THE BIRMINGHAM NEWS OUT FOR PROHIBITION

PROHIBITION MUST COME.

The remarkable and very widespread crusade against the sale of intoxicating liquors, which has been making steady progress in the South during the past twelve months, has reached Birmingham, and in a few weeks the question will be squarely up to every qualified voter in Jefferson county as towhether he is for liquor or against it.

The issue may be stated in as many different forms as different minds may suggest and as varying phraseology may be employed as the English language, which is rich in words, will permit, but on the final analysis the question is the same—for liquor or against it. This is the real issue which must be settled.

There is no middle ground. Mayor Ward and several of the aldermen, after the last municipal campaign in this city, in which the chief issue was regulation and control of the liquor traffic, sought to solve the ever-perplexing problem which accompanies the open saloon by so regulating the sale of liquor as to minimize the evil effects as far as was possible under the open saloon system. A license of $2,500 per year and a restricted area in which saloons could operate were suggested and urged, but a majority of the city council rejected this. As late as Thursday afternoon of this week when a special meeting of the council was held, Alderman Moore again presented this plan with some additional commendable features in a resolution which he asked be referred to a committee. The resolution was not only not referred, but it was ruled out of order under a previous determination of the council "not to probe the liquor license question until December."

So it is clear that the middle ground on the liquor question, if there ever was any, has been destroyed so far as Birmingham is concerned. It is unnecessary at this time to elaborate on this feature of the situation. The fact remains, however, that no better regulation of salcon than we now have is to be expected if as the the open innes, and those crimes which are the auth of the liquor dive may be a precising of the titically unchecked unless the sale of whistopally stopped. In a word the evil must be cut out by the roots.

There is no defense to make of the liquor traffic. The strongest argument that the advocates of the saloon advance is the commercial side of the proposition. But is it a fact that prohibition hurts a community commercially? The Birmingham News would answer this question with an emphatic no. If Greater Birmingham has reached the stage of its existence where its future growth and prosperity are dependent upon the fostering of the liquor industry then indeed it rests upon a frail foundation.

The anti-liquor fight is on in earnest. It is being led by men of moral courage whose motives are of the highest and most unselfish character. They are generals in a great campaign for the moral elevation and advancement of mankind. The same gospel we shall hear in this campaign has been heard in Tennessee and in Georgia, and will be heard elsewhere. Mississippians who believe in it are planning now to make it a violation of their state constitution to sell liquor within the confines of that commonwealth and they have just nominated for governor a man whose heart beats in unison with the music of the great marching army of prohibition advocates.

The issue has been forcing itself to the front in this state for months. The legislature recognized the situation and understood and responded to popular will on this question. So it is no surprise, especially in view of the history of municipal politics of the recent past in Birmingham, that the people of this city and county are about to be called upon to determine this issue here.

But in determining the issue The Birmingham News, which has from the day of its birth stood for the advancement of both the moral and material welfare of Birmingham and Alabama, desires to suggest that every safeguard possible under the circumstances should be thrown around vested interests to prevent their destruction. The signing of the petitions should be expedited and the election held at the earliest date possible so that those who may be affected by the result will have the longest period possible under the law to adjust their business affairs to changed conditions, if those conditions come and The Birmingham News prays that they will.

The American people believe in fair play and fair play we must have in this controversy which is now upon us. Under the law where a county votes in favor of prohibition the change takes place on January 1st next following the election. It is but just and right, therefore, that the movement be expedited and the election called as early as practicable.—Birmingham News.

What Saith the Scripture?

mayest be wise in thy latter end.

He that getteth wisdom loveth his own soul. The of wisdom is as a flowing brook. Wisdom is the principal thing, and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared with it.

It can not be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof. The topaz of are Ethiopia shall not equal it. It can not be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire. No mention shall be made of coral or crystal, neither shall it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold. Yea, the price of wisdom is above rubies; therefore get wisdom.

But Where Shall Wisdom Be Found?

Whence then cometh wisdom. Here is wisdom: behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom: and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding. Blessed are they that hear the word of God- and

But if any of you lacketh wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth to all men liberally and upbraideth not, and it shall be given him; for to the man that pleaseth him, God giveth wisdom and knowledge wisdom and understanding. Whose is wise will give heed to these things.

But with the lowly is wisdom. Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a giveth grace to the humble. Thus saith Jehovah, Be not wise in thine own eyes; but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and that trembleth at my word.

and built great bulwarks against it. Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom same poor man, and his words are not heard. Wisdom is better than strength; wisdom is better than weapons of war; nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised.

Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid; be ye desolate, saith Jehovah. For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

Beware of False Prophets.

