Frank Willis Barnett, Editor.

Established 1874: Vol. 48, No. 36

Organ Baptist State Convention

Office 1705 Third Avenue

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., FEBRUARY 15, 1911

Published Weekly. $2.00 a Year

Rev. J. B. Creel, of Wylam, preached Sunday morning and evening, for Rev. J. E. Lowrey at Powderly, and will preach at Searles Sunday week.

C. S. LeCren organized a Sunday school at Calcedonia church on Sunday, February 5. There were 27 pupils present. Prof. Ralph Morgan was elected superintendent. He organized one last fall at Watt Union church with 34; Rev. John Ragland, superintendent. Both are in Mineral Springs Association.

We regret to learn that Rev. A. J. Lambert, of Bay Minette, died Sunday afternoon. He was 87 years of age, and had been a minister for more than 60 years. He was the only preacher in that section of the state of any denomination for a number of years following the civil war and was widely known. We offer our sympathy to the bereaved family.

I was out at Summit church, on Shades Mountain, Sunday, February 5, and we had good services both morning and evening. The church has called me for half time, and this was my first service. We have in our community and church some excellent people, and we look forward for a most pleasant and profitable year of service. Whenever you wish a good, pure breath come up and visit us. You will be, according to the commonly accepted view, much nearer heaven. With best wishes for yours—James E. Dean.

Every B. Y. P. U. in the state should be represented at the convention which meets with our church on April 11-13. Please elect delegates as early as possible and send us the names. If your church has no union send delegates from the church or Sunday school. The people of Prattville are working hard to make this a notable gathering, and we want the Baptists of the state to co-operate by lending their presence. Prattville is centrally located and has six trains in, daily.—Will Anderson, Chairman Committee, Prattville, Ala.

Dear Brother Barnett: Please permit me to express through the columns of the Alabama Baptist my great appreciation of the gratification expressed by many of the brethren personally and by letter of my acceptance of the position of secretary of the educational commission appointed by the last state convention. It has been no easy matter for me to decide to break the ties binding me as pastor to the First church of this city, after having served them for more than 11 years. I am making no little sacrifice in undertaking the work of the commission, but I have been convinced that it is a work that ought to be done. We have delayed too long already in doing that which is planned to be done by the commission. I earnestly ask for the co-operation and prayers of the brethren. It is my purpose to give the best there is in me to this work—W. J. E. Cox.

REV. S. A. COWAN, Pastor Southside Baptist Church, Montgomery.

J. B. Davie is the superintendent of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church, Blocton, Ala. He is one of the best Sunday school superintendents in the state of Alabama.

Evangelist A. A. Walker will assist Rev. John L. Ray, pastor of First Baptist church, Blocton, Ala., in a revival, beginning the first Sunday in April. The prayers and prospects are for a gracious and glorious revival.

Unfortunately we have a number of subscribers who are plenty able to pay not only their back dues, but in advance. They have gotten the "delinquent" habit to such an extent that it nearly kills them to try and catch up.

After a remarkably successful pastorate for two years, Rev. A. A. Walker resigned the Hartselle charge last Lord's day. The church regrets very much that he has seen fit to leave them, but he feels that God would have him take other work. This is a fine and promising field, and we hope these good people will soon have a pastor succeed Brother Walker and go right on with the work he has so well in hand.

Please change my paper from Fayette, Ala., to Eldridge, Ala., as I have returned to Eldridge and cannot afford to do without the Baptist. I am going to do my best to send you some subscribers this season, for I want all my people to take the paper, and it is no wonder that children of Baptist parents join the other denominations when they will not take their own paper for them to read. Fraternally—W. L. Brumbleloe.

Dear Brother Barnett: Some time since Mrs. Grace Hiden Wilkinson was compelled, on account of ill health, to resign as secretary to the Board of Aged and Infirm Ministers' Relief Fund, and Mrs. Annie H. Townsend, at Tuscaloosa, Ala., has been elected in her stead. Capt. R. F. Manly, of Birmingham, Ala., is treasurer. Yours fraternally—H. B. Foster.

The Baptist World Alliance will hold its second session June 19-25, 1911, in Philadelphia. Messengers will receive credentials from the various corresponding secretaries of state boards. The basis of representation is one for every 1,000 of membership. Philadelphia Baptists will entertain the officers, returned missionaries and messengers from beyond the ocean. The committee will be glad to assist American messengers in finding entertainment in the hotels and boarding houses. Prospective messengers and visitors should send in their names promptly to Rev. John Minor Wilbur, chairman of entertainment. American messengers will be expected to pay $2 on entering on the local expense of entertaining the body. The expense will be quite large. Fraternally yours—J. N. Pestridge, Secretary for America.

Christianity and the Modern Mind.

By Rev. Samuel McComb M.A., D.D., co-author of "Religion and Medicine." Here is a book that will be of the greatest interest and value to modern men and women. It shows the profound need of religion in all life, individual and social. It makes clear how people today can be religious without renouncing any of the fruits of culture and science. The note of personal conviction based on the author's reflection and experience gives the book vitality and power. The work is a direct, clear and frank discussion of the most urgent religious problems of our time, pervaded with the practical aim of vindicating religion as essential to life and happiness, as well as to integrity of thought.

"Bible Stories to Tell Children."

The author, William D. Murray, hesitates to add another Bible story book to the many good ones already published, and yet we are glad he sends forth a new one, because it is different, because his purpose is to put only a few of the old familiar stories into modern English, using the constructive imagination to complete the pictures. He does not intend to include all useful Bible stories, and yet knowing the value of them he gives us quite a number of special interest to the children.

Wise-Knut.

Translated from the Norwegian of Bjornstjerne Bjornson, by Bernard Stahl. New York: Brandt's, 767 Lexington avenue. $1.00 net.

Some forty or more years ago Bjornson wrote of the strange man, known far and wide, who could heal by the laying on of hands, discover lost things, or even tell what people at a distance were talking about and doing. In his youth he was an epileptic, and he gave other signs of that abnormality which Lombroso says is equally akin to genius and to criminality.

And yet Bjornson declared that his life was one long thanksgiving to God, though he endured sickness, poverty, and bitter misjudgment.

A Valid Religion for the Times.

This is a study of the central truths of spiritual religion by Parley P. Worner, with a foreword by Washington Gladden, who speaks of Mr. Worner as asking in his teaching to Heary Churchill King, George B. Stevens, William Newton Clark and George Hodges. Mr. Womer is pastor of the Park Congregational church of St. Paul. Dr. Gladden characterizes his pages as of sweet seasonableness, simply and calmly affirmative, void of polemic.

Mr. Womer endeavors to restore and rehabilitate some of the religious questions which are bothering the minds of thinking men, and while one may not always follow him, yet one will always feel that he is earnestly trying to find the right path to peace and truth.

Am I My Brother's Keeper?

This is a new book by Edna Smith-DeRan, who has spent several years in investigating social conditions, prison life, intemperance and the social evil, with a result that she has written a book which is certain to do much in clearing away the mists which obscure certain phases of our social life and bring them out in all their ghastly horror. Greater frankness with children in matters of sex is also advocated by the author. The book has received the hearty endorsement of such men as Judge Chittenden, of Toledo; Dr. Kellogg, of Battle Creek, and lawyers, doctors, preachers and professors have read it with interest and profit.

Many of the problems of the day are discussed fearlessly and frankly, and the reader will be interested whether or not he always agrees with Mrs. DeRan. Address Edna Smith-DeRan, 524 Potter street, Kalamazoo, Mich. $1.10 postpaid.

Sociology and Modern Social Progress.

This book is what it intends to be, for it is an elementary text in sociology as applied to modern social problems, for use in institutions where but a short time can be given to the subject, in courses in sociology where it is desired to combine it with a study of current social problems on the one hand, and to correlate it with a course in economics on the other. This work, by Charles A. Ellwood, Ph. D., professor of sociology, University of Missouri, is especially suited for use in university extension courses and in Teachers' Reading Circles and ought to be in the hands of every pastor who is interested in social progress.

Human Body and Health.

This is an up-to-date, well written and illustrated text book of essential anatomy, applied physiology, and practical hygiene, by Alvin Davison, M.S., A.M., Ph. D., professor of biology in Lafayette College. An English prime minister said that "the first duty of the statesman is the health of the people," and we are glad to note that the questions so ably set forth in this volume are being brought to the front. The press, the pulpit, the physicians and even the politicians are beginning to emphasize the need of better laws to safeguard the health of the people, and we welcome such a compact and timely book as "Human Body and Health."

"The Rebuilding of King Solomon's Temple."

By J. H. Franklin. Franklin Publishing Company, Omaha, Neb. Price, $1.50.

Above is the attractive title of a very interesting and edifying work. The dedication is "To him who guided my footsteps when a boy, who would rather I had a good name than riches—my father."—James L. Franklin.

A map of Jerusalem showing the temple site faces the table of contents, and many illustrations adorn the book at intervals and add greatly to its worth. Bible students will gain much light from these luminous pages, which make the ancient stories appear so vital that we seem to actually see the places described and take our own part in the ceremonies and celebrations which were the glory of Israel in days of old and are still even more than a cherished memory to those who can trace a perpetual interior significance in the rites which center in the temple.

The closing chapter, while making an especial address to Masons, appeals also to a very wide public outside the craft.

"Seeley's Question Book."

"The Sport of Bird Study."

On our way to dinner the weather was bleak and the trees were dripping with rain, and yet a robin's chirp, the first of the season, warmed our heart and made us thankful that the Creator of man sent forth winged messengers with songs in their throats to cheer him on his way. It was fitting on our return to the office to find on our desk "The Sport of Bird Study," by Herbert K. Job, who must have inherited some of the patience of the old Biblical sufferer, for he records many painstaking experiences with birds.

This delightful book is in "story form" and shows now pleasure and adventure may be found in becoming thoroughly acquainted with the birds of any ordinary country town—how to go about the "sport" and what one will be likely to find. Besides the most interesting text, the 134 half-tones from photographs serve as a guide and an inspiration in themselves and do credit to the Outing Publishing Company, New York. The book can be had of them or through Loveman, Joseph & Loeb, Birmingham, For $2.

