The Appeal to Ambition.

The ministry appeals to the unselfish in us as does no other calling, but at the same time it appeals to the heroic in us. Christ does not want the effeminate young man-the society exquisite, who is afraid to soil his hands, the indolent in mind or body, the self-indulgent and ease-loving, in His ministry. He wants stalwart men, with a purpose, who are willing to do and dare for truth and for humanity. An ambitious man has no place in the ministry. But here ambition must be holy as well as high. The higher the better, if it is holy, and in the ministry the hallowed, earthly, sensual, devilish,

The Opportunity of the Ministry.

The opportunity of the ministry is so vast and inspiring that it is difficult to state it. Perhaps we may set it forth by an analogy or comparison. Just is to reconstruct the world in His own image; so on the spiritual side it is to reconstruct the world in God's image. The man in business erects a building to promote human comfort, or he constructs a develops a mine to increase the mineral wealth of that their occupation was extra hazardous. the world. The young man in ousiness goes sometimes as a missionary of commerce to open new lines of trade in China or South America or Africa. He dreams of the great things that are to be in the commercial development of the world It is not lea to take this step. This movement which has sleep. A man who found the reason says: difficult to understand why these enterprises appeal been going on for two decades now shows a list day. The life of enterprise and of danger and that which holds out promise of financial reward will attract many. It appeals to the imagination.

Now contrast this with the moral and spiritual enterprise of Christianity. A moral kingdom is ceptibly in deed, and yet certainly. There is a vast and a half millions, and the tendency is constantly indigestion, heartburn and palpitation of the heart. army of men, ministers who identify themselves with growing towards the complete exclusion of all who constipation, irregularity of the kidneys, etc. this moral kingdom. #### STUDY THE BIBLE.

Neglect the reverent study of Scripture is the great fault of our times. Christian people will attend conventions, plunge into all kinds of Christian work, read many good books about the Bible and Christian living; but they give the Bible itself the most cursory and superficial heed. And it is tor this reason that the Bible does not speak to them.

If you would know all the wondrous beauty of a forest glade ,you must not be satisfied with passing through it with hasty foot, and in company with a troop of merry children, whose ringing laughter carries panic to the hearts of thousands of shy living things that, with trembling hearts, keep still in nole, and brake and nest.

No: you must go alone, and sit quietly down on the log of some felled tree, and wait. Then the mystery of beauty will begin to unfold itself-the fairy bowers, the mossy glens, the interlacing boughs. Presently a note will sound from yonder bough, as a signal for the outburst of many sweet-voiced choristers, and the woodlands will ring with the music of the birds; whilst the squirrel runs up some neighboring tree, and the rabbits come out to feed, and the young foxes play about their holes. All this is hidden from those who can not wait.

So there are mysteries of glory and beauty in Scripture, hidden from the wise and prudent, but revealed to babes. There is no book that will repay time spent over its pages as the Word of God.

A neglected Bible means a starved and strengthless spirit; a comfortless heart; a barren life; a grieved Holy Ghost. If the people, who are now perpetually running acout to meetings for crumbs or help and comfort, would only stay at home and search their Bibles, there would be more happiness in the church, and more blessing in the worst. It is very prosiac counsel, but it is true.-F. B. Meyer.

TWO IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Brother B. W. Spilman retires from the Field Secretaryship of the Sunday School Board and will undertake another work of great magnitude to which from a sense of duty he sets his heart. He has been with the Board for six years and has served not only in faithfulness but with distinguished ability. He has won for himself a great place in the hearts of the denomination, and has given the Sunday chool cause an exalted place in the thinking of our people. He is greatly honored and loved by the Board, both for his own sake and for the great work he has done. We bid him Godspeed in his new position, and have asked him to serve us as he may have opportunity, and to return to the work of the Board as soon as he may find it in his power to do

Rev. Hight C. Moore, at present the Sunday School Secretary under the State Board of North Carolina, has accepted the Field Secretaryship of the Sunday School Board. #### Religious Life.

I wish to express my gratitude to the pastors and friends throughout the State who sent in the names of prospective students and who have in many ways helped to secure a large attendance for the coming session. In behalf of all the members of the faculty I wish to say that it is our purpose to maintain the highest standards of past years and we trust under the blessing of God that the coming session will be the best from every standpoint in the history of the Judson. A Judson girl of last year writes: "We are hoping and planning to make this the best year for Christ's cause in the history of the Judson." This represents the spirit of our students and I wish to ask the prayers of all friends of the institution that this desire of our girls may be realized.

