we shall know. To Brethren Tucker and Mason, who hauled me about, had me in their homes, and to the good people who so kindly entertained me, I am debtor. Heaven bless them all.

The End of Trip Notes.

For years I have given much time to scribbling down for the readers of the Alabama Baptist these notes. Often when I was worn out and ought to have been resting, I gave myself to this work. I have enjoyed it and I have been told by many that they read them with interest. It may be some will be glad to know they are to have a rest. It now takes all my time to keep up the large correspondence in the office and in the necessary travel to meet my Sunday appointments.

MORE BOXES OF GOLD

And Many Greenbacks.

325 boxes of Gold and Greenbacks will be sent to persons who write the most interesting and truthful letters of experience on the following topics:

1. How have you been affected by coffee drinking and by changing from coffee to Postum.
2. Give name and account of one or more coffee drinkers who have been hurt by it and have been induced to quit and use Postum.
3. Do you know any one who has been driven away from Postum because it came to the table weak and characterless at the first trial?
4. Did you set such a person right regarding the easy way to make it clear, black, and with a snappy, rich taste?
5. Have you ever found a better way to make it than to use four heaping teaspoonfuls to the pint of water, let stand on stove until real boiling begins, and beginning at that time when actual boiling starts, boil full 15 minutes more to extract the flavor and food value. (A piece of butter the size of a pea will prevent boiling over.) This contest is confined to those who have used Postum prior to the date of this advertisement.

Be honest and truthful, don't write poetry or fanciful letters, just plain, truthful statements.

Contest will close June 1, 1907, and no letters received after that date will be admitted. Examinations of letters will be made by three judges, not members of the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd. Their decisions will be fair and final, and a neat little box containing a $10 gold piece sent to each of the five writers of the most interesting letters, a box containing a $5 gold piece to each of the 20 next best, a $2 greenback to each of the 100 next best, and a $1 greenback to each of the 200 next best, making cash prizes distributed to 325 persons.

Every friend of Postum is urged to write and each letter will be held in high esteem by the company as an evidence of friendship, while the little boxes of gold and envelopes of money will reach many modest writers whose plain and sensible letters contain the facts desired, although the sender may have but small faith in winning at the time of writing.

Talk this subject over with your friends and see how many among you can win prizes. It is a good, honest competition and in the best kind of a cause, and costs the competitors absolutely nothing.

Address your letter to the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich., writing your own name and address clearly.

The following invitation will be of great interest to the host of friends of the president of Howard college, who will felicitate him on having won the love of such a lovely bride. They have our best wishes: "Mr. Henry Felix Wood requests the pleasure of your company at the marriage of his daughter, Emma Florence, to Mr. Andrew Philip Montague, on Wednesday evening, the 8th of May, at half past 8 o'clock, 7719 Underwood Avenue, East Lake, Ala. At home after the 20th of May 8008 Underwood avenue."

A REMARKABLE LOVER

By LIDA B ROBERTSON

Again the lesson committee leaps over the hurdle of the mere humankind—the every day happenings of life and the lessons therein for our learning of Jacob's twenty years sojourning in a foreign land, to his come-back and encounter all night with God. Jacob had to learn his lessons interbetween his "ladder vision" and his wrestle alone with God, and so do our young people. They can not learn the interbetween of life from one Sabbath's vision to the next Sabbath's wrestling with God any more than Jacob did, and do we put the Bible on a level to add them in their own lives to imbibe the lessons therein for their own learning if we omit the things which measurably parallel their own humankind, for the heights only of Divine-appearances unto men?

All the world loves a lover, and wherein all fiction do we find such a remarkable lover as the one given in God's Book? Youth, that Scylla and Charybdis of life, is more interested in love affairs than in all the wisdom and knowledge of science and text-books, and Jacob and Rachel's love-affair is an example of love, loyalty, constancy and fidelity that is wholesome for every young person in the land to weigh and meditate upon. Let's review it.

A young man, a fugitive from his home, because he had not behaved aright toward his brother, had to slip away and go to a far-away land to dwell until his outraged brother's fury abated against him. His mother thought it would be only a few days, as it were, for him to stay; but she did not reckon upon the humankind of her boys. Esau did not become reconciled, and Jacob's heart flitted from him to a beautiful girl—and he stayed away twenty years, and his mother never saw him more.

ARE YOU COMING TO THE ENCAMPMENT.

If you are, it will please you to know that the arrangements "look good" from this end. The program is good; it is more than good, it is simply delicious. To think of a comfortable seat under a beautifully decorated tent—the tent itself under the grateful shade of a cluster of great oak trees, on old Howard's campus, on a fine June morning, is quite enough to make one begin to look for his grip preparatory to starting for East Lake. Add to that, stirring music, brilliant speeches, popular entertainments, good fellowship—all this not for one hour, but for ten mornings and evenings—and there is no longer any question; the grip is packed and one is off. What does it matter if it does cost something?

These above mentioned facts are being seriously considered by the Baptists of Alabama, and they are beginning to write and say: "Make room for me and my family." That's good, isn't it? We hardly hope for that. So, you see, you must begin to write to Professor J. C. Dawson, East Lake, and beg him to give you the very best room to be had. Send in your names, even though you are not quite certain you can come.

While I am talking, perhaps I should tell again something about the cost. In addition to railroad fare you will pay one dollar per day for entertainment. That's very little more than it costs to stay at home.

Professor Dawson will tell you next week what you will want to bring with you in the way of bed linen. You would forget that it is an encampment if we did not make you put in a few things of that kind.

A Great Offer.

One delegate from each B. Y. P. U. in the state will be entertained without charge in private homes. To secure this entertainment you must send your name beforehand, and when you arrive bear credentials that you were duly elected from your union.

Let us hear from you at once. Remember, Professor J. C. Dawson is the man to whom to write about entertainment.

J. M. S.

From his wrongdoing Jacob traversed alone across the streams, up the hillsides, down again and over the dales, with no companion save his staff. He was going to his mother's old home whence she had come as a bride. Doubtless he had often heard from her lips her coming to the well to draw water, and meeting Eleazer, who had prayed for her as his young master's bride to return with him, and it excited his own romance and expectancy that he, too, might find a sweetheart thus. As any stranger doth, he inquired of the herdmen at "a well" if they knew Laban and if he were well. "He is well," they answered. "Behold Rachel, his daughter, cometh with the sheep." At this Jacob seems to desire to hurry them off from the well that he might meet his cousin alone, but they declined to go. He went near and rolled the stone from over the mouth of the well and gallantly watered her sheep. How willingly a man serves a pretty girl—and leaves an ugly one to draw her own water! We know not if it were a rebate which he claimed for his gallantry, but he kissed her and then lifted up his voice and wept. She must have resembled her mother, and it made him homesick or sorrow overcame him that his wrongdoing had driven him out from his home. His tears and his story enlisted the woman-heart of the beautiful shepherdess in deep sympathy, "and she ran!" did not take time to walk, and told his cause to her father, and he came forth to welcome Jacob, the way-worn young man, embraced him, kissed him and brought him as guest to his house. He stayed a month, and one can guess that Rachel did not tend her sheep alone, and that Jacob daily repeated his drawing water gallantry for the lovely shepherdess' flock.