"The Family House."

By C. F. Osborne, architect. A helpful book for any one who intends to "set up housekeeping." It tells what to look for in the location of a house, price, or amount of rent, exposure, plumbing, fixtures, lighting, ventilation, water, how to tell whether a house is well built, dry and warm, what is the best plan and how to get comfort and artistic effects in furnishing. Whether one is renting, buying or building this concise but comprehensive book will save annoyance, time and money. Fully illustrated.

"The Cap and Gown."

By Charles Reynolds Brown. Written by a man who has been a college boy himself and remembers just how it feels. These pithy addresses will come straight home to the "joyous and confident company arrayed in 'cap and gown,'" which the author addresses. With pointed anecdote, and witty phrase, a telling knack of presentation, and a consecrated purpose, Mr. Brown wins his way into the heart of the young man and woman as they stand at the outset of a career.

There is no suggestion of preaching. Rather is it the frank expression of a man who knows fraternities and athletics from the inside, and appreciates the best of present-day college life. It is, in short, a book that every college graduate will read with keen interest, often tempered, no doubt, with regret that he did not read it while in college; a book which every father will want to buy for his son; and—what means much more—a book which every father's son will want to read for himself.

THE CASE OF HOME MISSIONS.

B. D. Gray, Corresponding Secretary.

It is serious. The very prosperity of our work has called for enlargement, extensive enlargement. The greatest year of the board's history was reported at Baltimore last May. So marvelously had God blessed the work during the year, and so numerous and urgent the pleas for help which could not be supplied, the convention ordered a great advance, and is now calling for $400,000 for Home Mission work this year. There were over 52,000 additions to our churches through the labors of our missionaries, more than 27,000 of these being received by baptism. Then the work of strengthening and broadening our forces in all parts of our great field was a significant feature of the year's work.

We have hoped that the insistent pressure of our laymen's movement on regular, systematic and symmetrical giving would have brought up our finances much better than has been the case. As a matter of fact, our receipts, with the exception of one generous bequest, are some thousands short of the receipts for this time last year, while our appropriations for work are $30,000 or $40,000 greater than last year.

During the fall months State Missions had the right of way, and in all the states that subject was pressed with unprecedented force; consequently for the time being Home Mission gifts were very light. It is difficult to inaugurate a regular, systematic program of Christian benevolence. It cannot be done all at once, so these special campaigns are necessary during the time we are inaugurating the regular system of contributions. Pity enough it is that our people do not give weekly or monthly to our great mission work. Inasmuch as we have not reached that desirable end, we must use special seasons for our different enterprises.

Ninety Days' Time.

At the banks they want to know how long the borrower wishes the money, and it is usually 30, 60 or 90 days. We are in a somewhat similar condition with reference to Home Missions. We have only 90 days in which to raise over $300,000 if we reach the amount needed. That is equal to $100,000 a month. A widespread campaign throughout the whole south during February, March and April ought to bring us $75,000 for February and March each and $150,000 for April. There must be planning, co-operation and unceasing effort to the very last day. But let us not wait until March and April. January, with business men, has settled their plans for the business of the new calendar year; February will be a great time for beginning the Home Mission offerings.

The Great Month of March.

Of course March is the great Home Mission month, culminating in the gifts of our women for their self-denial thank offering and their work of power for Home Missions. Our women doubtless will give $50,000 during March if their forces are all united, including the Young Women, our B. Y. P. U.'s, the Sunbeams and Royal Ambassadors. The Sunday schools likewise, the last Sunday in March, will give to Home and Foreign Missions. So we look for great things during the month of March. Let us anticipate that month by doing our best in February, and come to the month of April with such a showing in our gifts as will make that month the culmination of a glorious and victorious campaign.

Postponed Payments.

Many of our largest appropriations were made on certain conditions, one being that our gifts would be paid in the spring, in order that we might save an interest account, and to give time for the churches that were aiding to do their part. The time has come, however, for us to meet these deferred payments. We are having to borrow thousands and thousands of dollars. Our credit at the banks is nearing the danger line. I therefore plead with our brethren, far and near, to come to our help. If we enter with spirit, with our pastors, and laymen, and women, and children, and Sunday schools all enlisted, we ought to close with a shout of victory. It means so much that we meet our present obligations; it means that our people will feel emboldened to enlarge the work so as to meet the pitiful pleas that are having to be denied for lack of funds.

A Great Co-operating Agency.

The Home Mission work constitutes the bond of sympathy that binds our work together as a whole throughout the south. It is our great interstate agency; it helps at weak, but important places; it concentrates the combined benevolence of the denomination at great points, such as the cities of New Orleans, Galveston, Memphis and other growing centers of population. It goes to the frontier out west, and joins our militant forces in that great region to build up a kingdom for our Lord in that vast section of our country. Indeed the Home Mission work fructifies, stimulates and strengthens all our work. Through it, along with the state agencies, the Baptists of the south have become the greatest religious force in the southland. Let us, with one united effort, sweep away the threatening cloud of debt and come to Jacksonville with a note of triumph and our faces to the future.

Home Mission Rooms, Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 4, 1911.

RUTH METCALF.

Our little Ruth was only 6 years old, so young and pure. Somehow we never looked into those eyes without the fear that we would not always be permitted to keep her with us—there was a light there not meant for this world. Ruth was nothing but a joy in her home all of her young life—so well do we recall her little childhood talks and her "first letter" written with her own little hand. We, in our humble way, cannot understand why she had to be taken—especially why her little body had to be burned and all of the suffering which followed, but we know that He, our Savior, is full of love and that He had a purpose which will some day be revealed to us. "God giveth and He also taketh away." He gave Ruth to us and she was our gift back to Him at Christmas time, when all the world was being made happy with their "Christmas gifts." May we learn His lesson for us in this sorrow of ours.

BRO. GREER'S WORK AT DORA.

We understand that Bro. O. W. Greer is resigning his pastorate of the First Baptist church at Dora, Ala. He intends to rest a short time and enter into the Lord's work again with renewed effort. Bro. Greer is much loved by his people at Dora, and it is with reluctance that he leaves the field.

Bro. Greer seems to have a great gift of tact in dealing with boys and young people. When he went to Dora the Sunday school was at low ebb. Bro. Greer could not stand to see the Sunday school drag. He would get out on Sunday mornings, after previous engagements with the children, and make the rounds several times until he had drummed a large crowd for Sunday school. Sunday mornings he could be seen going down the street toward the church, followed by a dozen or more happy faced children.

One of Bro. Greer's members became very enthusiastic about recruiting in this way, but did not understand Bro. Greer's methods. This member made arrangements to meet some boys at an appointed place and time on Sunday morning. It didn't work. The boys did not show up. With much disappointment this party spoke to the pastor about it, and was much surprised when he was told that it was only through persistent effort and several visits on each Sunday morning that he could induce the shy little fellows to come with the pastor to Sunday school. After the ice was broken, however, they made enthusiastic pupils.

On another occasion Bro. Greer discovered a crowd of young fellows, ranging in age from 10 to 16, out on the commons with some sticks they had gathered, keeping a fire, around which they all (about 20) had gathered to relate their latest experiences in the boy-prank line. They never went to church or Sunday school, but usually went to the mines and romped all day Sunday, sometimes stealing a goat; they would then spend the time breaking their goat to work to the wagon.

Bro. Greer determined to get these boys. He went out and sat down around the fire with this crowd of boys bubbling over with life, but needing a guide, and talked like a boy about things of interest to boys. He soon won their confidence. Later, one Sunday afternoon in passing a vacant house he suspected his flock of being within. They were, and Bro. Greer asked them if they wouldn't agree to holding Sunday school. "Yes," cried a chorus of voices. "We'll get our supper and bring a lantern," said some; and others, "We'll bring a bench." The preacher brought his arm full of song books and a lamp, and the boys did as they said. Besides, one little fellow brought his father along. A happy hour was spent from 6 to 7, and an announcement made for another such after entreaties from the congregation.

These meetings were kept up for some time, growing in interest and enthusiasm. The boys would forego all engagements for their meetings. The interest grew so much that two meetings a week were held instead of one. Bro. Greer was even chased up if he did not get to the place of meeting among the first. Sometimes on leaving the house he would flash a pocket electric light he carried for a signal light, and the boys coming from different directions on the way to meeting would whistle loud and shrill, while others would answer and break and run toward the light.

These meetings drew the boys into a solid compact until it was thought time had come to the point. One night after a serious meeting a proposition was made calculated to lead the boys into acceptance of Christ and begin a Christian life. When the leader of the clan stood up and volunteered for Christ then others followed seriously and earnestly. Bro. Greer then stated that no one could easily backslide if he would never refuse to do what he knew to be his duty the moment it occurred to him, and proposed that all lead in audible prayer. There was some hesitancy, but they were assured that it was not the long sleep-producing prayers of the practitioner, but the short, simple prayers that were recorded as having produced the greatest results. Thus assured the leader led the way with a "God help us," and eight or nine others followed, and a sweetness that will long be remembered, doubtless by both preacher and boys, prevailed to hold the meeting unadjourned for some time, and the meetings that followed were still hallowed with the same heavenly sweetness.

These boys are scattered about and separated now, but we trust that the influence of those hours so sweetly spent in an effort to lead them to Christ will be an oasis in their lives throughout life.

This is the kind of work so much needed today among our boys. This tact should be cultivated, and such work counts both for the present and eternity.

Bro. Greer resides at present at East Lake. We shall be glad when his evangelical enthusiasm shall burst asunder the bands of his seclusion and he shall wield again in the pastoral field.

FROM LARKIN.

Our work at Freedom church, near Milan, Ala., is increasing in interest since Christmas. At our December meeting I insisted that the church organize a Sunday school in January, which they did the second Sunday. They organized with about 30 members, and now have about 50. The Sunday school sustained a very great loss by the sudden death of one of its teachers—Mrs. Gennett Gentry. She was at her post of duty on the fifth Sunday, and died very suddenly on Thursday following. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Winn, of near Stevenson, and the wife of Dr. J. A. Gentry, of Milan, Ala. She was one of the sweetest spirited ladies I ever met. We, the Sunday school and relatives and friends of the deceased bow in humble submission to our heavenly Father, knowing he doeth all things well.