But the spirit saith expressly that in the last days grievous times shall come. Grievous wolves shall enter among you, not sparing the flock. For the time will come when they will not endure the sound doctrine, but having itching ears will heap to themselves teachers after their own lusts, and will turn away their ears from the truth, and turn aside unto fables. Some shall fall away from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of demons.

But there arose false prophets also among the people, as among you also there shall be false teachshall privily bring in destructive heresies, denying even the Master that brought them. Commenting on esting interview with the well-known Prohibition tinction leader of this city and a candidate for mayor at the last election.

Mr. Herring declared that Maryland will certainly follow Georgia within a few years, and continued:

Two Axioms of Prohibition Experience. Georgia is better off for taking its firm stand for Prohibition. There is nothing in the talk of the loss to community resulting from the shutting off of the liquor traffic. The only losers in Georgia have been the liquor interests. Here is an axiom: WHEN THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC GAINS EVERY OTHER INTEREST IN A COMMUNITY LOSES. WHEN THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC LOSES EVERY OTHER INTEREST IN THE COMMUNITY IS BOUND TO

How All Legitimate Business Will Be Gainer in Georgia.

"Georgia will not be loser. The men who earned $15 a week and spent $5 for liquor will now spend that $5-unless he sayes it-for better clothes for himself and his wife, for the erection or the rent of a better home, for books or for amusements. The money a man spends is bound to help the community in which he spends it, and it helps a great deal more when he spends it for something else besides liquor. Statistics show that for the money invested and for the magnitude of business done, the liquor industry has a smaller number of employes than any other industry. So no matter for what he spends his $5, he is sure to give a greater proportion of it to a wage-earner than if he spent it for liquor.

What Prohibition Might Mean for Baltimore.

"Now, suppose such a law should have gone into effect in Baltimore, and the 2,500 liquor places in the city were shut down. Each of these places takes in at a minimum average about $10 a day. That means about $7,750,000 a year. In reality it is a great deal more than that-fully $10,000,000. Baltimore spends enough in one year to pay for the building of a sewerage system. Suppose this 7,000. 000 or $10,000,000 was cut off from the liquor traffic. A proportion of it would go into banks and another proportion of it would be divided among other lines of legitimate trade. The increased business of other lines would furnish employment for the men who had been thrown out of employment by the closing other lines would demand a proportionately larger number of men for the same volume of business.

Prohibition and the Tax Rate.

"Prohibition would cut down the tax rate here. Of the $1.97% rate, 37% cents is for police. drunkenness and its accompanying evils the police force could be cut to one-third. WORDS OF FAREWELL

(From the Corresponding Secretary.)

It was never pleasant to the writer to have to say good-bye. The time has come when stances seem to make it appropriate. The brethren have been calling to the coresponding secretary to make a visit to the workers at the front for some time past, but the work at nome seemed to demand that I remain here. Now that the board has several other secretaries, the can comes again to go. With sad heart I leave the delightful joys in the work nere at home, yet I am glad of the privilege of visiting the noble band of workers on the far-nung battle line. Almost all of these are known personally to me and I expect to have a blessed visit to them and their loved work. The trip as outlined will keep me away until next spring. I think and study and wonder how God can use me best as I go among the noble toilers. Wil not every one who reads this pray that His Spirit may fill me and that I may be used for His glory.

By a coincidence, I start to the foreign fields just fourteen years after taking up the work in Richmond. May these twice seven years of sweet experience prove a blessing as I go hence among the toilers at the front.

Now, a word to my brethren at home: You have told us to plan for larger things this year. We nave appointed already about eighteen new missionaries and have made other appropriations which mean heavy demands. But our receipts are falling far behind last year. We have had to borrow over $70,000 to date. The pressure is very great upon us. We ask all treasurers of churches and associations to send forward funds as promptly as possible.

There are brethren who expect to give large amounts during the year; if they would give a part now, it would help very much. In behalf of the work, as well as my beloved colleagues here in office, I ask every one to do his or her part and act as soon as possible.

May I be excused for saying just a few words perworld-wide missions was abundantly demonstrated sonal? Kind, very kind friends, have privately and at Omaha, Neb., on February 19-21. THE IMPREGNABLE ROCK.

"The impregnable rock of Holy Scripture." Mr. Gladstone called the Bible, not only maintains its general structure of undisturbed impregnability as the years go on, but seems actually to gather into itself renewed strength from the attacks that some folks may have actually believed would weaken it. Prof. A. H. Sayce, of Oxford, whose paper on the recent Hittite discoveries appeared in the Sunday School Times, writes in a personal letter to the

"I believe we are on the eve of great discoveries in the East. The 'critics' were premature in announcing their conclusions. They should have waited till the spade had done its work."