That he worked about the premises would be implied by his uncle's question: "Shouldst thou therefore serve me for naught, what shall thy wages be?"

Jacob loved Rachel and voluntarily answered: "I will serve thee seven years for Rachel." He served them, "and they seemed unto him but a few days for the love he had to her!" A remarkable lover!

How importunate and impatient modern lovers grow if a girl is not willing to fling down everything at once and accept him.

During his seven years of industrious serving working out his contract, we can suppose that beautiful Rachel was occupied in her daily round of duty caring for her sheep. At the expiration of the seven years Jacob was defrauded by custom, and Laban's contract violated and word broken by family "form," and poor Rachel ignored! Seven years more of service was Jacob inveigled into to obtain his bride. She was married to him a week later, but his servitude of seven extra years was claimed and he paid it. Fourteen years for the woman whom he loved! This seems almost incredible in the scale of modernism.

When I was in North Carolina a fragile girl was in the house, from the north, whose hectic cheeks and fever denoted that her days were numbered. Her lover could not await the few months of death summons calling her beyond, but wrote for his release and broke her dying heart!

This love story of Bible lovers, in their years of industry, loyalty, fidelity and constancy, is surely a lesson of worth to our young men who deem a bit of sweets, a few parties, some buggy drives and some visits as altogether a sufficient prelude to a life-long happy marriage!

FRIENDS HELP

St. Paul Park Incident.

"After drinking coffee for breakfast I always felt languid and dull, having no ambition to get to my morning duties. Then in about an hour or so a weak, nervous derangement of the heart and stomach would come over me with such force I would frequently have to lie down.

"At other times I had severe headaches; stomach finally became affected and digestion so impaired that I had serious chronic dyspepsia and constipation. A lady for many years State President of the W. C. T. U., told me she had been greatly benefited by quitting coffee and using Postum Food Coffee; she was troubled for years with asthma. She said it was no cross to quit coffee when she found she could have as delicious an article as Postum.

"Another lady, who had been troubled with chronic dyspepsia for years, found immediate relief on ceasing coffee and beginning Postum twice a day. She was wholly cured. Still another friend told me that Postum Food Coffee was a Godsend to her, her heart trouble having been relieved after leaving off coffee and taking on Postum.

"So many such cases came to my notice that I concluded coffee was the cause of my trouble and I quit and took up Postum. I am more than pleased to say that my days of trouble have disappeared. I am well and happy." "There's a Reason." Read "The Road to Wellville" in pkgs.

DEPARTMENT OF SOUTHERN LITERATURE.

Lillian K. Byrn, Superintendent.

General Statement.

The Jamestown exposition which opens on April 26, 1907, will commemorate the birth of the United States three hundred years ago. It is the object of the exposition to emphasize the historical, educational and intellectual development of the country, and especially desirable is it that there shall be a department of southern literature. Many books have been published by authors from the South, but in few libraries is there to be found a good collection of books by Southern authors. It has therefore been agreed that such a collection shall be secured, and that the Taylor-Trotwood Magazine of Nashville, Tenn., through its literary editor, shall undertake this work. It is believed that publishers and authors in all parts of the country will co-operate in this movement.

Conditions for Entrance.

1. The books must be sent by express or registered mail. This is necessary for the protection of the sender, and no book or books will be received from open mail.
2. Express and postage must be fully prepaid.
3. Books must be in a reasonably good condition and accompanied by specific description and marked for identification.
4. On receipt of books a postal card receipt will be sent to the exhibitor.
5. Books in manuscript form will not be accepted.
6. The books will be handled with all reasonable care and exhibited in handsome cases. In the case of books of special value, it is suggested that the exhibitor have the same insured.
7. It is suggested that living authors send a number of autograph copies to be sold at a price to be fixed by the author and approved by the director of the division of history, education and social economy.
8. At the close of the exposition all books will be

THE MENACE OF THE CITY.

Close students of social and political economy note with alarm the shifting of the center of population from the country to the city. Year by year our farms are being depopulated while our cities are being overpopulated. During the past year three great American cities—Chicago, San Francisco and Pittsburg—have been swept by "waves of crime," so-called—sudden and unexplained outbursts of criminal violence. Women have been beaten down, men murdered, even street cars robbed by highwaymen on the thoroughfares, with all the nonchalance of the wild and vacant frontier. And here in Birmingham one shudders as he reads the coroner's report or glances over the dockets of the criminal courts. Recently there appeared an article in McClure's by George Kibbe Turner (The City of Chicago—A Study of the Great Immoralities) extracts found elsewhere in this issue showing that when he asks:

"Why do these conditions exist? What forces are there, hidden in American cities, which are dragging them, according to the record of their own press, into a state of semi-barbarism?"

This is no mere academic question, but one of terrible practical import to us all, if we who are forced to foregather in cities hope to make them places in which we can bring up our families in safety. Mr. Turner takes Chicago because its reputation for crime has consequently fastened itself upon the imagination of the United States as that of no other city has done. As he says, not because it is worse than or different from other cities of America, but, on the contrary, because it is so typical, and because it is so well known. Why have the primary basic guarantees of civilization broken down in Chicago? Why has that city, year after year, such a flood of violent and adventurous crime? The answer can be simple and straightforward: Because of the tremendous and elaborate organization—financial and political—for creating and attracting and protecting the criminal in Chicago.

And then with the searchlight of truth he lays bare the plague spots and points with unerring fingers to causes which make the sale of immoralities profitable to the criminal and scheming politician. Read his indictment.

The problem as Mr. Turner shows it to us is not a moral one alone and primarily, but rather a business or commercial proposition, and his investigation of Chicago proves conclusively that the waves of crime which have swept over it, as they have swept over other American cities during recent years, are the results of cold calculating commercial activity of the manufacturers and merchants of the elements of dissipation. He finds Chicago spends one hundred millions a year for alcoholic liquors, twenty millions for prostitution, fifteen millions a year for gambling—that "the dealers in dissipation in Chicago have a total revenue of at least one hundred and thirty-five millions a year—that is, receipts at least two-thirds as large as those of retail grocers and meat men."