A PAGE OF MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS

Please announce that the North River Association will convene with Mt. Joy church at Alta Station on the G. P. railroad, about 50 miles west of Birmingham on September 4th. Everybody invited.—G. D. O'Rear.

We had a good revival from the Lord at Spring Hill. Twenty accessions to the church, 16 of them for baptism, three by letter, one by restoration. God bless the Baptist cause in Alabama.—Junius W. Jones.

We are doing all in our power to get the minutes of the state convention out by September 1st. Let the brethren remember that the entire minute, except the list of preachers and statistical tables, has to be "set up" after the convention adjourns.—M. M. Wood, Secretary.

Our meetings at Forest Springs resulted in 28 accessions—18 by baptism. Bro. P. M. Jones as usual captured his hearers and greatly stirred the church. I baptized two more on Sunday at Nicholsville and two more await the ordinance, making 30 in all added to this church.—J. Mercer Green.

We have just closed a series of meetings at Liberty. Bro. R. C. Granberry, of Tuskegee, did most of the preaching, and did it well. His sermons were strong and forceful. We are glad to have him in our association. Bro. H. W. Garling was with us and preached two good sermons at the oeginning of the meeting. There were eight additions to the church.—J. P. Hunter.

We have just closed a fine meeting in Cane, which was a marked success. Rev. J. R. Curry, wao is leader of the Baptist flock in Atmore, did the preaching. He did some earnest and pointed preaching. He is a graduate of Howard and the seminary, which gives him an equipment equal to any occasion. The last night of the meeting was the climax. Ten precious souls put on the Master in baptism. Three by letter and two by statement, which made a total of fifteen.—B. F. Brooks.

We have just closed a great revival at Woodstock Baptist church, Bibb county, Alabama. Had ten additions to the church-six by letter and four by baptism. The church was strengthened and God's name glorified. Rev. J. V. Dickinson, of Tuscaloosa, who is in the evangelistic work, did the preaching. Bro. Dickinson is one of our strongest gospel preachers. He preaches with power and demonstration. We all learned to love this great Christian worker during the nine days he was with us in the meeting. As an evangelist we feel sure that he is the right man in the right place. May God bless him in his labors.-M. T. Branham, Pastor.

I suppose you knew that wife and I were recently appointed missionaries to China and will start from here on the 28th inst., sailing from Seattle, Wash., on Sept. 10th. Of course we want your good paper to continue to come to us, and please send it, after this week, to me at Pingtu, China, via Chefoo.—T. O. Hearn, Albertville, Ala.

(We pray God's blessing upon the work on the foreign field and hope that they will have a comfortable trip.)

I began a meeting at Beulah church on Saturday before the third Sunday in August and continued five days, resulting in the best revival that the church had had in several years and thirteen accessions by experience and baptism. Among these were several heads of families. I organized this church in my younger days and it is gratifying to me to see and enjoy this gracious outpouring of God's Holy Spirit. I falled to get any help after inviting Brother Elliott, Brother Dar din and Brother Thomas, but God gave me strength to run the meeting myself. God bless you and the dear old paper.-J. M. Johnson.

Mt. Moriah Baptist church, Pike county, Alabama, has decided to celebrate its thirty-ninth anniversary on the third Sunday in September next and Bro. J. B. Huckabee was one of the presbytery that helped to constitute the church and we have decided to invite him to be with us on that day and not knowing his whereabouts. if he is living, ask you if you can give us any information about him. The last we knew of him he was living in north Alabama. Will you please inform me if you know of his whereabouts and oblige, etc.-C. N. Mallett, Curry, Ala.

We are glad to know that Dr. R. J. Willingham and wife are to start about the 8th of September for a trip to foreign mission fields. They first go to Japan and then to China, and to Italy. We think the visit will greatly benefit our missions, and certainly it will benefit the doctor and his good wife. or years Bro. Willingham has devoted himself to the interests of our foreign missions. We wish them a delightful trip and a safe return and great invigoration.—Exchange.