Our preaching days are the first Sunday and the Saturday before. We had a very large attendance yesterday. We will get the next fifth Sunday meeting. I believe it will be a great help towards getting more of our members to engage in active service for the advancement of our Master's kingdom. Brethren, remember me in your prayers. Sincerely yours in Christ.

A LOVE SHOWER.

It has been rightly maintained that the best, if not the only way to show and prove one's love for another is by a gift or a kindly deed. This is resorted to often by the friends of a bride, to show their love, with a linen shower; so the people of Pastor Walter S. Brown's new charge, the East Birmingham Baptist church gave him a love shower of good things for housekeeping on the night of his arrival at the parsonage. He and his good wife were taken by surprise and were as happy over it as a newly wedded pair would be over their presents as the congregation filed into the house, each bringing something. It was a happy event and long to be remembered.

EUROPEAN TOURS.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Bass, Mexia, Texas, will take a party in June to Spain, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium, France, England, etc. Round trip, all expenses, $285. This is a revolution in cost and methods, the result of ten years' experience by the Temple Tours (founded by Rev. L. D. Temple, a Baptist minister of Massachusetts).

SOUTHERN RAILWAY TO THE CONVENTION AT JACKSONVILLE.

A number of the delegates have already decided on the Southern Railway as the best route to Jacksonville to the convention in May. This line runs through Atlanta and Macon, and is the only line by which a daylight trip can be made. The latest model of electric lighted cars will be provided for the exclusive use of the delegates.

PARKS LOCAL OPTION BILL

By a vote of 58 to 44 the house of representatives at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon passed the Parks local option bill after a debate lasting five hours and after a continuous session of seven hours and a half.

The following letters speaks for itself:

"Anticipating that our friends over the state might become alarmed and discouraged over the passage of the Parks local option bill by the house of representatives I am writing this letter, in order that the situation may be made clear. Will you please see that this information is spread as broadcast as possible through your community?"

"In the first place the Parks local option bill is a barren victory for the liquor forces, inasmuch as they were compelled before going into the fight to introduce an amendment providing that the provisions of the Parks bill shall not go into effect until proper regulations for dispensaries and for the sale of liquor have been affected by the legislature.

"This being the case, even if it passed the senate, there is a strong probability that the liquor people themselves will never be able to agree on any regulation measure, as a number of them will not agree to anything except a high license and pure liquor provision, which the straight-out liquor men are going to fight to the end.

"This is the rock upon which their forces have been split up to the present time. The only victory they can claim is a bill that gave them an opportunity to crow over what is merely a reaffirming of the local option plank of the democratic state platform, and it does not give the right to sell liquor anywhere in the state of Alabama as it now stands.

"Moreover, our strength in the senate is greater than that in the house, and, based upon definite information as to the situation, the Parks bill cannot be passed through the senate except by the most gross methods of corruption on the part of the straight liquor people, and I am confident that we are strong enough there to prevent this being done. Urge our people to continue active in the fight and not to feel that the loss of this skirmish is in any sense a disaster.

"Yours for a continued fight, with the best possible hopes for a complete victory,

Very sincerely,

"BROOKS LAWRENCE,

Join Our Post Card Brigade

I appreciate your kind favors to me in the past. I am now pastor here in Kentucky and getting along real well.—J. S. Dunlap, Hyden, Ky.

Will D. Upshaw, of Atlanta, Ga., will be with us at Brantley the fourth Sunday in February, giving us a lecture on the Monday evening following. I hope the people in reach of Brantley will avail themselves of this opportunity to hear this distinguished lecturer.—H. D. Wilson.

We are sorry we cannot send the January number to these subscribers, but that issue is entirely exhausted. The February Journal will be sent them. Your fraternally—The Foreign Mission Journal.

We had ideal weather for our Sunday school convention at Salem January 28-29. More people were present than could get in the building. Schools 20 miles distant were represented. Good reports and promises from most of the schools to take a forward step in the work.—A. L. Stephens.

A Suggestion: Discussing missions, Sunday schools, colleges, etc., is all well and good, but I should like to see more in the Baptist along the line of some questions of methods. Some one tell from experience how to make a prayer meeting go. Another question: How shall we make our preaching more effective? It might be done.—H. D. Wilson, Brantley.

Wm. W. Stout, pastor of the Bridgeport Baptist church, left last week for the seminary at Louisville, Ky., where he will take the course for four months, returning semi-monthly to his church at Bridgeport. He has done a great work here and has won the hearts of the entire association. The church building just begun under his leadership is to be a splendid one, and the hearts of the Baptists yearn for its completion.—A Member.

You are giving us a splendid, good paper, and all loyal Baptists ought to take it and keep up with the workings of our denomination and help sustain the editor of the Alabama Baptist. Bro. J. L. Jackson is our pastor. He has been with us a little over two years; lives at Hurtsboro; preaches there the second and fourth Sundays, at Pittsview on the third Sunday and at Seale on the first Sunday. We enjoyed some good sermons from him last Sunday, and we love him and want to keep him in this field for years to come. Yours cordially—W. A. Bellamy.

The fifth Sunday meeting of the Randolph County Baptist Association convened last fifth Sunday with New Hope church at Gold Ridge, Saturday at 11 o'clock. Sermon by the writer. Text: II Chron. 15:7. Theme: "Christian Courage." Afternoon subjects: "Salvation" and "Rewards." Discussed by Revs. H. T. Landers and G. H. Shaddix. Sunday: 10 a. m., Sunday school; at 11 a. m. sermon by Rev. H. Willoughby, of Tallapoosa, Ga. Subject: "A Man Sent from God, to-wit: John."—John 1:6. Afternoon: Some encouraging talks by both brethren and sisters.—C. B. Martin.

Please change my address from Madisonville, Tex., to 1708 South Eighth street, Waco, Tex. Many good wishes for the paper. Can't get along without it.—Adolphus F. Loftin.

I would be very glad if you would change my paper from Shawmut, Ala., to Locust Grove, Ga., as I am in school over here now. I am very much pleased with your paper and find it to be a great help to me. Fraternally yours—Rev. W. C. Crowder.

I am getting along nicely with my work for Home Board. Preached at Evergreen for Rev. Richard Hall Sunday morning. Greatly enjoyed my visit out to the orphanage. Preached at Greenville at night. Your brother—T. O. Reese, Home Board Evangelist.

The church at Moundville is getting along nicely. Preaching the first and third Sunday in each month. We have a fine Sunday school. We have a good mid-week prayer meeting. Collections are good and congregations large, with good attention. You are giving us a good paper.—T. B. Sumner, Pastor.

It was my pleasure and delight to be in the organization of a woman's missionary society here today. This is a field "white unto harvest," but the Christ-like laborers are few. We hope this organization will prove helpful to Shawmut and the surrounding towns. We hope also to grow in the favor and grace of God.—Mrs. C. R. Harrison, Shawmut, Ala.

Dear Bro. Barnett: On account of my dear father's continued illness I have moved back in the house with him, so you may discontinue his paper and change mine from Tallassee to Opelika, Ala., Route 5. You are giving us a good paper, and the Baptists are learning to appreciate your efforts more and more. Yours in Him—W. R. Adams.

We closed February 8 at Newville one of the best revival meetings it has been my pleasure to be in in a long time. This is a fine church and a great people, with Rev. J. H. Gunter, pastor. The church loves him. This is one of the finest little towns in Southeast Alabama. All the merchants and bankers closed their places of business and came to the meetings. It was a great pleasure to be in the homes of such men as Dr. Hutto, Dr. Schot, Brethren Price, Hicks, Ward, Bowen and others. God bless them.—J. L. Hand, Newton, Ala.

Dear Proctor: Ask papa if he doesn't think adding the date to every page of the Baptist would help a great deal. Some eager readers say it would help them in looking up articles in back papers. We offer this as a suggestion, hoping it will meet the approval of the editor. We are greatly interested in the advancement of and success of the Alabama Baptist, for we look forward to each week's visit with eagerness and expectation. With best wishes to all the editors. Sincerely—Mrs. D. Z. Woolley.

Flatulency or Wind On Stomach

As It is Commonly Named, Means That Decaying Food is Making Gas.

This most serious condition is very prevalent and results most distressingly and fatally oftentimes. The stomach in cases of flatulency is unable to digest the food properly. Decay sets in, gases form, extend the stomach, force their way downward into the bowels, and if not relieved it extends upward, pressing against the lungs, liver and heart, causing shortness of breath, belching, foul odors and many times sudden death.

Foods which are filled with gases, when taken into a deranged stomach cause flatulency rapidly, vegetables being especially given to this quality. Against such a condition the stomach can do but little, because these foul and poisonous gases affect its glands, muscles and tissues to such a degree as to incapacitate it almost at once.

These gases distend the stomach in all directions, preventing the contracting muscles from doing their regular duties, or if they do force the gas from the stomach it goes elsewhere in the system with even more harassing results, and then the decaying mass still remains to generate more gases.

The most effective methods for allaying flatulency is to remove the cause of gas making. An emetic will do this, but the stomach will have the same trouble the moment new food enters it.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets get at gas food at once, digest it, prevent decay, quickly reduce food to nourishment, make good rich gastric fluid and pass the digested food to the intestines, giving the stomach its rest and the system its nourishment. Flatulency simply can not exist where these little tablets are used. They build up the stomach fluids so that it matters not how many vegetables you eat or food containing quantities of gas, the stomach does its work well and quickly.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold everywhere and used the whole world over by sick stomachs and stomachs that want to eat heartily and yet not get sick.

Every druggist carries Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, price 50 cents per box. The demand for these little digesters is constantly increasing. Forty thousand physicians in America and Canada use them and prescribe them. Send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 207 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Rosy as a Girl.