ALABAMA AT THE CONVENTION.

Elsewhere Brother Crumpton gives a summary of what Alabama Baptists have done for missions and we rejoice with him that we all may go to Richmond feeling that we have taken no backward step in our benevolences during the past year. We congratulate Brother Crumpton on his great year's work, for aided by a loyal band of pastors, a consecrated band of faithful women, and scores of Godly laymen, he has pressed the cause in season and out through the Alabama Baptist, in the churches, at the associations, with tracts and by letters, always praying that the people's hearts would be opened to give so that the cords of the home and the foreign boards might be lengthened.

SAVE ENOUGH TO COME TO EAST LAKE.

Our Baptist preachers have had many conventions to attend this year. Quite a few were at the B. Y. P. U. convention at Montgomery, many were at the Sunday school convention here, more will go to the Southern Baptist Convention, and some will be present at the general convention of the Baptists of North America at the Jamestown exposition, but we hope the biggest crowd of all will be at the Encampment at East Lake June 5th to 15th.

"EVERY MAN PRESENT OR ACCOUNTED FOR."

That was the report of the orderly after calling the roll when on the march "during the war times."

It was almost that way in the campaign just closed for home and foreign missions. The brethren made a noble rally at the last. Some surprised me. Think of E. E. George and Prattville coming up with $900. How was it done? By the hardest kind of work by the pastor and a few of his people. Many of the large churches greatly disappointed me. Some others surprised me with small amounts. Secretary Gray was right when he said in last week's Alabama Baptist: "Many a pastor will ask too little from his church." That is a solemn fact. The pastors are timid about urging their people to heroic effort. Our people are getting rich and the pastors should not allow them to give at the same poor, dying rate.

But how the letters did roll in from the small churches! Probably two hundred and fifty letters and telegrams reached me the last day. More than $10,000 in one day! Mrs. Barrett, the treasurer of the Woman's Central Committee, who had been too sick for a long time to send in her money, made things bright in the office with a check for $2,773.10.

The Result.

For foreign missions.....$27,582
For home missions.....17,637

This with $341 for Bible work of the Sunday School Board makes Alabama entitled to 182 delegates, one more than last year.

We had no one to give us $10,000 in a special gift, as Brother Bush did last year. I had but little hope of reaching the figures of last year for foreign missions. All told, we have given just one hundred dollars more than last year. We gave $2,766 more for home missions and $2,623 less for foreign missions. If we compare church contributions, leaving out the large credit gift of last year, we are ahead of last year by $7,375 for foreign, with $2,766 for home, making a real advance in general contributions of $10,141.

Now let everybody sing the doxology and be ready to give $10,000 to State Missions in June.

I send list of delegates. Others will be appointed as they send in their names. Many who are named can not go. They will confer a favor by reporting that fact at once.

W. B. C.

A MINISTRY OF SACRIFICE.

No young man should enter the gospel ministry unless it be with the hearty purpose of submitting to such sacrifices as may be required of him in the prosecution of his office. Far too many young ministers have had much to say about the sacrifices which they made in devoting themselves to the work. They continue to prate about the prospects which they had to give up for the sake of the ministry. Some of them say that, had they engaged in secular business, they could have obtained a salary of not less than a thousand dollars a year, whereas they now receive only six hundred dollars, and perhaps considerably less. But it is not becoming in such ones to whine or blow about the sacrifices which they have made, and are making, for the sake of preaching. If they have not been called by God to the work, then they ought to go into such secular business as will bring to them the large salary which they say that their talents could command. The probability is that the minister who is constantly lamenting over the sacrifices which he imagines that he has made, in order to preach, was never commanded by God to enter the ministry. Moreover, the church soon gets exceedingly tired of hearing the pastor complaining about the denials which he endured for the sake of preaching. The true spirit is that of joyfully fulfilling one's ministry, utterly regardless of the self-denials and temporal losses which may be involved in the work. Paul regarded it as being a great privilege to preach the unsearchable riches of Christ. He never whined about what he had to give up for the sake of being a minister of Christ. He expected great trials, deprivations, and even piercing persecutions, as attendants of his ministry. He anticipated an unending series of sacrifices as an accompaniment of his ministerial office. And every true missionary to foreign lands went there with the expectation of making many sacrifices for the Lord's sake. Pastor, for whose sake are you making sacrifices? Are they made grudgingly?

DOING GOD'S WILL.

The Christian who is resolutely fixed in doing God's will, so far as it relates to himself, is certain to come to occasions when it will require his utmost energy to be true to what God demands of him. The stress of obligation is not particularly felt by the Christian when he is doing God's will in relation to such duties as prayer, the reading of the Bible, attending church services, and rendering kindly help to his fellows. The most trying times are when one, deeply conscious that it is God's will that he should pursue a certain course, is opposed and berated by his friends, and even by his relatives, on the plea that he is determined to gratify his own will. There is scarcely anything which is so hard for a sensitively conscientious Christian to endure as this is. It is related of a Christian man that, after most prayerful consideration, he was persuaded that it was God's will that he should continue to abide a while longer in the house which he and his family were occupying, although the situation was decidedly unpleasant to him and also to his family. It was against the man's own will, but, believing that it was God's will, he yielded to it. A relative of that man wrote to him, saying that he ought not to persist in having his own way in that matter, but should yield to another person's will and therefore leave the house. This man was doing the very thing which he was accused of not doing. He was obeying God's will to the very best of his ability, and contrary to his own choice, and yet he was charged with selfishly satisfying his own will. This is a representative case. It illustrates the fact that no loyal Christian can fully obey God's will without being charged by some people with perversely gratifying his own will. Nevertheless, let us be true to God's will.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT AND LOVE TO C. H. BURNS.

On April 15, 1907, at 5 o'clock a. m. the death angel visited the home of one of our highly esteemed friends and neighbors and quietly bore the soul of their only son to rest. C. H. Burns was born Nov. 22, 1870, and in August, 1894, embraced a hope in Christ under the ministry of Rev. J. R. Stodghill. From some unknown cause he never united with the church, but revered God's people and enjoyed going to church and mingling his well trained voice with the choir in beautiful hymns of praise. Charlie was reared in Lee county, Alabama, his home being at Roxana. He was a good man, a good neighbor, an honest, upright citizen.