Similarly, Dean G. E. White, of Anatolia College, Marsovan, Asiatic Turkey, who recently read before the Victoria Institute of Great Britain a very illuminating paper on "Survivals of Primitive Religion Among the Peoples of Asia Minor," in sending the paper to the Sunday School Times, writes this very pleasant and hearty word:

"May I add that I congratulate you on the general attitude taken by The Sunday School Times on Old Testament interpretation. The critical methods have probably come to stay, but the eagerness of some critics to find difficulties and contradictions in the Old Testament seems to me unnecessary and rather unworthy. After long residence in the Orient I am sure that a good many of the discrepancies pointed out by certain critics would never occur to an Oriental as discrepancies at all, and he would think the Western methons of interpretation sometimes rather wooden."

The story of biblical criticism is a story of biblical triumph. The climax is not yet reached, and will not be for many a day ; but the newly added chapters of the story gleam brighter year by year. The world delights, now, to render homage to me Scriptures. An editorial in an influential paper in the Middle West, the Ohio State Jouranl, recently commented on some of the archeological discoveries at Rome that have been upsetting Roman history, and destoying even the precious myth of Romulus, Remus, and the she-wolf. And the editorial concluded as follows:

"But, seriously, isn't it strange that these deep, archeological researches—these deep burrowings in the crust of the earth-play so much havoc with profane history, but never run directly against the records as given in the Bible."

It is passing strange; but some of us think we know the reason.

Brother Crumpton was in the office on Saturday. He is heading for the Association. He said: "Why don't some of our people use the press? We are having great revivals, some of them extending over two weeks, but not a line appears in our great dailies until after the close and then the report is very meager. We have had four associations, but not a line about any of them. It is the fault of our people. Look up the reporters and give them the facts. The papers are eager for news. Why not let them have religious news. 1 will not be in the office again before the 13th."

HELP THE PAPER.

If no representative of the Alabama Baptist appears at the association which you attend, please take the trouble to represent it. We specially ask the moderator to see that some one does this.

A PAGE OF MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS

I have been for some time where I had not the glorious privilege of reading the Baptist, but am spending my vacation with my brother and enjoying the paper more than I have ever enjoyed it. May God bless you and yours is my prayer.—J. W. H. Blankenship.

Please announce in the Alabama Baptist that the Cherokee County Association will meet September 19th with Cedar Bluff caurch, Cedar Bluff, Ala., on the R. and D. division of the Southern ranway.

We are anxious to have with us the representative brethren who represent the various interests fostered by us: Let all come. Will meet you with a heartly welcome.—H. W. Roberts.

I have just closed my meeting with Salt Creek church in Talladega county. The visible results were not what we thought they ought to have been, but good seed were sown. Only one for baptism. The preaching was done by Rev. J. A. Davis, of East Lake, which was pure and simple. I also had the pleasure of attending the Shelby Association and got a new subscriber to the Alabama Baptist.—R. R. Brasher.

We have just closed a gracious meeting at Electric. The church was quickened and twenty-four new members were added, and a general interest in the community aroused by the pastor and prayer, and other work by the bretherhood, under the blessing of God's grace, produced the results. We praise him for his mercies. The pastor is also grateful for the many kindneses shown him by the good people of Electric and surcounding community—Arnold S. Smith.

At the home of the bride's father, J. T. Moncrief, near Forest Home, on Sunday afternoon, August 25, Mr. E. P. Murphy and Miss Mattie Joe Moncrief were united in marriage by the writer. After the ceremony we went to the home of the groom where a sumptuous supper was served. Mr. Murphy is a graduate of Auburn College and his wife is a graduate of Tuskeegee College. They are both Methodists and good workers in their church. I wish for them great joy and happiness.—H. R. Schramm.

We are having an excellent revival meeting at the Bessemer Baptist church. The largest crowds in the history of Bessemer are attending both morning and night. The spiritual interest is very good and the results ultimately promise to be large. Bro. John Bass Shelton of Montgomery, is preaching, and J. A. Brown, of Waco, Tex., is leading the seinging. A great work of grace is in prospect and we are expecting to see Bessemer stirred from center to circumference.—John F. Gable.

Just closed a good meeting at Gault with thirty additions. They have been paying the pastor a hundred dolars a year, but we raised it to six hundred and they are to call for half time. Bro. Floyd has done a good work here. I go next to Searight.

Please send the paper to Mr. J. E. Goodwin and Mrs. E. B. Hydrick, both at Gault and both paid for. Will send you some money later. I made a good long talk today to a house filled with people for the Alabama Baptist. I speak for it everywhere I go, if I can't send in many names. Yours and His—W. J. Ray, August 24, 1907.