Summit, N. C.—In a letter received from this place, Mr. J. W. Church, the notary public, says: "My wife had been ailing for nearly 12 years from female ailments, and at times was unable to leave the house. She suffered agony with her side and back. We tried physicians for years, without relief. After these treatments all failed she took Cardui, and gained in weight at once. Now she is red and rosy as a school girl." Cardui, as a tonic for women, has brought remarkable results. It relieves pain and misery and is the ideal tonic for young and old. Try it. At druggists.

Both of these young ladies received their training under Mr. Anderson's directions, and each has done her full share to sustain the wonderful reputation that the school has established for thoroughness, and each does a grade of work that lends dignity to the stenographic profession.

I can show you bushels of corn averaging 2 lbs. per acre with shuck off. I averaged 67 bushels per acre with it on ten acres." Mr. R. D. THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK.

Hasten, my Father, this day of thy Christ. Unite the souls of men as thou hast united the orbs of heaven. May the bells of union ring out—ring out the separation of countries and kindreds, the pride of race; ring in the bond of brotherhood, the law of love, the fullness of fellowship, the symphony of now separated souls. Amen.—Matheson.

SOMETHING FOR EACH OF US NOW TO DO.

The figures given below show how much each of the association lacked on the 1st day of February of reaching its apportionment for the work of the Southern W. M. U. Each of us has a place in some society in some one of these associations; let us find out how much we are behind, and then do our best to have our part fully met. The superintendents will no doubt feel a great pride in having their associations among the banner ones:

MESSAGES FROM MRS. ADAMS.

In a letter recently received from Mrs. Floy White Adams, of Teng Chow, China, whom we are remembering specially in our prayers this week, the following interesting items are given:

"We are so happy to be out here. Busy, busy all the time, but that is happiness. There are seven members of our station, and we are truly congenial and really are like one family of brothers and sisters. Saturday morning when the mail come I immediately asked, 'Is there anything foreign?' There were no letters, but there was a treat for me in the minutes of the Evergreen convention. It was my study hour, but I think I forgot that. I took that report and devoured it like a hungry child. As I went through it, of course hurriedly, and saw the steps taken for enlarging the work my heart was happy. Then, too, to recognize the names even of those always so interested and so earnest and to have their faces come up before me did my very soul good. I had indeed a most delightful visit to our state convention.

"The Chinese women and children are so lovable. There is a young daughter-in-law out in what is known as west suburb of this city. For several years Miss Moon has been teaching both her and her mother-in-law. The women do not go to school when children; so of course they cannot read. Wherever Miss Moon teaches songs and a catechism she believes in their learning the characters. This they do quite readily. This little woman of whom I have just spoken has learned the catechism and a little book of songs. So Miss Moon has given her permission to gather the little children that live near her and teach them what she has learned. It is very beautiful to see her interest in them. I went with Miss Moon last week to her home. She was seated on her 'kang' with a little table up there and six or eight children seated around it. It was a joy to hear them sing 'Jesus Loves Me.'

"Little American boys and girls are lovable I know, but not any more so than Chinese children. I do so love to have them come to see me. They always like to hear the little organ, and like still better to sing."

JUBILEE AT LOUISVILLE.

Knowing that you ladies in Alabama are interested in the great jubilee meetings being held over our country at this time, and knowing also that you would have the benefit of none of them in Alabama, I thought maybe you would like to have a brief account of the great meeting in Louisville. During the meeting I had only one regret, and that was that the ladies who are giving me this privilege could not enjoy it themselves.

I believe the two central figures of these meetings are Mrs. Peabody, of Boston, and Mrs. Montgomery, of Rochester, N. Y. Both are magnetic speakers, and both made several addresses during the meeting, and I might say in passing that both are Baptists. Mrs. Marvin, the chairman of the movement in Louisville, is also a Baptist. I just mention these things to show you what a prominent part our people had in the meeting. Prejudices were laid aside and all the evangelical denominations of the city entered into the spirit of the meeting with zeal and enthusiasm.

The first session we attended was held the afternoon of the 26th. We heard several interesting addresses from both home and foreign workers. It has been well said that each speaker excelled the other. Mrs. Montgomery's address on that afternoon was listened to with rapt attention, and, as she told us of how much more the religion of Christ means to a woman than do the other religions and of how our Savior has made the woman's world and the child's world mean so much to humanity, our hearts went out in pity for the womanhood of the heathen lands and made us long to help them more and send others to help them. We were all brought into closer relationship with the fact of the great sisterhood of woman the world over and made to see more clearly the helpfulness of the heathen to us as well as our helpfulness to them.

The night of the 26th we had a great overflow meeting, and it might well be called an overflow meeting! Hundreds and hundreds were turned away because there was no room left. There were two such meetings in the city that night, and at both places the people crowded in as long as the ushers would admit them.

The morning of the 27th the denominational rallies were held. At the Baptist rally we had the first message from our own Dr. Willingham and Miss Crane. They presented the needs on some of the mission fields. Miss Crane brought to us the special needs of the schools for girls in China and Mexico. Dr. Willingham made a touching and thrilling appeal for more workers and more money to support and better equip our stations. After the addresses were made the collection was taken, and something over $3,700 was given for missions. Then came the banquet, the next center of interest. After a delightful lunch we listened again to missionary addresses. Here we had the pleasure of again hearing Miss Crane, and we Southern Baptists were proud indeed of our secretary.

The night of the 27th closed the great meeting. The young people of the city formed a great procession and marched into the church and down the aisle singing "Jerusalem the Golden." The procession was led by Mrs. McClure and the Training School girls. Our speakers for that occasion were the bishop of the Southern Methodist church, the bishop of the Episcopal church and Dr. Willingham, as he expressed it in his own way, sandwiched between them. Mrs. Montgomery then gave us her address that night. It was a fitting close for the great jubilee meeting. The total amount raised for missions during the meetings by the different denominations was $14,000. We had the pleasure of having Mrs. Peabody and Mrs. Montgomery with us at the Training School once while they were here. From here they went on to Nashville to hold another jubilee. We are praying that great success may attend the meeting there, for surely these great gatherings are hastening the coming of God's kingdom among man, and they are better preparing this land of ours that it might be a fit place for the reception of our Savior when He comes to claim His own, those whom He has redeemed with His own precious blood.

FROM BRO. METCALFE.

Rome, Ga., Feb. 4, 1911.

Dear Brother Barnett:

Notwithstanding I live in Georgia, yet I love old Alabama and all her interests. Especially do I love the interest of our denomination there. I often think of the brethren back there, and when I suffer myself to think of them long at a time I confess that I become home-sick. The dear old church at Albertville, where (under the Lord) I was permitted to do such a great work, is one of the dearest churches in all the world to me. Then there is Fayette, another church made up of the salt of the earth. And there is dear old Georgiana church, made up of good people as ever lived. God bless the last one of them and all the churches that I was ever permitted to serve in the dear old state.

I am very much in love with my work with the Fifth Avenue church, and as I am beginning to get the work well in hand I am loving it more and more. I have a fine people, and the church has not only promised to stand by me in the work, but they are really doing it. My congregations are large. It is said by those who are in a position to know that I have the best congregation in the city. We are getting ready to add to our building a beautiful annex. The new work is to cost about $5,000, and one of my deacons has started the subscription with $1,000, and others have assured us that they would follow with splendid gifts. When the annex is completed ours will be one of the prettiest buildings in the city. I attended the State Baptist convention at Elberton, Ga., in November, where I met several of the Alabama preachers and where, notwithstanding I was new in the state, I felt very much at home.

Brother Barnett, I am praying that this year may bring better things to me than last year did. Of all the years of my life last year brought more trouble to my heart and home. As you know, I had to give up my wife in that awful tragical way. Then since I came here one of my daughters had serious trouble with her throat, and had to undergo two severe operations. Then on the 23d day of December I received a message over long distance that my oldest granddaughter was burned to death; so on the 24th of December I was called upon to see little Ruth's body put in the cold ground. Last year was indeed a dark year with me, but I know that it was right for me to suffer it, or else the good Lord would not have suffered these things to have come upon me.

We have a magnificent home furnished us by the church; indeed it is the parsonage, and one of the most magnificent homes in this part of the city, and Miss Clyde is making me a splendid housekeeper. So I believe that the Lord is with us here, as He is always with His people, and (under Him) we hope to do a great work. Pray for us.

The dear old Alabama Baptist is a welcome visitor to our home. When it comes I sit right down and read its pages; and when I read of my dear brethren and their work, and the splendid editorials, and see the decided stand you are taking against the liquor traffic, I speak right up and say there are few such religious papers as the Alabama Baptist and few such men as its editor. With best wishes for you and the paper, I remain as ever, yours fraternally,

A. B. METCALFE.

TOO LATE.

Several years ago the writer was holding a meeting in a little town in Central Mississippi, and one morning we were having a prayer and talking meeting, when a physician in the congregation arose and asked permission to tell of a certain incident which came under his observation. He said he was called to see a young man who was sick about three miles from the town in which we were meeting, and that when he felt of the young man's pulse and looked into his eyes he saw that he could not live many minutes. He felt that he could not refrain from telling the young man's mother how near death's door he was, so he called her out onto the front porch and asked her if she knew that her boy was about dead. She was very much surprised and her heart almost sank within her, and she said: "Doctor, and he is not a Christian, either!" She was one of those who contended that no one could do anything to get people saved, but in the moment of her distress she forgot all about her doctrine. She continued: "Doctor, go and beg him to give his heart to Jesus!" The doctor said: "Madam, you go!" She ran in and threw her arms around her son's neck and said: "Oh, son! the doctor says you are going to die. Won't you give your heart to Jesus?" The young man looked up in astonishment and said: "Am I going to die?" She said: "Yes, the doctor says you cannot live more than an hour. Won't you give your heart to Jesus?" He said: "It is too late now!" In a few minutes he was dead.

Let us be on time with our prayers and efforts to get men saved.

IN MEMORIAM.

The death angel invaded our midst and removed Sister Edna Wilson. Sister Wilson was a strict member of Shoal Creek Baptist church, and for many years a consecrated Christian. She was a devoted wife and mother. She was quick to answer any call for help and ever willing to administer to the sick and sorrowing. She leaves three daughters, five sons and a husband to mourn, as mother is gone, but not forgotten. We believe it is well with our sister. Her remains were laid to rest in the Coosa River cemetery amidst a large host of relatives and friends. May God help us to bow our heads in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well. Sleep on, sister, till some sweet day all will be well with thee.