In early life he farmed, but later gave it up for contracting, working in Alexander City, Brantley and Tallassee. In the summer of 1904 he traveled extensively in the west, finally locating at Drummond, Oklahoma, where he made many friends. After a stay of nearly two years on account of ill health he returned home, but never got well, and after great suffering, which he bore manfully, in spite of the faithful care of Dr. W. C. Hanson and Mr. Lafayette Johnson, a trained nurse, and assisted by loving neighbors, he died.

C. H. Burns was jovial, had a pleasant countenance and was the sunshine and light of his home and numbered his friends by his acquaintances, as was shown by his bier being covered with many beautiful flowers.

Why should we mourn departed friends

Or shrink at death's alarm?

'Tis but the voice of Jesus calling them to his arms, and we know, too, earth has no sorrows that heaven can not heal if we will carry our troubles to him.

May his goodness of character still permeate the neighborhood in which he lived and yield a hundred fold. He was a kind, loving and considerate son and brother. We send sympathy and condolence to his dear aged father, mother and only sister.

While Charlie is missed, and while we bid adieu to his mortal remains in sorrow, we are comforted to feel that we still have the examples of his upright life to help us along life's rugged highway, and in humility and sorrow we can but say: Oh, Lord, thy will be done.

ONE WHO LOVED HIM.

GOOD MEETING.

It has been my pleasure to aid Pastor Wiley F. Martin in a great meeting at Brantley, which began on the 21st and continued through the 29th. It was truly a good meeting and the church was spiritually built up. The whole town was helped and sinners were converted. Thirteen young men and young ladies united with the church and others were greatly interested. We sincerely pray that they may accept Christ before the next Sunday.

Brantley, on the Central of Georgia railway, is one of the cleanest and best little towns on the road. Her people are united and their hospitality is abundant.

I enjoyed working with the pastor very much. He is a man who loves the Lord's work and is rejoicing in personal blessings on his work for many years past.

At Luverne we are steadily and surely growing. Our people are very much embarrassed on account of the recent fires which destroyed a large portion of our town, but the old gives way to new and better buildings, and if no other disaster befalls our people we think it will not be long before the town will be rising from the ashes and putting on new garments.

Let Alabama be well represented at Richmond and let us pray that the Southern Baptist convention's influence shall be felt for God and humanity in every dark recess of the universe. Respectfully,

O. P. BENTLEY.

THE CITY OF CHICAGO

A STUDY OF THE GREAT IMMORALITIES

By GEORGE KIRBE TURNER
In McClure's for April

The Great Business of Dissipation.

The criminal is a savage, nothing more nor less. Civilization builds up painfully our definite, orderly rules of life—work, marriage, constant restraint of gross and violent impulses of appetite. The criminal simply discards these laws and slides back again along the way we came up—into license, idleness, thieving and violence. He merely lapses back into savagery. To understand the matter of crime in great cities, the first step is to measure the positive forces working continually to produce savagery there. These forces are today, as they always have been, greater than can easily be imagined.

The city—from scarlet Babylon to smoky Chicago—has always been the great market place of dissipation. In the jungle you would call this thing savagery. In the city there is a new side to it. The dweller of the city—true to the instincts of city life—has made it a financial transaction. He has found it a great source of gain, of easy money. There has grown up, therefore, a double motive in promoting it—the demand for the thing itself, and the stimulus of the great profit in providing it. You may call the sale of dissipation in the city, savagery by retail. Ethically considered, this thing is hideous beyond relief; socially considered, it is suicidal. But to be understood and followed through intelligently, it must first be considered neither ethically nor socially. Its methods and motives are the methods and motives of pure business and must be considered as such. There is no other way. That is what I must recognize in describing conditions in Chicago. I must talk cold business, as the saying goes. No emotion, no squeamishness, not even sympathy; simply a statement of fact.

$100,000,000 a Year for Alcoholic Liquor.

The sale of dissipation is not only a great business; it is among the few greatest businesses in Chicago. The leading branch of it—as you would naturally expect of the savage European stock from which we sprang—is the sale of alcoholic liquor. In the year 1906 the receipts in the retail liquor trade in Chicago were over $100,000,000; they were probably about $115,000,000. There was one retail interest greater than this. The sellers of food—grocers and meat men—had gross receipts of, perhaps, double these figures.

$20,000,000 a Year for Prostitution.

And now a short sketch of the second great business of dissipation—prostitution. The gross revenues from this business in Chicago in 1906 were $20,000,000—and probably more. There are at least

GOOD HOME MISSION DOCTRINE.

That from Dr. Ed Aked, the new pastor of the Fifth Avenue Baptist church, New York, commonly known as Rockefeller's church.

Dr. Aked is an Englishman. In his first sermon he very modestly said:

"It is not for me to lecture you about American conditions. It is for me to learn from you what they are. But the thoughtless onlooker from the old world who has ever read a page of history knows that in the rush to your shores of millions of the European people you are confronted by a problem such as no nation has ever yet had to solve since history began. I read the figures which set this problem visibly before the eyes of men and I am lost in amazement. Then as the facts behind the figures begin to take shape and substance my brain reels before that immensity.

"You know what races of the old world are pouring themselves into your land. You know what colonies of people, separated from yourselves by thought, by feeling, by tradition, by religion, by language, are established within your city boundaries and in all the great cities of the land. This is an ethnic question, race question. It is a question as to what kind of people the American people is to ten thousand professional prostitutes. Average annual receipts of two thousand dollars are brought in by these women. They do not themselves, however, have the benefit of this revenue. Much of it is never received by them. They are, in fact, exploited by large business interests.

There are four large interests which are concerned in the exploitation of prostitution. The first of these is the criminal hotels, the second is the houses of ill-fame, the third the cheap dance halls and saloons, and the fourth the men—largely Russian Jews—who deal in women for the trade. There are large indirect interests—such as, for instance, the leasing or subletting of tenements to the business, an operation which yields enormous percentages of profit—but these are the four principal direct interests in the trade.

The chastity of woman is at the foundation of Anglo-Saxon society. Our laws are based upon it, and the finest and most binding of our social relations. Nothing could be more menacing to a civilization than the sale of this as a commodity. To the average individual woman concerned, it means the expectation of death under ten years; to practically all the longer survivors a villainous and hideous after life. There is a great profit in this business, however. Chicago has it organized—from the supplying of young girls to the drugging of the older and less salable women out of existence—with all the nicety of modern industry. As in the stock yards, not one shred of flesh is wasted.

$15,000,000 a Year for Gambling.

The third large business of dissipation in Chicago become. It is a question whether the primal American stock is to be vitiated by the inter-permeation of an inferior race. It is something still nearer; it is a national question of political equilibrium, of the stability of order and the sovereignty of law.