MARRIED,

At Mr. T. G. Williams', near Thorsby, the home of the bride, Miss Naomi Williams and the Rev. W. M. Olive were married August 6, 1907, the writer officiating. Mr. Olive is a Baptist preacher and a young man of promise. He is now giving his entire time to two churches in the Birmingham district. Miss Williams is a member of New Salem Baptist church and a good worker in the church and Sunday school, and now that she will move away will be greatly missed, but she goes to fill a higher callingthat of a preacher's wife-and great is the responsibility that comes to her, and we believe that she will come up to the full measure. Her former pastor, S. M. ADAMS.

A WONDERFUL REVIVAL.

Dear Baptist:

The writer was present at a revival meeting recently at Panola church, Crenshaw county, Ala., Pro. T. E. Morkan, pastor.

Our young brother, S. W.: Andress of Fort Deposit, did the preaching. Blessed with the presence and power of the Holy Spirit, he preached Christ crucified to immense congregations, reviving the church and bringing many souls into His kingdom on earth. Results: 39 accessions, 37 by baptism.

An incident worthy of special note was that of Sister Rebecca Bozeman, 60 years old, and for years an invalid and a subject of the prayers of pastor and church. During her filness she vowed that if she got well enough she would unite with the church at this meeting. Through God's mercy she received strength enough to come and thus paid her yows before all the congregation." The Spirit of the Living God broods over church and community.

To Him who loved us and redeemed us be all the glory and honor.

TWO GOOD MEETINGS.

I have just closed two good revival meetings, one at Brownsboro and the other at the Price Church.

Rro. R. S. Gavin did the preaching in both meetings. His sermons were logical and spiritual and the Lord used them to the conviction and conversion of sinners. Bro. Gavin is one of our best preachers. We don't wonder when we speak of him to the Huntsville saints that they smile and say, "Yes, we have the best preacher in the country."

I baptized yesterday at Brownsboro and will baptize the first Sunday in September at the Rice Church.

I have everything on my field in good shape.

We have the new church at Brownsboro almost complete. Our church at Gurley is in good condition.

May God bless Bro. Barnett and all the readers of the Alabama Baptist. G. W. LOVELL. FROM WILCOX.

I often wonder why the brethren and sisters over the State don't send in more news items. I am surprised at myself for not doing better.

Crop conditions are good. Recent rains have injured them some but the outlook is good. The hay crop is fine.

The new pastors, J. M. Gilmore at Pineapple, and A. J. Gross at Camden are well in harness and doing fine work. Their people have rallied to them and will make a good report at the Association September 11.

My field, Ackerville, Allenton and Furman, has treated me royally and each belongs to the regulars as Bro. Crumpton can testify. At the former we have just had a gracious refreshing. Ten were baptized, one received by letter and brotherly love reigns supreme. Bro. Blackwelder was with us and his speech and preaching was "in demonstration of the Spirit and of power." He is to be with us at Furman September I to 6.

Mrs. D. A. Watson, vice-president of the Pine Barren, is arranging for a meeting of our women at the appproaching session, and the prospects now are that it will be a fine meeting.

The Alienton church, "not many but much," will hold their meeting beginning August 24. This noble little band of God's servants is ahead with all of her collections, and in fine shape.

M. M. WOOD.

FROM BRO. STODGHILL.

Albertville, Ala.

I spent last week with Bro. Griffin at Duke in a very delightful meeting. It was a pleasure to work with so sweet-spirited a prother as is he.
Some excellent people worship at this church. They are blessed with the old-time spirit of hespitality. It was delightful to sit around their tables and to worship around their family altars. The church seemed to be in sweet unity and the spirit of the Lord descended in great power.

This week I have been with Bro. Nash at West Gadsden. It was a sore trial to leave this meeting so soon with such flattering prospects for a great meeting. Bro. Nash is doing a fine work in this field and his people are greatly attached to him. The meeting gave promise of abundant fruitage when it became necessary for me to leave.

Tomorrow evening our church is to give a farewell service to Dr. T. O. Hearn and wife, who leave next week for China, where they go under appointment of the Foreign Board as medical missionaries.

The Marshall Association is to meet with our church at Albertville in October. We will expect the editor to pay us a visit at that time. Fraternally, J. R. Stodghill.