THIS WILL STOP YOUR COUGH IN A HURRY.
Save $2 by Making This Cough Syrup at Home.

This recipe makes a pint of better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. A few doses usually conquer the most obstinate cough—stops even whooping cough quickly. Simple as it is, no better remedy can be had at any price.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1-2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1-2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. It has a pleasant taste and lasts a family a long time. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. Has a good tonic effect, braces up the appetite and is slightly laxative, too, which is helpful. A handy remedy for hoarseness, bronchitis, asthma and all throat and lung troubles.

The effect of pine on the membranes is well known. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norwegian white pine extract, and is rich in gualcol and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe has attained great popularity throughout the United States and Canada. It has often been imitated, though never successfully.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., 236 Main St., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Good Enough for Grandma.

If it's good enough for Grandma, it should be good enough for us, and so it is. Your grandmother used "Gray's Ointment" for cuts, bruises, boils, old sores, carbuncles, poison oak, frost bites and the like. "Gray's Ointment" is nearly a century old, and has prevented more serious trouble than any other one thing known to medical science. For skin eruptions of any kind it has no equal. Its healing powers are nothing short of marvellous. Get a box from your druggist for 25c, or, if you want to test its merits before you spend your money, send your name and address to Dr. W. F. Gray & Co., 800 Gray Building, Nashville, Tenn., and they will send you, postpaid, a free sample box of this celebrated Ointment.

EDITORIAL

Dr. W. D. Nowlin, of Owensboro, Ky., will supply at Lake City, Fla., during February and March.

Dr. A. T. Robertson has been elected a member of the Authors' Club of London. This is quite an honor, and we congratulate both club and author.

A good sister writes: "I am the only Baptist in these parts. Please publish a sermon at times. It's the only way I get to hear Baptist preaching."

Young men, try to realize that your body may need to serve you many years, and, therefore, take good care of it, lest it fail you before your work is finished.

Sidestep big troubles by foresight. No hurricane ever catches the alert captain unprepared. Squalls and little troubles can be handled as they come with little damage.

The Congregationalists in the United States have gained during the last three years 80 churches and 34,355 members, their totals for 1910 being 5,991 churches and 730,718 members.

Try and learn that the only barrier between church work and you is you; nothing else stands in the way. You are needed somewhere to help somebody. Find your place and find your man.

Do not be discouraged because there are other men around you so much more brilliant than yourself. Brillancy has not accomplished half as much in the world as mediocre ability with staying power, persistency, stick-to-it-iveness.

In a German cemetery are two gravestones, says O. Funke. On the one is the word "vergeben" (forgiven); on the other the word, "vergebens" (in vain). There is only the difference of one letter, but how great is the difference indicated by the two words. The one life, a success; the other a failure.

Brother, don't go through this year spilling opportunities and wasting chance to be of service in your church. This is a time when willing helpers are needed. Give your pastor a surprise by volunteering as a helper. If you can't find something to do he will find it for you.

As it is the office and work of the church to regenerate and elevate the spiritual in man, so the buildings and material equipment of the church should minister to the eye and mind in such a manner as to produce both inspiration and aspiration. As Israel of old offered only the unblemished in sacrifice, so should the church of today, in recognition of its fuller ministry, receive our best and purest gifts.

Dr. Folk says: "Only a short while ago we were talking to a brother about taking the Baptist and Reflector. He began to make the excuse that he could not afford to pay for it. With a little questioning we found that he was getting a number of secular papers, for which he was paying from $12 to $15 a year. We told him that he was estopped from declining to take the paper on the ground of inability to pay for it."

A new mammoth ship, the Olympic of the White Star Line, has just been launched, which will be the largest ship in the world. Her length is 880 feet—one-sixth of a mile—and the height from keel to extreme top is over 100 feet. Her weight is 48,000 tons. She will be fitted up like a hotel.

A CHANCE FOR TEAM PLAY.

In our great educational revival, in which Dr. W. J. E. Cox is to be our leader, we make a plea for a comprehensiveness and brotherliness which will rise above any factional divisions which may arise if one college or school feels that it is being discriminated against, so that he may not have his usefulness impaired by embittering contests, but be free to expand his energies chiefly upon building up all of our denominational schools in the state and in developing among Alabama Baptists a burning zeal to send and give to our Baptists schools.

THE SALOON AND PERSONAL LIBERTY.

We are told the law cannot say what a man shall drink if no one is harmed thereby. But the fact is the saloon does harm some one. It seizes the laborer in its greedy clutch and filches his toil-bought gold. It crowds the vacant corridors of poorhouses, prisons and asylums. It touches pure hearts with its polluted finger, and behold blighted souls. It blows its poisoned breath upon innocent womanhood, and behold dead hopes and ruined hearts. Sin and sorrow follow in its wake. Death and destruction marshal their cohorts upon its track. Then do we infringe upon personal liberty by the prohibition of such a monster? The government infringes upon no constitutional rights when it compels the owner of a powder mill to conduct his business apart from other buildings; the public safety demands it. The law deprives no man of personal liberty when it prohibits public lotteries; the public morality demands it. The health officer tramples upon no individual freedom when he tacks the smallpox placard upon the disease-infected home; the public health demands it. Then who dares to affirm that the prohibition of the liquor business infringes upon personal liberty? For the liquor traffic is a hundred fold more corrupting than a lottery, a thousand times more deadly than the smallpox, and ten thousand times more dangerous than all the powder mills in America.

BAPTIST FUNDAMENTALS.

Dr. J. B. Gambrell well says: "If the churches all over the country will stand for New Testament order and doctrine, the Baptists may in the next twenty-five years win more victories than they have in 500 years. If, instead of that, we throw down the fences all round, break through the hedges, and go out into petty interdenominational politics, doubtful experimentations and speculative heresies, our strength will all waste and be lost."

We are glad to note that the January issue of "The New East," which is published quarterly in the interest of Baptist mission work, contains a number of strong articles on Baptist fundamentals. We are glad that its editor has given his readers in the Orient such a strong presentation of our denominational principles. If we can judge aright he is in no danger of compromising our Baptist principles to meet the demand of Pedo-Baptists, who are seeking to parcel out the east.

THE BREWERS AND LAW BREAKING.

The enemy is facing us today in an open encounter, on a clear field, and the fight is to the death.

Realizing their critical position, the saloon men invent every conceivable device to stay their impending doom. The brewers are always ready to prove that more liquor is sold in "dry" than in "wet" territory. Loudly they cry, "Prohibition does not prohibit." Of course it does not prohibit when such men viciously plan to violate the law. Of course it does not prohibit when railroads, express companies and stage lines carry "original packages" from liquor-ridden territory into "dry" communities. Of course it does not prohibit when grand juries wilfully neglect to indict guilty parties, when county sheriffs refuse to execute warrants, when judges instruct juries contrary to law and common sense, and yet we have conspicuous examples of the very men who are boastfully publishing their professions of "reforming" the liquor business if it is legalized, but who have been strangely inactive in making an effort to stop the liquor traffic in prohibition districts, where, if they are not deliberately and systematically backing it for all they are worth, they are keeping mighty quiet.

The American Bible Society has recently issued a translation of the book of Genesis and the gospel of St. Mark into the language of the Navajo Indians.

At the age of 93, Mrs. Boone, a saintly woman, mother of Dr. A. U. Boone, of Memphis, recently died. We offer our heartfelt sympathy.

Dr. Henry M. Wharton, of the Brantley church, Baltimore, has been arousing great interest in that city by his series of sermons on the query, "What is the matter with Baltimore?"

Brother, if a young man is leaving your community to go out into a bigger place speak to him, if possible, urging him to make the right sort of friends in his new location.

Be honest with yourself. It isn't, after all, a question of whether or not you feel capable of helping in your church work so much as are you willing to aid. Whether you are really anxious and determined in your desire to find the place ought to fill.

Dr. J. H. Shakespeare, the well-known Baptist preacher, who will come to this country this summer to attend the Baptist World Alliance at Philadelphia, has accepted an invitation to preach in the chapel of Harvard University on June 11 and conduct prayer meeting the week following.

One of Michigan's biggest and most successful stove manufacturers built up his large business on the principle that "no stove should ever leave the factory until fully inspected and found perfect." For an employe to permit an imperfect part to go into a stove was sufficient ground for immediate dismissal.

Jesus was a great preacher, and He sent His disciples out to preach, and finally commissioned them to carry the gospel "unto the uttermost parts of the earth." To stop short of this work is to stop short of the gospel message—it is to eliminate from the gospel that which is characteristic of it and vital to it.

No matter how great the church, how eloquent the preacher, how faithful the deacons, how self-sacrificing the teachers and all the other works, there is always some weak spot which needs to be watched and filled, and though you may feel that you are the weakest link in the chain you must be ready to bear the strain. You can't let go without imperiling the structure.

"And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully: And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room wherewith to bestow my goods? And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow my fruits and my goods. But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee."

A FAIR QUESTION.

If you were using every ounce of energy and ingenuity that you could summon to help along the movements making for a more general diffusion of Baptist principles, if a large part was non-revenue producing, and if you found yourself in need of funds to help our organized work, what would you do? We believe you would make a persistent effort to get the help of those who are interested in and abreast with the forces working toward the same ends.

This is our position exactly. From the very nature of the business into which we have put so much money and to which we are giving so much time, we cannot hope to get any cash dividends, and yet we are not discouraged, for week by week we strive to enlist Alabama Baptists who are able to help the things for which Southern Baptists stand to do their part.

For this reason we confidently lean upon our brethren and count on their co-operation in helping us to make the Alabama Baptist better serve the Baptists of Alabama.

FIGHT NOT LOST.

Some are cast down by the vote in the house last Thursday. No need of that. See the notes below. These are from all sorts of people religiously, and some not of any denomination.