"The quickest way, the most economical and the most permanent way of making these people good Americans and good patriots is to make them good Christians. To you and me who know, and to men and women like us, is entrusted this solemn responsibility and the splendid privilege. We have to change the mob into a commonwealth; the proletariat into a democracy. And these untrained, undisciplined, politically dangerous millions we have to win for Christ."

One of our Birmingham dailies attacked this part of the sermon and said some very uncomplimentary things about the new preacher. But American Christians had better study these words carefully. Our civilization is to undergo a severe test, and our Christianity as well. Will we be equal to it?

The English doctor is right! "THE QUICKEST WAY, THE MOST ECONOMICAL AND THE MOST PERMANENT WAY OF MAKING THESE PEOPLE GOOD AMERICANS AND GOOD PATRIOTS IS TO MAKE THEM GOOD CHRISTIANS."

God help us to realize this.

W. B. C.

is gambling. In an average year—1906, for example—its gross receipts can not be less than fifteen million dollars. Policy shops, the race track and open pool rooms and gambling houses have been quite generally closed out in Chicago during the past few years. The largest gambling interest is now the making of "handbooks" on the horse races. The gross receipts from this must be above twelve million dollars a year. During the latter part of 1906, when the business was running with comparative freedom, there were at least five hundred agents of "handbook" systems in Chicago. These systems are in the hands of a few favored gamblers or groups of gamblers, who have their arrangements so nicely made that they can divide the territory of the city between them; and no newcomer can enter the field without their consent. If he does, he is raided by the police. Besides these "handbook men" there is a floating pool room—the steamer "City of Traverse," owned by a large number of professional gamblers—which is supposed to leave South Chicago and run out of the city limits into Lake Michigan, although, as a matter of fact, it does not always do so.

Cocaine: A Highly Profitable Drug.

There is a minor business, financially speaking, which is closely connected with prostitution; this is the selling of cocaine. The average life of a woman in the business of prostitution ranges from five to ten years. She is, of course, continually drinking alcoholic stimulants. Later, however, these do not satisfy the women, and toward the end of their career they acquire some drug habit. Formerly they depended largely on morphine. During the past ten years, however, cocaine has come into general use. This drug is very attractive to persons who are unfortunate or despondent. It produces an extravagant feeling of buoyancy and well being. Although taken by many persons throughout the country, especially by negroes, it is now recognized generally to be the special drug of the prostitute. The chief markets for it in Chicago follow very closely the markets of prostitution. In its effects this is much quicker than any other drug habit, through its action upon the brain cells. After a time the taker is subject to various acute hallucinations—the most characteristic of which is the belief that worms are crawling just underneath the skin. The cocaine taker in this condition often slashes his skin with a knife in the attempt to get them out. Death is likely to come within two or three years from the unrestricted use of the drug, although some individuals survive for a long time. It is largely a question of temperament.

COMPETENT MEN WANTED.

There never was a time in the world's history when so many men were searching for competent help. Here in this country skilled workmen are at a premium. Heads of great corporations are on the look for sober, industrious, trained men to carry out their plans. You may be a college graduate, but unless you have prepared yourself definitely for some particular thing, you will have to sell your labor cheap. The day belongs to the specialist. The man who can do everything does nothing well, and is at a discount, but the man who knows his specialty better than any one else dictates his price.

England's wealth, according to the London Express, is increasing at the rate of $7,000,000 a week. That is less than one-seventh of the rate of the increase of wealth in the South. The increase in the true value of southern wealth in the past twelve months was $2,690,000,000, or about $7,300,000 for every day in the year, including Sundays and holidays. This ought to make Southern Baptists inaugurate a new era in giving. The cry from the foreign field is piteous. Willingham, the great hearted secretary, has done his best to call us to our duty in the matter. The books close on April 30th. What have you given?

COME TO NORFOLK.

By G. Herb Palin.

Are you coming to Norfolk? to take in the fair,
To hear the bands playing with gay martial air;
Where down on the Warpath all nations you'll see,
Have come here to visit the land of the free!

Are you coming to Norfolk? You'd better, my friend;

There'll be fun, there'll be mischief and joy without end;

The big guns will boom and Teddy will speak;
There'll be a hot time in Norfolk for many a long week.

Are you coming to Norfolk? the pride of the east,
Attractions are many; I'll mention the least:
There are warships and sailors and soldiers galore,
An army and navy and many things more.

Are you coming to Norfolk? the city of grit,
That hustles and pushes, never goes back a bit;
Where palaces stately rise up 'fore the strand
Bright marvels of beauty, o'er Virginia's gray sand.

Are you coming to Norfolk? where strange sights you'll see,

Will cause you to chuckle, to laugh-yell with glee;
Where every strange nation from every strange land
In the exposition's make-up has taken a hand.

Are you coming to Norfolk? Now, take my advice,
Don't hesitate, friends, or stop to think twice;
Every minute you spend here you'll wish it were two,

Just visit old Norfolk; not a chance to feel blue.

MOUNTAIN SCHOOLS.

A Bit of Mountain History.

A glimpse of mountain school history presents much of encouragement. Five years ago Rev. A. E. Brown, as assistant secretary of the North Carolina state board, entered upon the work for the special advantage of western North Carolina. At that time Mars Hill was the only mountain school in North Carolina, with one hundred and twenty-five to one hundred and fifty pupils, but two buildings and no dormitories. The Home Mission Board, with ever-increasing appreciation of the importance of this phase of missions, in 1904 appointed Rev. A. E. Brown superintendent of mountain school work. There are twenty-four mountain schools now aided by the home mission board. All these twenty-four schools, however, are not new. Perhaps the oldest is Mars Hill, N. C., which will soon round out its fiftieth year.

Mountain Timber.

These mountain people have indeed sturdy characters in keeping with the strength of the mountains. They are independent, kind, generous. They ask for no pity—a contented spirit is a continual feast, and among all these hardships there is no lack. From every quarter comes testimony to the joy with which deprivations are met so long as they lead to the desired end. Most of our buildings are unfinished and often not comfortable. We have, says a teacher, "in years ago, eaten breakfast with water freezing on the table, and not one word of complaint. Girls have cheerfully gathered in wood and chips from off the snow, built their own fires with this wet wood and have never even suggested that things should be made better. And as for study, they study with the same determination with which they make the means to come."

The Child in the Midst.