We began our protracted meeting with Cedar Bluff church Saturday before the second Sunday in August, and continued nine days. Bro. James R. Magill, of Attalla, was with us and dld the preaching, which was well done. The meeting was good throughout, church greatly revived and additions. We began the third Saturday night with Alexis courch, continuing until the fourth Sunday. It was a most gracious revival, the best in the history of the church. Eleven joined. We had no preaching help, but the members all worked and all rejoiced together. God be praised.-H. W. Roberts.

My Dear Bro. Barnett-In a typographical error you make me say seventeenth (17th) instead of seventleth (70th) annual session. The Judson will be three score and ten years old with the next session. We are proudof our age and would like for you to mention this fact. Please say also that all our rooms have been taken for the coming session, and that there are no vacancles. We are indeed grateful to you and all our friends and patrons for their continued interest and confidence. Two new buildings will go up this year and we hope in another year to have two other large buildings.-Robert G. Patrick, presi-

Doubtless the editor and readers of the Baptist will be pleased to hear of our protracted services held in the Daphne Baptist church, commencing Thursday before the third Sunday in August. Bro. C. H. Morgan, our beloved pastor, did most of the preaching. He was ably assisted by Rev. J. Kailen, of Mobile, who preached three or four sermons. The meeting closed Friday night before the fourth Sunday. Both preachers did some very forceful preaching. Bros. Morgan and Kailen are consecrated men of God and are very faithful ministers of the gospel. Our church was much revived and strengthened. Five were added by letter and one by baptism.

Our Sunday schol is growing very rapidly, at present numbering about twenty-five. We hope to do some gool work for our Master in this part of His vineyard as we have some of the best material in Alabama.—W. W. Chandler, Daphne, Ala.

Rev. G. L. Yates recently aided us in a five days' meeting at Fitzpatrick. The spiritual condition of the church was advanced and the entire community revived. Four members were added to the church and the gospel seed sown will still yield an abundant harvest. We were delighted to have Bro. Yates with us. He lived in this community many years and is much loved by the people here.—W. J. Elliott.

We have had a gracious meeting at Mt. Zion, in the Bibb county association. I was ably assisted by Rev. P. G. Maness, of Lawley, R. 1, Ala., and Rev. O. O. Pinson, of Blocton, Ala. Bro. Maness was with us only a short time. Bro. Pinson was with us from the start to the finish, and greatly endeared nimself to us all. While Bro. Maness was with us he pracched a sermon to the children that was simply great. We raised $31.25 for the visiting ministers. Closed at the water Saturday morning, August 24, with eight for baptism.

We will be able to make a good report at our association. We take mission collections every month by placing a basket on table and all who will are invited to contribute. We will overreach our assessment by association.

We enjoy the paper. Success to you and all the readers of the Alabama Baptist:—James D. Martin.

Since there has been a little unnecssary cloud in the sky with a few of the brethren concerning who would be entertained at the convention to be held in Roanoke next year, I beg to say as pastor of the First Baptist church and in behalf of the church. that every Baptist in the great State of Alabama is hereby cordially invited to attend the Baptist State Convention to be held with the First Bantist church of Roanoke next year. If the entire 150,000 Baptists should come we offer them each and every one free and royal entertainment. Let every Baptist who can come to Roanoke next year. Our people are delighted with having the honor of entertaining the State Convention. We are getting ready to build our Sunday schoool annex to our church which will cost about $6,000 and will be completed in time for the convention in July. This will give Roanoke one of the church houses in the State. We are looking forward to the coming of the convention with much joy .-Porter.

FROM SYBIL, ALA.

Is it too late to publish about the fifth Sunday meeting in April, 1906?

The brethren of Butler County Association boycotted us at the mother church, at Fellowship, in the southern part of the State. It was published in the minutes it would be the fifth Sunday in April. Preparations were made, dinner was carried to the church, a large crowd was in attendance and no preachers nor laymen put in their appearance, much to the disappointment of the people. I am afraid that there are very few ministers among us who are willing, Christ-like, to turn aside and preach to the woman at Jacob's well. Some of our preacaers and laymen will not go out of hearing range of the steam horse whistle. Brethren, if you can have hopes for isolating Fellowship church go to God in prayer for us it you can not come with Christ to us. Praise the Lord for our great progress and growing peace.—"Incognito."

MEETING AT LADONIA, ALA.