Almost every writer upon American politics asserts peal of any law through the law-making body, but that democracy falls down when it is applied to the no man has the right to demand of an executive of government of large cities. The conditions do not justify quite such indiscriminate assertion. American cities some of them, possibly most of themare not so well ogverned as our towns and rural districts. Municipal management in New York, Boston and Chicago does not compare in many respects with that of Glasgow, Paris and Berlin. Nevertheless, civic ideals are gradually rising. New York has made numerous notable improvements. Chicago, once gang ruled, is now under fair way to a remarkable reform of its municipal affairs. If once the saloon power with its accompaniments of crime and lowering of conscience could be eliminated there would be ground for roseate hope. Kansas City, Kas., a city of 100,000 inhabitants, has just completed a prodigious task in cleansing itself, of crime-breeders, the remarkable success of which ought to be shining example to other cities and city officials. One year ago the county in which Kansas City is situated was disgraced by 256 saloons, 200 gambling houses and sixty houses of social evil. Today it has none. It has had none for over ten months. It hopes never again to be injured by gin-mill, poolroom or brothel. The splendid results of this disinfection of the city are seen in a remarkable report made by Assistant Attorney-General C. W. Trickett to

THE AUDACITY OF THE BAPTIST POSITION. (By Edward B. Pollard, in Baptist Commonwealth.)

The Baptists make very bold when they announce their platform. It may be we do not always realize how daring some of our positions are.

First, we say to the infant, "Go on from your unconscious to your self-conscious, self-directing life nothing shall be done to prejudice your own judgments nor hamper your own religious choices of later life." Thus we let the child go, trusting to catch it again when it reaches the age of accountability. And we are not prepared to recede from the position which gives soul-freedom to every being who comes into the world. But it is well for us to remember that the compliment to this doctrine is religious training, which shall be so true and vital that when the time does come for choosing the choice will be for Christ and opedience to His commands.

Baptists have boldly struck out to find the individual. All their doctrines and polity are intensely individualistic. They have refused to use the net, and have taken the hook for their instrument as fishers of men. This is daring, but slow: Individual rights are sensitively guarded; local church authority is zealously emphasized, and all the advantage of large ecclesiastic machinery is audaclously discarded. There seems little prospect of the denomination receding from this position. But it is well to remember that there is to this a complimentary doctrine. It is voluntary co-operation in doing the larger work of the Lord. Without this our individualism cannot save us but may only destroy.

It was a very daring stroke when our den tional forefathers deliberately struck down State aid to religious propogandism. The State had been for more than twelve centuries the most important support of the Christian faith. The Baptists went deliberately to work to undermine this whole fabric; throwing the support of religion entirely upon voluntary offerings of those who believe in it. This was a daring stroke. The wheel win never turn back ward. But there is an important corollary to this doctrine. Baptists should be the most willing and liberal contributors to the spread of the gospel, for it was they who dared strike down an arm of help which they conceived to be both a hindrance and menace to the true faith of Jesus Christ.

It is also a very daring experiment to put the government of the Lord's house in the hands of alljoints from eight to eighty-eight children required ter's business to the best, and have an ecclesiastical

As a result I had the happiness of baptizing fifteen converts in 'our new baptistry and receiving five by letter.

In June we had an eight days' meeting at York with that prince of preachers, J. V. Dickinson, of Tuscaloosa, to do the preaching.

There were no additions at York, but the influence of Bro Dickinson's preaching abides and I have received some by letter since the meeting.

I have resigned at Cuba and York and accepted work at Henderson, Tex., for full time. In going away from the dear old state I go with a heart full of love for the brethren and the work at home and will read with interest of all your victories for our King. No man ever served better people than the Cuba and York churches contain, and happy will be the man who is so fortunate as to become their under shepherd. It makes the tear drops start to think of leaving them, but God's hand seems to be directing, and so I follow on. Love fer all the brethren.

The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago attains its majority at its forthcoming annual meeting, September 10th, an occasion which will be marked by an address by Prof. Jas. Orr, D. D. of Glasgow, and the graduation of thirty-one students, who will have completed the full two years' course; several of whom are going to the Foreign field.

The new two years' cycle of studies begins at this date also making it a specially favorable time for intending students to enter. Both the Bible and Music courses are strengthened this year by the addition to the staff of Rev. Howard W. Pope, formerly connected with the Northfield Extension, who will deal with topics of practical Christian work; and Prof. E O. Sellers, recently with Dr. Eaton, of Cleveland, who comes to assist Dr. Towner in the teaching of Harmony and other branches of musical culture. Prof. Orr will open the fall term with a series of lectures on Apologetics; Dr. James M. Gray on the text of the Pentateuch; and Dr. William Evans on Bible Doctrine.