It was Jesus Christ who took a child and placed it in the midst of the disciples and called attention to its value and meaning to the world. "Suffer them to come, except ye become like them," was the burden of his work. It was a new note in the world, and since then childhood has been a growing problem, for we want to do the best things for the men and women of tomorrow. Just now the employment problem is most serious. The statement is made that there are nearly two millions of children under the age of fifteen at work in the United States; many of them working ten and twelve hours a day. The trouble seems to be greatest in the southern part of the country, where so many children work in factories. One dreads to think of the manhood and womanhood of these children in the coming tomorrow. Legislation is being attempted to remedy the evil, even to the point of federal law, since the states seem unable to cope with the difficulty. Without discussing the matter of such intervention, we may express the hope that something will be done to stop this slaughter of the innocents. The trouble is, as one leading paper puts it, that "the capital that wants the child labor has more power than the human beings that protest against it." We cherish the hope that the growing Christian sentiment will become stronger than the sordid ambitions of men. It is a fearful grist we are grinding.

When we lay the foundations of a new Christian sentiment we are bound to provide for school as well as church, for teaching as well as worship.

TRIP NOTES OF MRS. VESEY.

On Friday, April 19, according to previous arrangement, I left Birmingham for Selma to meet with the church societies. Was present in the meeting of the young ladies of the Second Baptist church a very impressive service was conducted by them. A previous engagement prevented my meeting with the young ladies of the First church, but was happy to meet their leader, Mrs. F. M. Stillwell, and receive encouraging reports of their work.

From there I went to Marion.

Miss Dawson, one of the estimable teachers of the Judson, conducted me to the college, where it seemed that at the very portals a breath of the sweet spirit of the girls of this institution met and welcomed me. The meeting of the Ann Hasseltine Society on Sunday afternoon was well attended. Several new missionary classes were organized with six or eight members in each, to meet once a week in regular study, and all combine once a month in general review of the work. The unselfishness of the girls of this magnificent college is manifested by their liberal contributions to the suffering Chinese—$90; also their support of five girls who are now in school through the agency of the "Student Aid Fund," created by the girls of the Judson, and it was with reluctance that I left such a hospitable place, where love for duty and devotion to the work of Christianity are so happily combined with the school life. My next place was Demopolis.

Because of the inclemency of the weather I could not meet with the ladies, but rested in the home of their excellent leader, Mrs. Kelley, and enjoyed talking the work over with her. The church there is unfortunate in not having but a few young ladies as members. From there I went to where I was entertained at the home of Mrs. F. B. Stallworth, a most enthusiastic worker, who held a very encouraging meeting with the young ladies in the afternoon. They were ready and willing for new work. Their donation for Miss Stovall was gratefully received. A most enjoyable social meeting was held, with the young men present, whom TWO they wished to enlist as honorary members.

York.

The hospitalities of the home of Miss Mamie Brown, a consecrated worker, was deeply appreciated. The afternoon meeting was well attended; however, there were only four young ladies ready to organize, but they were willing to take up the work and do what they could for the advancement of the work. Miss Lula McDonald was chosen leader.

Livingston.

On reaching this place I found Mrs. H. L. Mellen, first vice president of our Central Committee, awaiting me, and I was taken to the home of her mother, Mrs. Tartt. It is a privilege to be an inmate of this Christian home. By invitation of Miss Tutwiler, president of the Normal college there, I talked to the girls of this institution. It was quite a pleasure to look into so many fresh faces, bright promise for the future welfare of our ladies' work. Quite a number of the girls are Baptist, and we hope to hear from them, as well as the girls of Judson college, when they return to their homes. An afternoon meeting was held at the First Baptist church of all the ladies. Their work is being well carried on. Young ladies organized and hope to soon have a Sunbeam band.

In our meeting we had with us Miss Laura Brown, member of the South Side Young Woman's Auxiliary. Her testimony of their home work was very encouraging and inspiring. We regret to give her up to Texas, as I learn we shall have to do soon; but am sure God will use her for His glory wherever she may go.

TRAINED NURSE

Remarks About Nourishing Food.

"A physician's wife gave me a package of Grape-Nuts one day, with the remark that she was sure I would find the food very beneficial, both for my own use and for my patients. I was particularly attracted to the food, as at that time the weather was very hot and I appreciated the fact that Grape-Nuts requires no-cooking.

"The food was deliciously crisp, and most inviting to the appetite. After making use of it twice a day for three or four weeks, I discovered that it was a most wonderful invigorator. I used to suffer greatly from exhaustion, headaches and depression of spirits. My work had been very trying at times and indigestion had set in.

"Now I am always well and ready for any amount of work, have an abundance of active energy, cheerfulness and mental poise. I have proved to my entire satisfaction that this change has been brought about by my Grape-Nuts food.

"The fact that it is predigested is a very desirable feature. I have had many remarkable results in feeding Grape-Nuts to my patients, and I can not speak too highly of the food. My friends constantly comment on the change in my appearance. I have gained nine pounds since beginning the use of this food." "There's a reason." Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

We acknowledge with pleasure the receipt of the following invitation. Bro. Colley's many friends will be glad to know that he has won such a charming helpmeet: "Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hitchcock request your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Berta Abl, to Mr. James Oscar Colley, Thursday afternoon, May 9th, 1907, at 4 o'clock, Midway, Ala."

Dear Brother,
In answer to your request, I am all confidence that our Y. B. Texas has been of immense value to the people's movement, but we have been confined to the young people. It is every interest in the movement with it in Texas that will have them, and we will pour out our money into them. Emphasize young Baptists to the movement, to them, is of tremendous importance. You would know by thinking it. J. L. Ross

THE APOSTLE PAUL IN ROME.

An Order of Service Arranged by the Rev. James A. Worden, D. D., at the Request of the Chairman of the World's Sunday School Executive Committee, for use by Sunday Schools in all Lands on World's Sunday School Day, May 19, 1907, and on That Day by the World's Convention in Rome.

1. Singing: (Missionary Chant).
Ye Christian heralds, go proclaim
Salvation through Emmanuel's name.
To distant climes the tidings bear,
And plant the Rose of Sharon there.

God shield you with a wall of fire,
With flaming zeal your breasts inspire,
Bid raging winds their fury cease,
And hush the tempests into peace.

And when our labors all are o'er,
Then we shall meet to part no more,
Meet with the blood-bought throng to fall
And crown our Jesus Lord of all.

2. Prayer For Sunday schools throughout the world, and especially for the World's Sunday School Convention.

3. Responsive reading of scripture.
Paul's Purpose to Visit Rome.

Leader: Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

Leader: I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians, both to the wise and to the unwise.

People: So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

Leader: For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ; for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

People: For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

4. Singing: "The Son of God goes forth to war."
(All Saints New.)

The Son of God goes forth to war,
A kingly crown to gain;
His blood-red banner streams afar:
Who follows it, His train?
Who best can drink his cup of woe,
Triumphant over pain,
Who patient bears his cross below,
He follows in his train.