The fight must be kept up, and we will need help from our friends. The liquor money is being poured out freely here in Montgomery.

"The amount ($15) sent you yesterday was raised in ten minutes, and I have never known the people in this section more interested and as much a unit for statewide prohibition. One man said to me, 'If O'Neal succeeds in getting the legislature to adopt his liquor recommendation I will leave the state.'"

That sort of spirit is going to win the day. We have no great corporations to back us in this fight, but a multitude of God-fearing people, who give their money as they would to the cause of God.

"I have just read in the February number of the Ladies' Home Journal an article by Dr. Samuel Dickie, president of Albion College, Michigan, on the question, 'Is Prohibition the Remedy for the Liquor Evil?' This is the best thing I have seen on this subject, and I wish every member of the Alabama legislature and every voter in the state could read it."

The brother was right. That article in the February number of the Ladies' Home Journal is unanswerable. Oh, if we could only print it in pamphlet form! We will if we can.

"It is my privilege and pleasure as treasurer of the W. C. T. U. to send you $5, to be used in any way you think best. It is very little, but it comes the prayers of many aching hearts that God will bless abundantly your and your efforts."

This from a woman's society. How our women are praying to be saved from the curse of rum! God will hear and answer.

"I enclose $5 for your use in the fight before the legislature. And may the Lord bless your efforts."

How the people are stirred! And how they are praying! Some of them are paying, too. We need financial help. Against the liquor money of the nation we are fighting.

On last Thursday and Friday nights we had Bro. T. O. Reese, state evangelist, with us. On Thursday night he gave us an excellent sermon on "Soul Winning." Every one enjoyed the service. On Friday night he gave us his lecture, "The American Boy; His Franks, His Possibilities and His Opportunities." It is full of sermons, wit and humor. In last notice sent in we like corrections in spelling of Bro. Kerr's name in ordination service at Stansel. Note we had it Curr instead of above. Sincerely—D. Z. Woolley.

Dr. Aked, pastor of the Fifth Avenue Baptist church, New York, has just added to his salary $2,000 a year. He now receives $1,000 a month. This is the largest salary that we have ever heard of a Baptist preacher receiving.

WHAT A BARREL OF WHISKEY CONTAINS.

The following lines were clipped, years ago, from a newspaper, and seem so appropriate for the present time is the reason they are enclosed: From a bushel of corn the distiller gets four gallons of whiskey, which retails at.....$16.80

The farmer gets25
The U. S. government gets..... 4.40
The railroad company gets..... 1.00
The manufacturer gets..... 3.15
The retailer gets 7.00
The consumer getsdrunk
The wife getshunger
The children getrags

And this —
A barrel of whiskey certainly contains
A barrel of hunger, of poison, of pains;
A barrel of headaches, heartaches, of woes,
A barrel of curses, a barrel of blows;
A barrel of sorrow, from a weary wife,
A barrel of care, and a barrel of strife;
A barrel of all unavailing regrets,
A barrel of trouble, a barrel of debts;
A barrel of poverty, ruin and blight,
A barrel of tears that run in the night;
A barrel of crimes, a barrel of groans,
A barrel of orphans' most pitiful moans;
A barrel of serpents, that hiss as they pass,
That flow from the liquor inside the glass;
A barrel of murders, a barrel of lies,
A barrel of oaths, a barrel of cries,
That fall from the maniac's lips as he dies;
A barrel of hopes, all blasted and vain—
All of these a barrel of whiskey is known to contain.

WHISKEY HERE TO STAY UNTIL THE CHURCHES CHANGE.

Beloved, what I have written I re-write. We may expect God to do our will while we leave His undone. He has never promised to do so. In vain we expect the True One to be false. But who can say that he has failed to answer the prayer of His people when they obeyed Him? Our watch, day and night, set by the legislature is set in vain, for it is set at the wrong place to begin with. If we had set it at the churches instead of at the capitol, or rather first at the churches and put the daringly bold whiskey advocates out from among the righteous, and then take the matter of legislation to our Lord, He would be entreated. It's the will of man, not the will of God, that has been and is supreme in our churches. To be palating to the false opinions of the people who want influential ones in the churches, for competition numerically, and want them for their money, is THE course of the churches today. It's verily proven that the masses of our folks believe that education and money will evangelize the world. God is showing us that the hook is in our jaws and that every effort to get it out according to our will and in our way only sinks it deeper.

There is a way to put evil and evil does down and out, and it's a quick way and an easy way. It's plain, pure and simple. I Cor. 5:13: "Put away from among yourselves that wicked person." The 11th verse of the same chapter names those who are to be put from among God's people, namely,

When we trust God sufficiently to obey this command we can pray acceptably. I don't write these plain, simple facts because you are ignorant of the things taught herein, but I write them to stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance.

If one word out of every ten that is pressing finances and education were advocating purity we could win. The money paid to men from other sections to try to legislate through our legislature is a menace to pure, simple-minded country people. We were, in our raising, taught that the churches were to set the example of legislation. We must see that God is directing the armies of Israel, and his orders obeyed bring victory; in a way that the church and many of the world see it's His doings. Then His people say, the Lord has done great things for us whereof we are glad. But alas! It's written everywhere, What great men and women; liberal, large contributors, etc. But the unsaved per cent. of our people is greater than it was sixty years ago, and the house is doing as it has done only twice before in thirty years, and the senate has something never known before. We can do our will and we are sure to fall. We can do God's will and be sure to win. Besides, if God were to give the victory to the professors of today, He would be giving it to the godly and ungodly together, for the reason that a large per cent. of our members live ----- wicked lives.

May I kindly ask the pastors if we are not put on the wall to sound the alarm if the sword of Jehovah is coming upon the people? Can we answer for the blood of those who are falling victims unwarned?

Oh, ministers of Jesus Christ who are well educated and are in high places, remember others are watching and following you. The lack of cleansing in your churches causes us to fall.

A MAN'S DUTY TO LESSEN HIS WIFE'S DRUDGERY.

We read in the 7th verse, 12th chapter of Matthew, "All things therefore whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do ye also unto them." While this seemingly applies to the male sex, there is no doubt that it is intended as a general rule, applicable to each and every human being living, and more so, the pity it is not lived up to, to the letter. Take, for illustration, the relations existing between husband and wife. These relations should be in perfect harmony and accord, one with the other, and it is the husband's duty to look to the comfort and welfare of the wife, to lessen her burdens in life, both mentally and physically. But does he? No, a thousand times no. Of course, there are exceptions to every rule, but there are thousands of men today who will sit idly by, peacefully reposed in an easy chair, and allow the already overworked wife to go to the well in the yard, or to the spring at a distance, and bring water to the house, to wear away her life eternally cleaning and refilling dirty, disagreeable old oil lamps, when, with a few dollars, he can install in the house a complete water and lighting system that will save the wife many, many hours of toil, and add a good many years to her life.

Husbands, what is wrong with you? Wake up and investigate this—it's your solemn duty to your wife. The Patent Still Fixtures Co., of Savannah, Ga., have a water and lighting system for rural and suburban homes that is so reasonable that there is no excuse for every home owner not being equipped with every city advantage. The system is complete, gasoline engine for pumping the water and generating the light, storage tank, batteries, bath and toilet fixtures, chandeliers, and all accessories. You can have hot and cold water all over the house and electric lights in every room. Costs practically nothing to maintain, and can be installed in from 15 to 30 days. It is the greatest comfort of a home, and no home is complete without it. Write the Patent Still Fixtures Co., Savannah, Ga., today, and tell them to send you full information, illustrations, etc., about this wonderful water and lighting system, and give your wife the necessities and conveniences that are naturally hers.

WHY DO YOU LET PREACHERS HAVE THE PAPER FOR $1.00

"If we essay to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved? But who can withhold himself from speaking?"—Job 4:2.

Dear Brother Barnett:

I really do not understand what prompts me to write this letter, or why I should lay awake nights studying over the business problems of the editor and publisher of the Alabama Baptist, who I do not know personally, never having had the pleasure of meeting him. Perhaps it's my sporting blood, that always had pity for the little dog in the fight or for a man who waged battle in a righteous cause against tremendous odds. Be that as it may, I am going to take courage and speak right out in meeting.

One thing is perfectly evident to me, and that is that you are not getting the support that you deserve, and that this support is withheld to a large extent from you by the very men that a more liberal support of the paper would benefit the most—that is, the ministers of the Baptist church themselves. Don't turn pale if I enter the very holy of holies to place my hand on the sore spot. I have been paying preachers for 50 years, more or less, to preach to me. I have often thought they need a little preaching to themselves, and I am going to "sass back" this time good and plenty, with this difference: I will not make any charge for it.

Now, to begin with, will you or any of the brethren give me any good reason why a minister should get the Alabama Baptist for $1 simply because he is a minister? If he happens to be at a very poorly paid station perhaps it may be justified, but how poor must he be to be worthy of such charity on your part. Here is an example: I have in my mind's eye a minister who preaches to several churches; his income from these churches is about $900 per year; in addition to this he has a large farm, on which he is exceedingly successful and prosperous; his large improvements in fences, buildings and improved farm machinery are outward visible signs of this fact. This man gets his paper for $1.

On the next farm to him is a mother in Israel, a widow, and about 75 years old. She has given up her property to the support of her children and their children. Where there are so many to divide up with her share is not very great. Last year she had her board, a very few articles of clothing and $5 in cash. Two of these dollars went to pay for the Alabama Baptist, and two more to the aforesaid preacher's salary. Can any Baptist preacher say he is poorer than this sister? These examples among the laity are not infrequent. The correspondence you publish very often prove this statement. Again, I read a letter you published from a Baptist minister last year stating that owing to the fact that he had purchased some land he would be unable to pay for the paper at all, and instructed you to discontinue it. I will not attempt to comment on this.

— — — — — These are only dashes.