The meeting began August 9th and closed August 18th. The interest was good from the beginning. Rev. H. N. Vandiver, pastor of First Church, Phenix, Ala., assisted me in the meeting. Brother Vandiver is a preacher of great ability. He depends upon the Holy Spirit for help. In each of his sermons we enjoyed a spiritual feast. Surely God was with him, for his discourses were powerful and carried conviction to the hearts of his hearers. He endeared himself to all who et and heard him. The church was greatly revived and many precious souls were led to Christ., There were about twenty added to the church, firteen by baptism.

On Sunday afternoon at the close of the meeting a most beautful baptismal service was witnessed by a large concourse of people.—M. W. Waltman.

After earnest conference and prayer, the officers determined to call on the people for a month of selfdenial. The current Sunday school lesson—the story of the plan of King Joash to raise money for the repairs of the temple, after other plans had failed (2 Kings 12)-suggested the method. After all, what is this world but a place of preparation for the glorious life to come. How often do you think, my friends, "when I am older I will be a Christian," Jesus, your Master, has a work for you to do now. Are there not those who by your influence would lead a Christian life? You have an influence, whether for good or evil. There is some one whom nobody but you can reach. It may be father, mother, sister, brother or friends. Perhaps that one now is longing for you to talk to him in regard to his life . Ask God to show you what to do and pray, believing, and never fear but that He will guide you. Doubtless, some time your cross seems heavy, but it is not so heavy as the cross under whose weight the Savior sank. Your cares and trials sometimes seem great, but what a sweet thought to know that He has traveled the road before you and knows it all.

Young men and women, girls and boys, are you following Him? Do you find it sweet to trust in-Jesus? Do you realize the importance of living a Christian life?

Some of you have younger sisters and brothers and naturally they will follow in your steps. Will you lead them to the Master who is standing with outstretched arms waiting, or will you meet them at the judgment bar of God and hear them say, "You never asked me to be a Christian?" The pleasures of this life are only passing shadows, but when Jesus comes into your heart, there comes a peace which passeth knowledge.

Just as sure as God sits on the throne tonight, you and I must stand before Him and answer for our sins. Not for some one else, but for ourselves. When that day comes and I shall answer to the roll-call, my Jesus, my personal Savior, answer as my intercessor, "She hath done what she could."

PREAMBLE AND RESOLUTIONS.

The Adams Avenue Baptist Church:

Dear Brethren and Sisters-Your committee appointed on resolutions, the occasion of the resignation of our pastor, Rev. John Bass Shelton, beg to submit the following:

Whereas, Our pastor has often expressed the desire to enter the evangelistic field of labor, to which he has been more and more inclined, and now finally announces to this church that he has concluded to quit the work of the pastorate that he may be free to go into this larger work of usefulness, therefore has presented his resignation as pastor of this church, to take effect the first Sunday in October

That in view of his expressed determination to quit the pastorate, to enter that of a broader, and more active evangelistic work, we feel it altogether appropriate that this church may take this occasion to express their appreciation of his faithful and untiring labors in our midst.

When the Rev. John Bass Shelton came to us. upon our unanimous call, two years ago, he found us more or less unsettled, and in debt in the sum of $1,000, a state of things sufficient to discourage the stoutest heart, but the time was not long, following the relation of pastor and people, before he had the work well in hand, and let it be said as a lasting tribute to the wisdom of his forethought and unselfish energy that he, single-handed, went among our immediate people, and secured the money to pay off this obligation, and that without burden to

And further we rejoice in the fact that during the two years' administration of Pastor Shelton, the church has constantly grown in members, notwith. Brother Shelton is holding a meeting at the First standing the fact that a large list of our members were granted letters of dismission to form the Highland Avenue Baptist church, to say nothing of many members who have gone to other cities and communities. During this period the church has had a higher conception and a greater quickening in the missionary enterprises of our denomination, and the church has perhaps contributed more to these causes per capits within this period than within the same period at any time of the church's history, and we feel if is not too much to say that no pastor of this church of the past has labored more persistently or with more force and devotion to the cause of missions, keeping before our people this, the greatest work of the church, thus happily impressing the missionary spirit upon the rank and file of our people.

And further, next to his efforts for the advancement of Christian work among us, the desire was always prominent to do things in the New Testament way, from a Baptist standpoint.

On the question of intemperance and the liquor traffic he was always outspoken in no uncertain sound against this black sin. Now, therefore, be it Resolved, First. In accepting the resignation of our pastor, Brother John Bass Shelton, we do so in the spirit of regret, and hereby express our appreciation of the good work done through his efforts and zeal in his two years' pastorate.