A glorious band, the chosen few
On whom the Spirit came,
Twelve valiant saints, their hope they knew,

And mocked the cross and flame:
They met the tyrant's brandished steel,
The lion's gory mane.
They bowed their necks the death to feel:
Who follows in their train?

A noble army—men and boys
The matron and the maid,
Around the Savior's throne rejoice,
In robes of light arrayed:
They climbed the steep ascent of heaven,
Through peril, toll and pain:
O God, to us may grace be given
To follow in their train.

5. Responsive reading of the scripture.

How Paul Came to Rome.
Leader: And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified concerning me at Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

People: And when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band.

Leader: And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia. (The Leader will then say): "After the tempest of two weeks' duration, the vessel was driven upon the Island of Malta, into what is now called St. Paul's Bay. The soldiers counseled the centurion to kill the prisoners lest any of them should escape."

People: But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land.

Leader: And the rest, some on boards and some on broken pieces of the ship, And so it came to pass, that they all escaped safe to land.

6. Singing (Herman):
"God moves—in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform;
He plants his footsteps in the sea,
And rides upon the storm."

"His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower."

"Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain;
God is his own interpreter,
And he will make it plain."

7. Responsive reading scripture.
Paul's Experiences in Rome.

Leader: And so we went toward Rome.

People: And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard; but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

Leader: And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him.

People: Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

Leader: I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel.

People: So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places.

Leader: And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

This is to certify that my name is H. M. Poss, and that I am 65 years old. That I used morphine 26 years and that I was using 30 grains of morphine daily when I went to the Purdy Sanitarium November 6, 1906. I remained there five weeks and three days, returning home December 15th cured. No words can describe my feelings of thankfulness and I write this without being asked to do so by Dr. Purdy or any one else. I want others to go there and be cured. I believe I was led by the Holy Spirit to Dr. Purdy, and I pray that others may receive this great blessing. I will gladly answer all letters.

Paul's Second Imprisonment and Death in Rome.

People: I charge thee therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom.

Leader: Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine.

People: What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

Leader: He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

People: Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Leader: As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

People: Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

Leader: For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come.

People: Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Leader: Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us.

People: Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

Leader: For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

People: For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

Leader: I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.

People: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord the righteous judge shall give me at that day, and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

8. Ten-minute address, the Martyrdom of St. Paul in Rome.

9. Prayer.

10. Singing (Sarum).

For all the saints who from their labors rest

Who thee by faith before the world confessed,

Thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
 Alleluia! Alleluia!

Thou wast their Rock, their Fortress, and their Might;

Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight;

Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.
 Alleluia! Alleluia!

O may Thy soldiers, faithful, true and bold,

Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,

And win with them the victor's crown of gold.
 Alleluia! Alleluia!

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
 Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
 Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
 Alleluia! Alleluia!

SALE OF REAL ESTATE UNDER MORTGAGE.

Cain v. Boon & Boon.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a mortgage executed by J. T. Boon and A. E. Boon to T. Y. Cain the 20th day of May, 1893, to secure the payment of the debt therein described, evidenced by 50 promissory notes, each payable in the sum of $15 with interest, falling due every 30 days thereafter, which mortgage was filed in the office of the probate judge of Jefferson county, Alabama, and recorded in Vol. 181, Record of Mortgages, pages 192 and 193, and default having been made within the term of said mortgage in not having paid the several promissory notes at maturity, and not complying with the terms and conditions of the said mortgage; now therefore I, Nancy J. Cain, as executrix of the last will of said T. Y. Cain, duly admitted to probate in said Jefferson county, in order to collect the debt secured by said mortgage, do hereby give notice that on at the hour of noon, I will, before the court house door of Jefferson county, state of Alabama, sell to the highest bidder for cash, by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage, that lot of land conveyed by said mortgage, described as follows: 80 1-2 feet off the east side of lot No. 11, in block No. 2, in Laird, Wise and Falls' addition to Avondale, and recorded in map book No. 2, on page 24, in the office of probate judge in Jefferson county, state of Alabama, fronting 40 1-2 feet on First avenue and the East Lake dummy line, running back of uniform width 110 feet to an alley, said lot being situated in section 28, township 17 and range 2, west, in Jefferson county, Alabama. Upon the payment of the purchase money, by virtue of the authority vested in me as such executrix, under said power of sale, I will execute a deed to the purchaser.

SATURDAY, THE FIRST DAY OF JUNE, IN THE YEAR, 1907,

NANCY J. CAIN, as Executrix.

RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by the Southside Baptist Church of Montgomery Upon the Resignation of Rev. Eldred M. Stewart as Pastor.

Montgomery, April 21, 1907.

To the Church in Conference:

Your committee appointed to present for your consideration resolutions relative to the resignation of our pastor would respectfully report as follows:

Whereas, Our beloved pastor, Rev. Eldred M. Stewart, has seen fit to tender his resignation, and the church, after prayerful consideration, has accepted the same, to take effect with the close of the present month, thereby dissolving the relation of pastor and people heretofore existing; and,

Whereas, This relationship has been, to us, fraught with unmixed pleasure and profit, he and his family having greatly endeared themselves to us, and the spiritual interests of the church and community having greatly prospered under his ministry; therefore,

Resolved 1. That we deeply regret any seeming necessity for the severance of these sacred bonds, and have consented thereto with great reluctance.

Resolved 2. That we heartily commend our brother and his household as being in their persons and their service well worthy of the highest esteem and affection.

Resolved 3. That in his pastoral and ministerial work Brother Stewart is eminently worthy of our full endorsement of his prayerful, patient, energetic, wise and vigilant service, whereby the true aim of church life is being attained in the development of our membership, and the conversion of sinners.

Resolved 4. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, also a copy be presented to Bro. Stewart and one sent to the Alabama Baptist for publication.

Respectfully submitted.

 GEO. W. ELLIS,
 R. M. HENDLEY,

C. OF GA. RAILWAY.

Those using the Central of Georgia railway to Richmond will have to purchase round trip tickets to Norfolk, Va., which are now on sale, on account of the Jamestown exposition. The lowest rate on sale by this line is $25.90 round trip, applying via Savannah and steamship to Norfolk, and includes meals and berth on steamship between Savannah and Norfolk, both directions. This ticket is limited sixty days.

I take it that the majority of those attending the convention at Richmond will also take in the Jamestown exposition; therefore it will be practically as cheap, if not cheaper, for the ministers to purchase round trip tickets to Norfolk, via our line, and then buy tickets from Norfolk to Richmond, and the rate between these two points is very low.