I have been informed, one reason for this dollar rule to ministers is that they speak a good word for the paper and also sometimes procure you subscriptions. I am inclined to think that they would find subscribers easier to procure if they paid at the same rate they expect their members to pay; but even supposing they do render you and the cause this small service, why expect to be paid for it? I subscribe to several trade papers that are devoted to the particular line of business I am engaged in. Every week or two I get a letter from the publishers asking me to furnish them with news from my particular neck of the woods, what am I doing or what is any one else doing, how is trade, present and prospective, etc. I am always glad to give them any information I can that will in any way help the cause of trade, but they don't knock off a dollar from my subscription on that account nor yet supply postage or post cards. Again, when my neighbor comes to see me and I have a paper that has some good business aids in it, I always mention it and say, "Have you read that article in the Trade Review on conservation? Great paper that. You should subscribe." I do all these things purely for the purpose of helping trade and because they are more or less helpful to my business. It does seem to me that pastors would be glad to do as much for the furthering of the kingdom of the Lord, and I say boldly at this present moment, while I in no way decry Foreign, Domestic, Home or State Missions, there is no one thing that would do so much towards the furthering of the kingdom so far as Alabama Baptists are concerned as the placing of the Alabama Baptist in every Baptist home in the state.

I think I have said enough cannot help, however, mentioning the fact that a great many pastors I'm to think they do their whole duty by you in the fact that they pray for you, forgetting seemingly certain instructions given by the Apostle James (chapter 2, 15 and 16), to-wit: "If a brother or a sister be naked or destitute of daily food, and one of you say unto them, depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye gave them not those things which are needful to the body: what doth it profit?"

My brethren, much of your trouble is in the fact that you are paying too much for masses. It takes dollars as well as prayers to publish a Baptist paper or feed Baptist orphans. Let us pray that their eyes may be opened to them, that they may see how much easier and better it

Do We Eat to Live or Live to Eat?

Often it is debated as to whether we "live to eat or eat to live," the correct solution of which depends on how we execute this function of our existence. If we merely respond to the demands of nature for sustenance, then we eat to live; but if we employ the art of cooking that we may enjoy eating, then indeed we live to eat.

The national government and state authorities are taking much interest in pure food products, and we are learning what to eat and drink, and what to avoid for the benefit of our health, to live the limit of the life allotted to humanity. We are also learning the best way of cooking approved foods for human consumption. The perfect assimilation of food depends much upon proper cooking and seasoning, and to disregard such produces a very unhappy state, but generally resulting in indigestion.

Variety of food is the enemy of indigestion, but this variety should not consist of meats and bread alone; the system needs stimulating as well as nourishing food, or, in other words, meats, breads, and vegetable products. The best results obtained from the use of vegetable products are when properly seasoned and cooked in their natural state, but when conditions render them impossible to procure in their natural state, science has added various ways to preserve them; one of the most important is the successful preservation of Mexican Chili Pepper in a dried powdered form, and wherever introduced it has completely revolutionized kitchen recipes in which spices of the pepper variety are used.

Mexican Chili Pepper is only known outside of its native country, and was heretofore termed impossible to preserve so as to keep its natural flavor and pungency. When the peppers commence to ripen they have a beautiful scarlet red color and are about four to six inches long. At this stage it is cured and dried, after which the peppers assume a brown—almost black—appearance; it was in this stage we heretofore knew Mexican Chili Pepper.

What is termed "Chili Flavor" is really not the pepper alone; its peculiar fine flavor is obtained after adding certain quantities of Mexican spices and herbs. After knowing the above you will readily understand why Gebhardt's Eagle Chili Powder is hailed with delight by every housewife who desires to use this popular flavor. In the manufacture of Gebhardt's Eagle Chili Powder we use only the finest goods that can be procured. Our Chili plantations are in the States of Puebla and San Luis Potosi, Mexico, at which places we have our drying and curing plants. The raising, gathering and selecting, and all the different stages of manufacture are under our direct supervision.

Gebhardt's Eagle Brand Chili Powder can be had at your grocer's in 10c. and 25c. bottles, if not send us 12c. in stamps for trial bottle. Send us the name of your grocer and we will mail you one of our books, "Good Things to Eat," which contains a number of recipes for making delicious, appetizing meat dishes, and a free sample of this celebrated Chili Powder. Address Gebhardt Chili Powder Co., San Antonio, Tex.

Quick Relief From Catarrh

A Simple, Safe, Reliable Way, and it Costs Nothing to Try.

Those who suffer from catarrh know their miseries. There is no need of this suffering. You can get rid of it by a simple, safe, inexpensive, home treatment discovered by Dr. Blosser, who, for over thirty-six years, has been treating catarrh successfully.

His treatment is unlike any other. It is not a spray, douche, salve, cream or inhaler, but is a more direct and thorough treatment than any of these. It cleans out the head, nose, throat and lungs so that you can again breathe freely and sleep without that stopped-up feeling that all catarrh sufferers have. It heals the diseased mucous membranes and arrests the foul discharge, so that you will not be constantly blowing your nose and spitting, and at the same time it does not poison the system and ruin the stomach, as internal medicines do.

If you want to test this treatment without cost, send your address to Dr. J. W. Blosser, 204 Walton street, Atlanta, Ga., and he will send you by return mail enough of the medicine to satisfy you that it is all he claims for it as a remedy for catarrh, catarrhal headaches, catarrhal deafness, asthma, bronchitis, colds and all catarrhal complications. He will also send you free an illustrated booklet. Write him immediately.

would be for 1,000 men to pay you $1 each rather than you try to give 1,000 men $1 each. Hoping they may come to it, Yours very truly,

THOMAS DIDYMUS.

In a private letter he adds: "Ever since the apostles' time there has been errors in the Christian church. Things that were justifiable at one period are not so at another. For example, this dollar rule might have been justified when dollars were as scarce as diamonds are now among the Baptist clergy, but that day is gone. Dollars are more plentiful than they used to be, even among the Baptist pastors."

A Partial Statement of the Case.

Some editors have also called us down for letting the preachers have the paper for half price. We do not know how to give answer to them or to the brother whose article we publish. We inherited the policy from Major Harris, and so far have followed it. Many pastors do everything in their power to help circulate the paper, and no editor ever had a more loyal set of preachers behind him, and to every one who helps we are deeply grateful. Unfortunately there are some who do not trouble either to work or pay for the paper, and yet for years we would not drop them from the list. Even now, although in a number of cases knowing that we are being imposed on, we are loth to cut any pastor off, and yet we have no discretion in the matter, because the postal laws require it. We are going through our list next week, and regret to know that quite a few will be dropped for non-payment. We earnestly hope that those who can pay to January 1, 1911, will do so. We do not want to lose a single preacher subscriber, but we must obey the law.

P. S.—The paper is sent to preachers for $1 on the theory that they will pay a year in advance. We do not require this, but we do appreciate it when they are able to do it.

A BROTHER IN BLACK

Every now and then a letter comes to our desk which fills our very soul with delight. Sometimes it is a mere sentence telling us that the writer is praying for us; sometimes it contains the story of some pastor who is making a brave fight to win out in a hard field; sometimes it is the tale of a heroic woman striving to keep alive a dying church in her community; sometimes it tells of a boy who earned the money to pay the subscriptions; sometimes it tells of a noble girl who is rearing a family of motherless children; sometimes it is a line or two with a message to my boys. Many human interest stories come our way, but it is a long time since we have had a letter which brought greater pleasure than the following:

"Rev. Frank Willis Barnett, Birmingham, Ala.:

"Please find enclosed money order for $2.70 to pay for Alabama Baptist, Foreign Mission Journal and the Home Field for one year. Please send them by return mail if possible and oblige, yours very truly,

"M. J. WOMMACK."

"P. S.—I did not get up a club by the time you mentioned, so I kept the cards to try and get up a club in the near future. Owing to sickness in my family and other serious troubles in this settlement I failed to get up a club as I desired to do. I am a colored man, and do not belong to any church, but some of my family are members of the Negro Baptist church, and I want my race of people to read those papers to see what the white Baptists are doing for the negro race."

What an indictment of the hundreds of white Baptists who are able to take these papers and keep in touch with the work of Southern Baptists is this negro's letter.

He makes no plea to get the papers at the reduced rate on the missionary offer, which expired on January 1st, but sends $2.70, the full price, and yet because he did this to show our appreciation we are going to mark the Alabama Baptist paid in full to January, 1913.

We hope every pastor in Alabama will make mention of this letter in his pulpit with suitable comment, and we know that it will go straight to the heart of Dr. B. D. Gray and his fellow-workers on the Home Board, who are strong to enlist and enlighten the Negro Baptists of the south. We wish the letter had come in time for Dr. Riley to have made use of it in his great book on the negro, which is being read around the world.

Shame on southern white men who say that the negro race is ungrateful and fails to respond to sympathetic treatment. No trained diplomat ever turned a subtler compliment to a people than these words, which came straight from the heart:

"I want my race of people to read these papers to see what the white Baptists are doing for the negro race."

Here is a challenge to Southern Baptists to do their duty to "Our Brother in Black."

THE CAUSES OF PHYSICAL INABILITY.

To be strong and healthy is the desire of every man, woman and child in this country, and they would be if they would only stop for a moment and reason out the cause of their debility and then apply the remedy. There is always some cause for physical inability, and in the majority of cases it is bad blood. All food, before giving aid to the system, is first converted into blood; in other words, it is blood alone that gives strength, health and vigor to our bodies and keeps aglow the fire of life within us.

How important it is then to keep our "life's blood" in perfect condition, that it may properly feed and nourish our bodies. Bad blood affects the various organs of the body, but especially the liver and kidneys. Mr. E. L. Hammond, Rawles Springs, Miss., is quoted as saying, "I have used two bottles of W. H. Bull's Herbs and Iron and am entirely well of liver and kidney trouble, having suffered five years with them previous to using the Bull remedy."

W. H. Bull's Herb and Iron is a preparation that puts the blood in perfect condition, by freeing it from all particles of impurities, thereby making the blood rich, red and pure and toning up the entire system. It will make you feel like a new person, and you notice an improvement after the first dose. This preparation can be had from your druggist in 50c and $1.00 bottles, or will be sent direct upon receipt of price. After using two-thirds of contents of a dollar bottle, according to directions, you do not notice any beneficial effects, return the remainder and the money you paid for the entire bottle will be refunded to you. Write W. H. Bull Medicine Co., St. Louis, Mo., if your druggist can't supply you, and give them his name.