Second. That in his newly chosen field, in the work of soul-winning, he will be followed by our earnest prayers for his consecration to the work, that he may be abundantly used of God, our Father, through Christ, our Lord and Master, in planting the gospel in the hearts of men

Third, That the church clerk is hereby directed to hand a copy of these resolutions to Brother John Bass Shelton, our retiring pastor, and a copy also to the Alabama Baptist.

THE COST OF PROHIBITION

The following is reproduced from the Atlanta Georgian, and every argument therein is good for every liquor town and city in Alabama.—Editor Citizen:

Regardless of whether it is right to consider if moral reforms will cost money or property, the fact that those who are fighting to keep out prohibition spreading fear in the hearts of our people lest we be ruined financially, makes it necessary to answer their fancy with facts:

They claim that-

1. Values will be ruined.

Taxes will be higher.

3. Foreigners, and especially Germans, will not come here.

4. Our cities will not grow.

Cold. Hard Facts

We will take the latest government reports which have only been from the presses of the Department of Commerce and Labor a few months, and delivered to us six weeks ago. Then we will use for comparison the state of Kansas, to which our friends refer so often as the horrible example. Kansas is an agricultural state—so is Georgia. They raise grain—we raise cotton. Kansas has about the same amount of manufacturing that we have. Kansas is one-fourth larger in size than Georgia. Its population is the same as our white population, 1,500,000.

Bear in mind, please, that we do not claim that prohibition in Kansas ade its values what they are. We simply claim that it has not ruined their value

All farms, improvements and buildings in Georgia are worth $183,000.000. In Kansas they are worth $643,000,000. The buildings alone on Georgia farms are worth $44,000,000-in Kansas $111,000,000.

The value of all real property and improvements-not including any railroad, street railway, telegraph, telephone or private water works system nor privately owned electric light and power plants, and leaving out all property of every kind exempt from taxation in Georgia, is $517,000.000. In Kansas it is 1,067

Georgia owns fifty-seven million dollars worth of live stock, while Kansas owns 228 millions.

Georgia owns 156 millions of railroads-Kansas 356 millions.

The average value of all real property and improvements for the state of Kansas is $21.00 per acre, while in Georgia it is $15, notwithstanding there are 15,000,000 acres more in Kansas than in Georgia.

The per capita value of Kansas real property is $739, of Georgia $237. Suppose , for argument, we give the whole value to the white population alone. Georgia would then be less than $500 per capita, against $739 in Kansas.

Enough of that-these are facts in answer to hearsay.

Question of Taxation

2. Taxes will be higher.

The argument is used that if we have no liquor tax we will have nothing with which to run our schools. Let's look at the state as a whole. Georgia has a state debt of 7 3-4 millions, on which it has to pay taxes, and levies for all schools a tax of 1 1-2 millions. Taxes in Kansas are higher than the average in Georgia, and, as has already been shown, the wealth has grown greater, and they have a state debt of but a little more than 1-2 million, against Georgia's 7 3-4 millions, and they levy a school tax of $4,655,000 against our $1,500,000-over $3.00 for our $1.00 a good excuse for more taxes, and Georgia could profit by levying them. average tax per $100 in Kansas is just about double that of Georgia, and nearly all of it is shown in the school expenditures, regardless of the fact that all must come from direct taxation.

Foreign Population

3. Foreigners will not come. Germans must have beer.

The population of Georgia is two and one-half millions. That of the two prohibition states, Maine and Kansas, 700,000 and one and one-half millions, respectively.

Kansas has one hundred and twenty-seven thousand foreign-born citizens and Maine ninety-three thousand, while Georgia has twelve thousand.

Kansas entertains forty thousand Germans and eleven thousand Irish and ousands of Danes, Austrians and Poles. Georgia has 3,000 Germans.

Kansas has more foreigners than any state of its size except Connecticut, Rhode Island and Nebraska.

No comment could strengthen these facts.

Growth of Cities

4. Our cities will not grow.

Atlanta grew 37 per cent from 1880 to 1900; Savannah 25 per cent; Augusta 18 per cent. Kansas City, Kan., grew 34 per cent; Portland, Maine, 37 per cent, Give age and present occupation and and Topeka, Kan., 8 per cent, though Topeka grew over 100 per cent the 10 years references and address. previous and Kansas with a population equal only to our white population, has 365 cities to our 375.

Most significant of all is the fact that Kansas, with this million less popula- Catalogue. The C. S. BELL CO., Hillsb.

tion, levies in municipal taxes, four million dollars a year, while Georgia with more cities raises two and one-half million

We are about tired of Kansas now. We have pulled it pretty well to pieces. We are tired, too, of the worthless, factless arguments used by our friends who are trying to make a case against prohibition. There is no reason to believe that beautiful poetic statement, "Grass will grow in our streets."