These privileges are entirely free. Catalogues and other literature can be had by addressing A. P. Fitt, Secretary, 80 Institute Place.

It has long been known to physicians, chemists and food experts that the starchy portion of entire wheat and barley flours is transformed into a true and very choice sugar, by the act of intestinal digestion in the human body. This sugar is identical with, and is known as grape sugar, and it is in condition for immediate transformation into blood and the necessary structure from which the delicate nerve centers are built up.

AN ACUTE SITUATION-INTEGRITY OF OUR COURTS INVOLVED

The litigation over the regulation of railroads in cause they have mutual confidence in each other's sovereignty of a state in the execution of its own interest to every good citizen. Not only are points of law involved, but also questions of civic ethics constructive statesmanship, and social weal; so that every public functionary is vitally and morally interested in the situation. The Alabama Baptist stands for Christian citizenship, and from this point of view has something to say in the solution of the problems involved. It is privileged to say to the learned men who sit upon the bench, if your honors please, 'you could have no power except it be given you of God;" and the threatening of arbitrary use of the power of "contempt" is thus rebuked by the Lord himself before the District Judge of Judea in the long ago, and is equally pertinent to the judictary of our own day. #### DANIEL WEBSTER'S ESTIMATE OF THE BIBLE.

Daniel Webster placed the highest value on the Bible. Concerning it he once said: "If we abide by the principles taught in the Bible, our country will go on prospering, but if we and our posterity neglect its instructions and authority, no man can tell how sudden a catastrophe may overwhelm us and bury all our glory in profound obscurity." Again he says: "I have read it through many times. I now make a practice of going through it once a year. It is a book of all others for lawyers and divines, and I pity the man who can not find in it a rich supply of thought and rules for conduct. From the time at my mother's feet or on my father's knee I first learned to lisp verses from the sacred writings, they have been my daily and vigilant contemplation. If there be anything in my style or thought to be commended, the credit is due to my kind parents for instilling into my mind an early love of the Scriptures."

The South is Going Dry

Lay the jest about the julep in the camphor balls at last, For the miracle has happened and the olden days are past; That which makes Milwaukee thirsty doesn't foam in Tenness And the lid in old Missouri is as tight-locked as can be-Oh, the comic paper colonel and his comrades well may sigh, For the mint is waving gayly, but the south is going dry.

By the stillside on the hillside in Kentucky all is still, For the only damp refreshment must be dipped up from the rill; No'th Ca'lina's stately ruler gives his soda glass a shove, And discusses local option with the South Ca'lina Gov., It is useless at the fountain to be winkful of the eye, For the cocktail glass is dusty and the south is going dry.

It is water, water, everywhere, and not a drop to drink; We no longer hear the music of the mellow crystal clink, When the colonel and the major and the gen'l and the jedge Meet to have a little nip to give their appetites an edge, For the eggnogg now is noggless and the rye has gone awry, And the punch bowl holds carnations, and the South is going dry.

All the nightcaps now have tassels and are worn upon the head-Not the nightcaps that were taken when nobody went to bed; And the breeze above the bluegrass is as solemn as is death, For it bears no pungent clove twang on its odorific breath. And each man can walk a chalk line when the stars are in the sky.

For the fizz glass now is fizzless, and the south is going dry.

Lay the jest about the julep 'neath the chestnut tree at last, For there's but one kind of moonshine and the olden days are past:

Now the water wagon rumbles through the southland on its trip. And it helps no one to drop off to pick up the driver's whip, For the mint beds make a pasture and the corkscrew hangeth

All is still along the stillside, and the south is going dry. -Chicago Post.

THE COUNTY LOCAL OPTION BILL.

Valuable Amendment Passed at Recess Session-Any County With Old Dispensary May Vote at Once.

The Merritt bill repealing the two years' exemption to old dispensaries has passed both branches of the legislature and is ready for the governor's signature.

The friends of the liquor traffic and some of its agents were especially active in the house in their effort to prevent the passage of this repealing measure. Much credit is due Representative McMillan, of Wilcox county, for his able leadership in this fight, inasmuch as "Senator" Weiss, the head of the liquor lobby, had made a strong appeal to many of the house members to save them this much territory for at least two years, and some wavered under his strong personal plea.