THE SPLENDID WORK OF REV. S. A. COWAN AT SOUTHSIDE BAPTIST CHURCH, MONTGOMERY, ALA.

By D. W. Sims.

When Rev. S. A. Cowan took charge of the Southside Baptist church of Montgomery in September, 1907, there were 137 members of the church. Up to that time there had never been as many as one hundred people present in the Sunday school but one time and that was on a special occasion. The church has grown until on January 15, 1911, the church membership was 305. The Sunday school enrollment has steadily increased to 223 and on January 15 there were 180 present, and no special occasion other than the special exercise the splendid superintendent, Mr. R. M. Hendley, has every Sunday. Mr. Hendley has been superintendent of the Sunday school since January, 1908. In these three years he and the pastor have worked together splendidly. Mr. Hendley is an exceptional superintendent in that he puts snap and go in his work. The Sunday school now has a teachers' meeting every Friday night and last September a teacher training class of 33 was organized. The training class is conducted by the pastor with skill and profit to those enrolled.

About a year ago it became necessary to build an annex the same dimensions as the Sunday school room that has been in use for the past five years. At present the original Sunday school room, the annex and the auditorium are in use by the Sunday school. The auditorium and original Sunday school room are curtained off into class rooms during the teaching hour. One of the latest "forward steps" in the Sunday school is to appoint a missionary committee, whose duty it is to bring missions definitely before the school once a month.

From a financial point of view it is doubtful if any Baptist church in the state of the same size can make a better showing. The following is a copy of the splendid report made by the church treasurer, Mr. George W. Ellis:

congregation at this time is about $150 balance on the annex and $75 on current account. After reading this article the Baptists at a glance can see that the Southside people have a right to love and appreciate their worthy pastor, Rev. Samuel A. Cowan, as they do. Not only is he very much beloved by his own people, but he is admired by many others than his own congregation. For he fearlessly yet in a kind and loving way is preaching the true gospel with much power.

REVIVAL AT HARTFORD.

Doubtless the greatest revival meeting that has ever been held in the town of Hartford was the one that closed last night. There may be many reasons why this was the greatest meeting ever held here, but I want to mention only two. The first one is the thorough preparation for it on the part of pastor and people. The first thing after our meeting in August, in which the pastor did the preaching, we began to work and pray for the coming of another revival that would sweep the town. In many respects our wishes were granted. The Lord gave us ideal weather, and from the first to the last we had great crowds. The Christian people of the town were greatly revived, and 23 were added to the church. This makes a total of 44 accessions since I came here, seven and a half months ago. A new era has dawned for this church, and I believe by the grace of God we are going to march in the front ranks of God's militant hosts.

The second reason this was the greatest meeting in the history of the church is that we had the right man with us to do the preaching. The man is our well-known W. J. Ray. There are none like him. As a man and as a preacher he stands in the front ranks of God's leaders. He is easily the greatest evangelist Alabama Baptists have ever produced. I shall not attempt to say in what his greatness lies, but I think the secret of his power is in his consecration—love for God and people. He is a power to say the least of it.

But while I am writing these lines he is at his home in Montgomery getting ready to go to San Antonio, Tex., to make that his future home. We hate to lose Ray from the state and the state work, but he feels that the Texas call is a call from God to a field of greater usefulness. Dear brother, we hate to see you go, but we are glad that you so cheerfully respond to what you think is God's call, and we pray that He may cheer you, tenderly guide you and use you mightily for His glory. Don't forget us. Come to see us.

FRANK J. FLEMING,
Pastor.

Rheumatism

Drive It Out!

If you are afflicted with Rheumatism, write to me immediately, so I can send you Free a One Dollar Bottle of my Rheumatic Remedy. I want to convince every Rheumatic sufferer at my expense that my Rheumatic Remedy does what thousands of other remedies have failed to accomplish—actually cures Rheumatism. I know it does, I am sure of it, and I want every Rheumatic sufferer to know it and be sure of it before giving me a penny profit. I want all to test it at my risk. I have personally compounded this remedy for eighteen years, and know it as a mother knows her child. I have heard from sufferers all over the country, reporting cures of hard and obstinate cases where all else had failed. I have seen with my own eyes cases right here in Chicago, people who could not walk, who lay in bed helpless, some who were in invalid chairs, many who were in direct agony, get up and walk, go back to work, have no more pain, all from using my remedy. I know these things, and so do not hesitate to say to all Rheumatic sufferers, old and young—try a Free Bottle of Kuhn's Rheumatic Remedy, for it cures Rheumatism.

Some doctors advise one kind of treatment for Rheumatism, others an entirely opposite one. I don't claim to know more than these doctors; but there is one thing I do know and am sure of, and that is my remedy for Rheumatism. I know my remedy has cured thousands and is curing people every day. Each cure it makes proves its power to cure other cases—each cure it makes gives hope for your case.

YOU CANNOT COAK Rheumatism out through the feet or skin with plasters or caustic metal devices. You cannot TRASH it out with liniment, electricity or magnetism. You cannot WILL it out with mental science or mind power. YOU MUST DRIVE IT OUT!

My remedy cures because it goes right into the blood and drives out the Rheumatism, because I put into each bottle the right medicine to do this. You cannot do this with weak Pills, Tablets or Powders. You must have strong medicine, and that is what my medicine is. Rheumatism is caused by Uric Acid in the Blood. This acid is like fine crystals or salt and runs in the blood. It collects and hardens about the joints and causes all the fever, swelling, stiffness and pain of Rheumatism. My remedy goes into the Blood, melts this acid and dissolves it, so that it passes out through the kidneys like water. Uric Acid and Kuhn's Rheumatic Remedy cannot live together in the same blood. The Rheumatism has to go and it does go. My remedy cures the sharp, shooting pains, the dull aching muscles, the hot, swollen limbs and stiffened joints, and cures them quickly.

Bedford, Iowa.—Before I used all of one bottle of Kuhn's Rheumatic Remedy I felt better, and when I had used three bottles I was well. Now I make my hand in the hay field. I have waited for it to return, but I am so sound as a dollar. I. A. Ford.

Cherry Valley, Ill.—I had Rheumatism thirty years, and was cured by Kuhn's Rheumatic Remedy. I cannot say enough for it. Mrs. John Packard.

Lambert, Ala.—I had Rheumatism in back, hips and shoulders. For three months before using Kuhn's Rheumatic Remedy I hardly did any work. Two weeks I could not walk or turn in bed. The doctors did no good. Kuhn's Rheumatic Remedy got me up, and I am now a strong man. The Rheumatism never came back. Jas. G. Turson.

Knoebel, Ark.—I had Rheumatism in back for three years. For six months before I began Kuhn's Rheumatic Remedy I was almost helpless, and suffered great pain. Now I am completely cured. I have had no trouble for months, although I almost constantly work in water. Henry Harrison.

Tunbridge, Vt.—I am 73 years old, and suffered twenty years with pain in my thigh, on my right side down to the knee and then down to the ball of my foot. Doctors called it neuritis of the sciatic nerve. Plasters, liniments and electricity did no good. Kuhn's Rheumatic Remedy cured it a year ago, and I have not felt a pain since. Mrs. D. T. Larkin.

Union Church, Pa.—When I began to use Kuhn's Rheumatic Remedy I could hardly raise my hand above my head, and had not worked for a whole year. I got back the use of my hand and was able to go to work immediately after using the first bottle. Thos. O'Riell.

Camden, Texas.—Kuhn's Rheumatic Remedy cured my Rheumatism. Before I took it I could not walk a step, now I am well. William Branch.

Dollar Bottle Free

I can prove it all to you if you will only let me do it. I will prove much in one week, if you will write and ask my company to send you a dollar bottle FREE according to the following offer. I don't care what form of Rheumatism you have or how long you have had it. I don't care what other remedies you have used. If you have not used mine you don't know what a real Rheumatic Remedy will do. A fair test is all I ask. If you find the free bottle is curing your Rheumatism, order more to complete your cure and thus give my company a profit. If it does not help you, that ends it. You do not get a small sample vial, containing only a tinful and of no practical value, but a full-sized bottle, selling regularly at drug-stores for One Dollar Each. This bottle is heavy and Uncle Sam must be paid to carry it to your door. You must send 25 cents to pay postage, mailing case, packing, etc., and this full sized One Dollar Bottle will be promptly sent you free, everything prepaid. Nothing to pay on receipt of later. Only one bottle free to a family, and only to those who send the 25 cents for charges. Address your application to my company.

News comes from Philadelphia that Dr. Russell H. Conwell is almost himself again physically. He preaches regularly and with growing power.

I can enjoy my paper so much more when I know it is paid for. I am writing hurriedly. With good wishes to you and yours. Sincerely—A. Augusta Bickerstaff.

Dr. Kerr Boyce Tupper baptized four persons last Sunday morning at the Third church, Philadelphia. His present series of Wednesday evening lectures on "The Growth of the English Bible" are drawing congregations that fill the chapel each week.

We have quite a number of men and women taking the Alabama Baptist who sooner or later will pay for it. Our problem is to try and convert the "later ones" into "sooner ones," for at present the "later ones" are in the majority.

We have often heard that a pastor who had as a member of his church a preacher without a job would have trouble enough to keep him awake at nights, but the following, received several years back, was filed away. It shows that there is an exception to all rules, and we print it to show that when the spirit of Christ is in young and old the kingdom of God advances. It is a beautiful thing for the young to lean on the old:

"For some months I have had the honor of pastoring the Baptist church at Hartsell, Ala. I am young in the ministry, and of course young in the pastorate. I have heard it said that it was not always to the advantage of a young minister to have an old preacher or preachers to belong to churches where he preaches. It is said that some of these old brethren use their influence to keep the young man back, especially in urging contributions to the Lord's cause. I have the honor of having the venerable Dr. F. C. David as a member of the Hartselle church. He is a strong prop and a wise counsellor to the young minister. I look upon him and his consecrated wife as I would a father and mother.—O. F. Anderson."