The Georgian is not convinced that Atlanta will be less desirable as a southern headquarters for the many insurance companies and large northern corporations that fill our office buildings.

The Georgian does not believe Atlanta will be less desirable as a railroad center and headquarters, when the biggest railroads in the world are making the use of liquor a bar to employment on their lines. The Georgian believes it is absurd to think that the cotton mills will stay from our borders when their men can not get liquor as conveniently as they now do. The mills are getting closer to the cotton fields every day, and no power could stop the commercial advantage they reap by being nearer the source of supply. Those who make other claims have never studied the economics of cotton manufacture.

The Georgian calls with all its might to every citizen of our state to arise and drive off the bugaboo that is being used to scare our people, and putting aside all sentiment, all weeping, praying and singing, set your faces to give our cities and our state at least a fair trial of what can but be a blessing to many if it succeeds at all, and what so great a man as Henry Grady says was an absolute success here twenty-two years ago, contradictory statements of men who were children at that time, and only tell us of hearsay, notwithstanding.

FEARFUL BURNING TTCHING

Relieved by Heiskell's Ointment

Eczema Quickly Cured

Even the old, stubborn cases of long standing, with their attendant aggravations—inching, burning skin, splotches and raw eruptions can be immediately relieved finally and permanently cured by the regular use of Heiskell's Olintment.

The first application practically dries up the raw cores, instantly cools and soothes the skin and stops the irritating lich.

The hands should be washed in liukewarm water, carefully rinsed and dried, then Heiskell's Olintment by the property of the standard should be used after every application. One or two applications according to the above directions will produce a wonderfully grateful relief and improvement. Any kind of skin diseases and humors are amenable to He.skell's Olintment it readily soothes and heals where other preparations fail, and there is no skin disease, no matter how stubborn or long standing, not constitutional, that it will mot cure. Its effectiveness is proven by the instant-relieffoliowing its first employment. Cures Erysipelas, Pruriso, Eerema, Milk Crust, liching Piles, Scald Head, Tetters, Bingworn, Black Heads, Procriasis, Pimpies, Freckles, Sunburn, etc.

In some cases it is necessary to give constitutional treatments with Heiskell's Blood and diver Pills, as in ecssma and erysipeias, to tone up the liver and purily the blood. Cure is hastened in all skin diseases by frequently bathing the affected parts with Heiskell's Medicinal Soap and toning up the blood with Heiskell's Blood and Liver Pills, as in ecssma and toning up the blood with Helskell's Blood and Liver Pills, as in expensant the particularly effective, and its constant use not only insures a delightfully clean and furnarious bath, but its medicinal qualities, those of the olintenet in a mild form, will prevent many diseases and disorders that the skin is helr to.

A DEDICATION AND ORDINATION.

Dear Bro, Barnett:

The third Sunday in August was a good day with us at Hopewell church. It was dedication and ordination day.

Our splendid chuch house, which was recently completed, was dedicated. Bro. W. B. Crumption, who has dedicated so many church houses in our State preached the sermon and the pastor offered the prayer. Bro. G. S. Anderson was also with us and assisted in many ways. The church house, including some material we had on hand, cost $15,000.

Our people are happy over the results of their faithful work.

This church was constituted in 1822. The old building we tore down to make room for the new one had been in use about sixty years.

After a splendid dinner had been served on the church grounds, the people reassembled in the house - 66 witness the ordination of Brethren Wm. H. Pope and J. Marvin Moore to the office of deacons. Revs. W. B. Crumpton, G. S. Anderson, L. O. Dawson and J. E. Barnes, together with Deacons W. H. England, John R. Hogan and J. A. Martin, formed the presbytery. Bro. W. B. Crumpton acted as chairman and J. E. Barnes as secretary.

Bro. and Sister J. G. Dobbins, of Greensboro, came over Monday morning to assist the paster in a meeting of several days. So we are now in the midst of a splendid meeting. Three oined the church last night by experience.

Our meeting begins at Brown's Sunday with the same helpers. Will write you later as to the results.

Be with us at the Cahaba Associa-on September 11, 1907, at Moundlle.
Yours fraternally,
J. E. BARNES. ville.

Our revival began at Oakley Baptist Church on Friday night before the second Lord's Day in this month

We had Bro. R. R. Brasher with us and he did the preaching, and it is only those who have heard him that can place a proper estimate upon his ministry.

He draws men to him as if by magic and yet he is as meek and humble as a child.

Dear Bro .: - We began a meeting at Berry with the Baptist church August 15th and closed the 23rd, with 15 accessions to the church, eight by baptism and seven by letter. It was said by some of the people to have been the best meeting in the history of the town. The preaching was done by the pastor. The Lord did great things for us whereof we are glad .-J. L. JOY AT HIS CONVERSION.