Under Mr. McMillan's leadership with the able assistance of other temperance leaders the bill was carried by a decisive majority, and an attempt to reconsider and defeat the measure was prevented by an increased majority.-Alabama Citizen.

THE LITTLE BALL.

blouses and pretty hair ribbons that old Mr. Sun, looking in at the window, must have thought at first that he had found a garden full of pretty flowers. But the children's faces were brighter than anything else, and showed a great deal of excitement. Little heads bobbed forward and twisted and turned so that bright eyes could follow a tiny ball that was being passed from one to another of the children while they sang:

> "Little ball, pass along Slyly on your way; While we sing a merry song, You must never stay: Till, at last the song is done Then we'll try to find In what pair of little hands You've been left behind."

Miss Betty smiled as she saw how eagerly Dottie reached for it when it came to her. But the little girl was very slow to pass it on, and Miss Betty sighed as she thought, "I hope Dottie isn't growing selfish."

One little girl standing in the ring had her eyes tightly closed all this time, but when the music stopped they popped open as quick as could be, and she began to look all around the circle to see which little hands were holding the ball.

All little folks who have been to kindergarten know how she found it.

Miss Betty had seen Dottfe reach for it just as the children had finished the song, then quick as a flash she hid it away under Madge's dimpled fingers.

"The dear child," thought Miss Betty; "she wanted it for Madge, not for herself."

When the little girl who was hunting for the ball had looked almost all the way around the ring, Miss Betty played very softly; but when she came in front of little Madge the music sud denly grew very loud indeed, and she and Madge both laughed with glee and all the children clapped their hands, and the ball was found in wee Madge's lap and Dottle was the happiest of all.

"Isn't it nice to have company to come?" she said when it was time to go home.

"Yes, dear," answered Miss Betty; "but the reason we enjoyed it so much was because we helped the company to have a good time."-Evangelical Messenger.

A GREAT MEETING AT OPP, ALA.

Dr. W. D. Huobard assisted me in a meeting August 8 to 15. It was in many respects the greatest meeting I ever witnessed. Never before have I seen a town so stirred. The truth did not return void. This man of God declared the whole truth fearlessly. he showed men their condition in the light of God's word, and many, at once, looked to Christ and found peace, Forty-five were added to the church and thirty-four of these came for baptism. Most of these were young men, and as they came into the church they went to work. They did not mind going after their friends and bringing them to Jesus. It was the old way of doing it. Before they were baptized they organized a prayer meeting for the new converts.

Dr. Hubbard is a good man in a meeting. He has no cheap-trap method. He knows the truth and understands men. I most heartily recommend him.

We showed our appreciation of him and his services by paying him $125.

The church was greatly strengthened. There is a bright future before this people. We raised money to repaint the church, put in electric lights, etc.

I have just closed my first year's work with Elba and Opp, Ala. Each church has paid three times as much for missions as they paid the previous year. One hundred and fifty members have been received during the year. This is a great country and the people are making rapid progress. God is blessing His people.

Yours fraternally, O. C. BARKLEY. Elba, Ala,

FROM SPRING HILL CHURCH.

We have just closed a great revival at Spring Hill church, Pike county, Ala. The meeting began on Saturday before the second Sunday in August and continued seven days. The church was strongthened and God's name glorified. The meeting was conducted Saturday by Rev. J. Johnson, ably assisted by Rev. W. H. Tew. Sunday morning Rev. J. W. Jones, from Newton, arrived, filled with the Holy Spirit and enthusiasm; preached the 11 o'clock sermon, urging the brethren to love each other, pray more and give of our means for various religious causes, which, of course was our whole duty, but at that time was not pleasing to us. After serious prayerful consideration, we yielded. Bro. Jones fought a good fight and gained the victory for God and His cause, and such a meeting has never been realized at this place by us. There were 23 added to the church; sixteen by baptism, six by letter and one under watch care of the church. We can honestly say that our homes, our community and our church have been made better by having Bro. Jones with us.

There is, and ever will be, a warm place in the hearts of both Methodists and Baptists for Bro. Jones for his untiring energies here. Brethren pray for us that the spirit of giving may continue with us.

A liberal contribution was raised for the ministry and missions.

THAT DROWSY FEELING

Il Prevents You From Doing Your Work and is Really a Sign of Disease.

CAUSED BY POISONS

Don't you ever feel drowsy and sleepy, unable to think or work?

You have slept pretty well. You don't feel sick. Just drowsy. What's the cause of it? Your liver.