Steamers sail from Savannah to Norfolk every Tuesday and Saturday at 5 p. m., making the trip to Norfolk in forty hours, and arriving at that point at 10 o'clock a. m., passing directly by Old Point Comfort, Fortress Monroe, the exposition grounds and the fleet of battleships anchored at Hampton Roads. Altogether the trip via Savannah offers more pleasing features than any other, and as the cost will be as low as via any other route, I am satisfied that our line will secure a good share of the business.

ARE YOU GOING TO THE JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION? IF SO DO NOT FAIL TO SEE THE SHOE MANUFACTURING EXHIBIT.

The model Shoe Factory in the Southeast end of the Manufacturers' and Liberal Arts' Building, where shoes are being made by CRADDOCK-TERRY CO., showing just how they make these shoes in their immense factories in Lynchburg, is an exhibit which will interest you. After you see the material they use in these shoes and the way they are made, you will understand why, with three large factories equipped for making fifteen pairs of shoes every minute, they have no trouble in selling these shoes as fast as they can make them.

This Shoe Factory is being operated so that every one who visits the exposition can see for themselves just how CRADDOCK-TERRY CO. make their celebrated "Long Wear Shoes," and why they wear longer than other shoes. This, we think, is one of the most interesting and instructive exhibits on the grounds, and before you start on your trip to the exposition you want to make a memorandum to be sure and see the Shoe Manufacturing Exhibit in the Manufacturers' and Liberal Arts' Building.

Dr. Brown's Magic Liniment
This bottle for you—FREE
Those who seek relief from rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, headache, backache, lumbago, sprains, sore muscles, and other pains—Read carefully. We want to help you. We know the marvelous curative power of Dr. Brown's Magic Liniment; how wonderful it is; that when it is poured on a piece of cloth and pressed closely to the place where the pain exists the pain instantly vanishes. It is different from other liniments which need rubbing. You simply smother the cloth under your hands and the liniment penetrates to the source of the pain and instantly relieves it. It soothes the nerves, produces warmth, and starts up the circulation. We know it does all these things—and WE WANT YOU TO KNOW IT. Send for the sample bottle and try it. NOTICE TO NON-RESIDENTS.

The State of Alabama, Jefferson County, Probate Court, March 8, 1907.

This day came W. K. Martin and filed his application in writing and under oath, therewith producing and filing in this court an instrument in writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Robert Smith, deceased, and praying for such orders, decrees and proceedings as may be proper and requisite for the due probate and record of said instrument as such will, alleging therein the decedent left no widow and the only next of kin known to affiant is one sister, Miss Eliza Catherine Robb, over the age of twenty-one years and at present resides in Glasgow, Scotland, of the Kingdom of Great Britain. And whereas the 3rd of May, 1901, has been set as a day for hearing testimony in proof of said instrument as such will,

It is therefore ordered that notice of the filing of said application and of the day set for hearing same be given by publication once a week for three consecutive weeks in the Alabama Baptist, a newspaper published in this county, notifying all persons in interest to appear and contest said application if they think proper so to do.

S. E. GREENE,
Judge of Probate.

CANCER OF THE BREAST CURED
How Mrs. Rodman's Life was Saved
BURLINGTON, N. J., Nov. 11, '06.
Dr. L. T. LEACH, Indianapolis, Ind.
Dear Doctor:—I write to testify to the curative power of CANCEROL for the treatment of malignant disease. I was afflicted with two cancers of the right breast, and after a persistent and stubborn fight, can truthfully say that both cancers are cured. My breasts are entirely healed up and my general health is good. Let me thank you for the interest you have taken in me. Though I cannot express my feelings in words, my warmest sentiment is more than kind towards you. I thank the Good Lord for giving you the knowledge to make such a wonderful remedy.
"CANCEROL has proved its merits in the treatment of cancer. It is not in an experimental stage. Records of unnumbered cures of cancer in nearly every part of the body are contained in Dr. Leach's new 50 page book. This book also tells the cause of cancer and instructs in the care of the patient; tells what to do in case of bleeding, pain, odor, etc. A valuable guide in the treatment of any case. A copy of this valuable BOOK FREE TO THOSE INTERESTED. Address, Dr. L. T. LEACH, Dept. 101, INDIANAPOLIS, IND."

GRIP-IT QUICK!
does not make you sick or otherwise inconvenience you; cures the worst cold
GRIP-IT cures ordinary colds in 8 hours; the worst colds in from 10 to 15 hours. GRIP-IT grips the gripper. Contains neither opiates nor narcotics. It simply cures. Sold on guarantee. Try it.
Don't let the Grip Devil grasp you, with GRIP-IT at only 25 cts. a box, in each box enough to cure three colds. If, however, you have neglected your colds until catarrh has attacked you, you have a malady worse than a cancer; and you need PORTER'S CA-TARRH-O.
The sufferer, in the first stages of catarrh, can secure a half state of cleanliness by a frequent use of his handkerchief; but that dreadful "dropping down" into the throat finally sets in, and the victim is absolutely helpless; for he is often forced to swallow the same material as that which is discharged from the nose. These offensive mucous discharges are quickly relieved by PORTER'S CA-TARRH-O.
A single box will cure all discharges, either outward through the nose or inward into the throat. Promptly relieves all sneezing, Hay Fever, and colds in the head. Contains no opiates or narcotics; it is simply antiseptic and curative. Price 50 cts.; send stamps if not kept by your dealer. PORTER MEDICINE CO., Paris, Tenn.

MASSEY BUSINESS COLLEGE
Summer Rates
Begin May 1ST
$37.50 Pays for an Unlimited (Life) Scholarship
$37.50 pays for an unlimited (life scholarship) in either the complete commercial or shorthand departments.
By entering in May, therefore, pupils will save from $12.50 to $20.00 on their tuition; furthermore, they will graduate this fall, at the time when it is easiest to obtain employment.
Pupils not graduating this summer may continue this fall and winter, either in the day or night sessions, without additional cost.
While most business colleges during the summer months have only a short session each day (about half the number of hours they usually have) at the Massey Business College the same time exactly is devoted to the pupils in the summer that is given to them during the winter months.
The college building was erected by President Massey especially for the school, and the halls and rooms are large, well lighted and ventilated. Electric fans keep the school rooms pleasant and agreeable even during the warm weather.
Individual instruction and personal attention are given to every pupil. Pupils will be placed in remunerative positions immediately upon graduation, or the money paid refunded.
Write or telephone, or still better, call to see us in person.