Dear Brother Barnett:-Out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaketh. My heart has been burdened for the salvation of some souls. May be a few words of the joys and comforts in believing on the Lord Jesus. written by my father in his conversion, trusting that it will be a benefit to some, will quote it: His leading thought was that he was doomed to inevitable destruction and that there was no hope. His conversion into the happy period which was to shake off my fetters and afford me a clear discovery of the free mercy of God in Christ Jesus, was now arrived. I flung myself into a chair near the window, and seeing a Bible there ventured once more to rely to it for comfort and instruction. The first verse I saw was the 25th verse of the 5th chapter of Romans. Immediately I received strength to believe and the full beam of the Sun of Righteousness shone upon me. I saw the sufficiency of the atonement He had made for my pardon and justification in a moment. I believed and received the peace of the gospel. Unless the Almighty arm had been under me I think I should have been overwhelmed with gratitude and by. My eyes filled with tears and my olce choked with transport. A GREAT REVIVAL AT REFORM.

Last Saturday night about 10 o'clock Elder Metcalf, of Fayette, left home for this place, and after driving the remainder of the night and part of Sunday morning through a very rough country, reached Reform and begun a work of reformation in our town. The meeting begun at 11 o'clock Sunday morning and continued with increased interest until the close Thursday night. This was the greatest revival that we ever had in Reform. I hesitate to speak of Bro. Metcalf's ability to preach the Gospel lest I should be unsuccessful, but must say that he is a grand and noble man and a preacher of ability. His sermons were logical and convincing. Great crowds came to hear him. Business men of this place who have hitherto shown but very little interest in their soul's salvation, were stirred up and brought under the influence of the blessed word,

The meeting resulted in 23 accessions, 21 by baptism and two by letter.

Praise the Lord for the great things He has done for us. Oh! what shall we render unto the Lord for all His benefits towards us? We will take the cup of salvation and call upon the name of the Lord. Bro. Metcalf will help me at Ebenezer in a meeting beginning the fourth Sunday in September.

Millport. Respectfully, G. W. Kerr. We have just closed a ten days' meeting at Oak Grove Church in Talladega county. The Lord was with us in great power. We had 16 additions to the church. Had the pleasure of pouring 15 by baptism into the church of Christ. A beautiful scene indeed. The church is greatly revived, and I believe they will stand for greater things in the kingdom of God than ever before. I pray for them and may the Lord bless you in your great work. You are giving us good paper and may it soon be read in every home in the land. Yours In His work and love .- T. E. Steely.

FROM BRO SCHRAMM.

Dear Baptist:

I have been so busy that I haven't had any time to write for the paper. We had our protracted meeting at Monterey the second Sunday in July. Bro. J. M. Gilmore, of Pineapple, came on Tuesday and preached at 11 o'clock Tuesday and stayed until Thursday at 11. Bro. Gilmore did us fine preaching. He is a gospel preacher. He endeared himself to all the congregation. He is a consecrated man and a very earnest preacher. We had a fine meeting, good congregations. One received under watch care and Christians greatly revived.

Thursday was observed as thanksgiving day during our meeting and $7.76 was contributed to the Orphans Home.

We had a fine temperance meeting at Forest Home on the fourth Sunday in July, consisting of recitations by the children and reading of two fine papers by physicians, one by Dr. C. Wall on the "Effects of Liquor on the Human system," and the other by Dr. J. J. Garrett on "Whether the Medical Profession Could Do Without Liquor In Their Practice." Both papers were fine. My idea is to inform people with reference to the evil of liquor.

We had a fine meeting at Mt. Mo riah. Bro. M. M. Wood, of Furman, came to us on Monday at 11 a. m. I preachde Saturday and Sunday at 11 and Sunday night. After the 11 o'clock sermon Sunday we had a sumptuous dinner and there were many joy it. In the afternoon we had our temperance meeting, consisting of rec itations by the children, reading of papers by the young ladies and pa pers by Dr. E. G. Donald and Dr. C. C. Bruner. Both were able papers. Dr. Donald showed the evil effects of liquor on the human system and Dr. Bruner showed the medical profession needed liquor in its practice to some extent. The meeting was well attended.

Bro. Woods preached from Monday at 11 until Friday at 11 to the delight of all. The church was greatly revived. Bro. Wood is an able, consecrated preacher that preaches the pure gospel and did us much good.

Thursday was thanksgiving and a good day. $8.90 was given to the Orphans' home. Success to the Baptist. H. R .SCHRAMM.