A lazy liver leaves in your system all sorts of lingering poisons, the product of an over-supply of bile, which a properly working liver would have filtered out.

These poisons act like opiates on your nerves, making you drowsy, sleepy and torpid, as if overcome with some strong drug, when you ought to be feeling bright, alert and wide-awake.

And that's not all.

When you are feeling liver-drowsy like this, it is a sign that your system is in condition to "catch" some disease.

That is, it has lost its vitality and power of resistance to disease germs.

The clogged liver cannot keep off the intruder as it should.

It is like a sentinel, asleep at its post, saving the camp open to the attacks of What shall you do?

Wake up your drowsy liver with a good dose of Thedford's Black-Draught (liver medicine).

Purify your system of the bile points that have drugged it.

Put yourself in position to resist the attacks of disease. - Cleanse your blood, brighten your eyes, purify your complexion and become your strong healthy self again.

The old, reliable, vegetable, liver medicine, Thedford's Black-Draught, success ful for over 60 years, is what you should use, because of its direct action upon your sick liver.

It contains no minerals or other dangerous ingredients, but is a gentle, natural, vegetable remedy, regulating the tiver and relieving or curing such symptoms as drowsiness, headache, bilious sick headache, bilious stomach, bitter taste in the mouth, constipation, bad blood, pimples, sallow complexion, chills and fever, malaria, nervous irritability,

Thousands have written to tell of the wonderful relief afforded by Thedford's Black-Draught, in just such cases.

It is for sale by all druggists, in 25cent and $1 packages. Try it.

Midland City, Dale county.- I went to Enon Church, Dale county, July 13 and commenced a meeting. Brother W. B. Moritz came on Sunday without invitation, except, as he says, impressed by the Holy, and we feel like he was directed by the Holy Spirit. Bro. Moritz is colporter of the Haw Ridge Association. He preached with power. This Church has been praying for the Lord to bless them for some time. There was good interest from the peginning. The meeting ran seven days, during which time there was added to the Church eighteen members, fifteen by baptism, three by relationship. The meeting closed on Friday. On returning home Saturday morning received a telephone message from Bro. R. B. Arnold, who was sick, asking me to fill his appointment at Spring Hill Church, Barbour county. The meeting lasted six days. I did all the preaching except two sermons, which were filled by Brethren W. J. Williams and C. E. Jones, during which time the Church received eight members, six by baptism, one by letter and one by restoration. On the 27th of July I commenced a meeting at Salem Church, Dale county, my home Church, which lasted nine days. The Church was very much revived. Received three by baptism. I was assisted by Brethren C. E. Jones and Hamp Gunter, who preached with power. We are looking forward to the time when we shall see more added to the Church as a result of this meeting.-J. W. Phillips.

The Southern Witness says "that Dr. G. A. Nunnally, of Georgia, has accepted the position as president of the college, which position had been unanimously offered him by the trustees. Dr. Nunnally is regarded as one of the strongest men in the South, and has had considerable experience in school work, having at one time been the successful president of the Southern Female College at La Grange Ga., and also of Mercer University, Macon, Ga. Those who know him are loud in their praises of him in every way. He was personally known to five of the Board of Trustees and they feel that they are fortunate in securing his services in this important and distinguished position. We hope soon to be in possession of other facts in connection with Dr. Nunnally's life and work and present them to our Dr. Nunnalty is a strong, forceful man and will add strength to the organized work in Florida.

"TAINTED" MONEY.

Dr. W. L. Pickard, of Savannah, is supplying Dr. W. W. Landrum's pulpit in Atlanta during August, to the delight of overflowing congregations. The Atlanta papers had stated that Dr. Pickard was Mr. Rockefeller's pastor during his ministry in Cleveland. This brought from Dr. Pickard the following story and statement to his congregation last Sunday morning:

"There were two Irishmen talking," said he. "One of them asked, 'What do they mean by this tainted money they say the oil king's giving away to the churches? 'Why, it's tainted twice,' said the other Irishman. "Tain't mine and 'taint yours.'

"I have never had a dollar of Mr. Rockefeller's -money," continued Dr. Pickard, "except for church and educational work, donated to the First Baptist church. I have known Mr. Rockefeller quite well and for a long time much better than most of those that criticise him. He is plain and unostentatious in private life and charitable and benevolent to a large degree.-Christian Index.
